Hon. Mr. Hartmann!

There is an old proverb: A good word finds a good place, therefore I am trying it with you supposing that you and your wife are both kind and that you have children also.

I am the only son of good and respectable parents at Potsdam (Prussia) and in spite of my having been always light-minded they still love me as their only child. My father is 74 and my mother is 69 years old, if they should learn that I am in prison for burglary it would cause their death, therefore I beg you for God's sake say a good word to the Judge for me, so that I should get a short-time sentence only, on my knees I will thank you for it and I will never forget it, you may be sure that although I am the older one I was misled to do it, and this Pole invented and made the whole thing, when he
