 The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I
 vs. George Abrams } Before Recorder Smyth.
 March 29. 1883.

Indictment for burglary in the third degree, petty larceny and receiving stolen goods.
 William Martin, sworn and examined.
 I lived at 65 Forsythe st. on the 13th of March in the first floor rear building. I have three rooms there. I secured the door by a padlock, a regular navy lock and locked the door with two hinges. I afterwards found this door open. I had in the room a book entitled, "Collyer's Cyclopaedia of Social and Commercial Information" valued at four dollars, a gold ring worth seven dollars, a gold pin worth two dollars, a pack of fancy cards and a meerschaum pipe, all worth fifteen dollars. I returned to the room at seven o'clock in the evening. The door was burst open and the hinge was snapped off and a portion of the screw was left in the back of the door. I left the place at 7 o'clock in the morning. I saw the Cyclopaedia in the station house and I identified it as mine (Book offered in evidence) Cross examined. There are two marks on the book; one of them was caused by

0465

The ashes from my pipe. I was reading one evening and I went to light my pipe and a portion of the ashes fell on a certain page. I went to rub it out and I dirtied the page (the witness pointed out the marks on the book) I am positive the book is mine. James Smith sworn. I am an officer and arrested the prisoner in Rester St near Orchard St. about five o'clock in the evening on the 13th of March. I saw him go through the streets with this book rapped up in paper. I opened the paper that he had rapped around it and examined it. I asked him where he got it? and he said he got the book in Eighth St. in a library. I opened the book to see whether there was any stamp connected with any library there. and I could not see any. I asked him the name of the book. I put my hand over the leaf of the book. Says I, "What is the name of the book?" He says, "I do not know." I marched him off to the station house and gave him to my side partner. Were you present at his examination before the Police Magistrate? Yes sir and I heard him asked the usual questions. Did you then hear him asked this question: "Give any explanation you may think proper of the circumstances appearing ^{in the testimony} against you, and state any facts which you may think will tend to your exculpation? Did you hear this answer: "On Tuesday afternoon I met Lewis Levy on Astor Place, I intended to go to Herbert's theatre; he told me it is too late, and he requested me to go down the Bowery with him and I did. I was standing with him in West St. near Allen St; he had a harmonica and he requested me to hold the book, that he would play on the harmonica. I held the book when the officer came up and arrested me. Levy resides on the corner of Canal and Allen Sts. When I saw him he was walking through the streets; Levy was walking ahead of me; they were walking in single file; one was walking about two or three feet of the other, and he (the prisoner) was the one that had the book; he was the one I detained. Was it then you had the conversation with him that you have given to the jury when he told you he got the book from the library on Eighth St. Yes sir. He did not tell me when I arrested him that he got the book from Levy while he was playing the harmonica; he told me got it in a library in Eighth St. I showed that book afterwards to the complainant and he identified it. The clerk in the Police Court wrote the statement of the prisoner and the judge read it off to him. I saw a young man with him named Levy, but Levy was walking two or three feet ahead of him and he (the prisoner) was carrying the book. When they crossed Allen St. they were together walking and Levy walked two or three feet ahead of him; they were not talking. I followed them about half a block before I stopped him. Levy had a harmonica in his hand and was playing it. After Levy got away the prisoner said that the book belonged to the other fellow. Then I took him to the station house to investigate it. He made so many contradictory statements that I did not pay attention to what he did say. I arrested him in Hester St. about three blocks from the station house.

George Abrams testified in his own behalf. I live 38 Ludlow St. I peddle with a push cart and stand at the corner of Ludlow and Hester Sts. I was not working the day of my arrest because the officers arrested and fined all men who had push carts; my own father was arrested. I was going to Abels' Theatre and I met this friend who had something under his arm; he said, "Wait for me till I go up to this library;" he came down and had a bundle under his arm. We were walking on the Bowery and he said, "Hold this book till I play the harmonium;" the officer came up and arrested me; the other boy ran away. I did not know the book was stolen. I have never been arrested before.

The jury rendered a verdict of petty larceny.
