Dear Sir) When I pleaded before you this morning and when you reminded me back to fail so as to get my character I forgot, when I put the dress down to state, to inquire at those places for the name of Hermann Schröder, as that is my right name. Ernest --

Dear Sir: When I was before you this morning to plead to my indictment you reminded me not to fail so as to look for my Character when I gave this address to the Court attendance. I forgot to mention that they should call for the name of Hermann Schröder as that is my right name (Carruth Ruben is only assumed) I wrote you a card as soon as I came back but I made the mistake and wrote Fitzpatrick, instead of Fitzgerald, etc.

Dear sir:

In reply to your favor of the 24th inst. asking me for information about a certain Ernest Rubrow or Hermann Schroeder, I ~~must say that he worked~~ for me under the latter name about four years ago for a period of 6 or 8 months

1127

I didn't know the man before he came to work for me, nor have I heard from him since he left me. During the time that he was in my employ, I found him to be sober, honest and industrious and I missed him very much when he left me.

Yours, very respectfully

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

James Ryan.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The complainant had been drinking that evening and unquestionably, he lost the money (one hundred & seventy-five dollars) but he could not swear positively that the defendant took it and there is in his mind a possible doubt as to who took it and therefore asks to be permitted to withdraw the complaint.
