The People
 vs

 Indictment for grand larceny of money

Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Recorder Smyth. Sept. 12
 1882

Frederick Karro, sworn and examined, testified. I saw the prisoner on the 4th of Sept. it was about eleven o'clock in the morning in Thompson St. I passed on the sidewalk and she called on me to come towards her; she was standing outside the door on the stoop. I went over and asked her what she wanted; she told me that I shall come with her up stairs. I did so. At that time I had $38 in paper money and some change in my pocket. I had my money on my person when I went up stairs with her. Then I went up I asked her what is the price? She said, two shillings. I gave her two shillings, and then she laid down on the bed and during that time she pulled my money out. I had it in the watch pocket of my pantaloons on the right hand side. I was then in bed, I saw her further hand there. I first looked if I have it in my pocket yep and then her hand was already taken away from my pocket. I looked in my pocket and the money was gone. I requested her to give me the money back and she said she had no money. I looked all over the bed and I could not find the money; she had her clothes on and I had my clothes on. I told her if she would not return the money, I would go for a policeman; she said, "I don't care." I went for a policeman immediately; he is in Court now - Officer Moran. I waited at the station house and he could not find her at noon time. I went home then and on Wednesday evening he found her. This money was my own. I am a butcher. I have been in this country a year and a half. Cross Examined. I am 18 years old. I can speak a little English, not much. I spoke English to the girl I saw; my eyesight is good. I am not color blind. I am a white man. I was in New York looking for a job. I was working in Brooklyn, was discharged, and came over here looking for a job. I was staying at #5 Eldridge St, a German house where they lodge people. I saw my money while I was in her room. I am very sure the defendant is the woman. I was 10 or 15 minutes up stairs. I looked all over the bed for the money; she was in the room at the time. I looked under the bed also; I had my coat off. The money could not have fallen out of my pocket. I had about $1.25 in change in another pocket, which was not taken. I saw the bills when I paid her in the room. I did not take the bills out of the job pocket, I only felt if it was there I paid her before I went to bed. I had not been working that day Thomas Moran swam. I was a member of the police force on the 4th of Sept. and arrested this woman. Then I came to the station house I found the complainant there waiting for me and he stated the facts of the case to me, what happened. I went out to try to find who the woman was, I called at this place and asked who was the woman, and there I found out her name. I did not find her there. I searched every place that I expected that I knew she resorted from Grand to Kingston etc. I got no account of her then I came back and I sent the complainant home and I told him if I got her I would go after him. I found her a little before six o'clock that day at 27 1/2 Sullivan St., a house of bad repute. Then I went after him and could not find him; she was held at the station house for a few hours, I could not find the complainant and then they let her go.

0174

0175

On the 5th he came to the station house and we kept him there that day and evening and I went out to try and find her, but was not successful; on the following day I saw her in Broome St. and arrested her, and then I found him in Eldrige St and brought him over, and he then identified her.

Maggie Belmont, sworn and examined in her own behalf, testified. I live at 57 1/2 Thompson St. I live out steady and work when I can get it. I don't know that it was a house of prostitution the officer found me in, I did not see anybody doing anything while I was there. I did not go into any house with the complainant. I never saw him until I saw him last Wednesday in the station house. I never was arrested for anything of this kind in my life. I have been arrested for drinking but for nothing else. The complainant is mistaken in the woman. I was kept in the station house from 5 o'clock until 9 and let out. I was visiting the woman in the house where the officer found me in Sullivan St; she used to work with me in a laundry. I had no employment at this time.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

Charles L. Young of No 159 Sixth Avenue being duly sworn says that previous to the 15th day of July last he purchased from Fellows & Pratt No 87 Warren Street a quantity of Butter and left it with them to be sent for, as he requires it for his use

Deponent keeps a bakery and has in his employ as a driver and servant Richard H.
Bottle who is about 20 years old.

That on the 15th day of July 1882 he sent said Bottle to Fellows & Pratt with directions to him to get from them Two Tubs of Butter and bring the same to deponent in 6th Avenue. That Bottle received the said Two Tubs, ^{from said firm} which was of the value of $1800 & the property of deponent but did not bring the same to deponent and did feloniously convert the same to his own use

That Bottle when he went for the Two Tubs, ^{as deponent is informed & believes} said ~~that~~ he
