Your Honor:-

I trust you will pardon the liberty I take in writing you, Mr Senator Cantor who is deeply interested in My husband's case, advised me to inquire if the letter to the Governor could be sent some days before the first of January, as after that day it will be impossible for the Governor to attend to it until July.

Mr. Unger whom I saw yesterday informs me that the letter in question is in your hands.

I beg you as a great favor to dispatch it at your earliest convenience, also I pray you to show the same clemency towards my husband, who I assure you has suffered bitterly, & acutely, repenting his sin. Again I ask your pardon for troubling you: my anxiety Indictment filed April 25, 1893.

Indicted for burglary in the third degree.

New York, May 2, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Asst. District Atty. E.S. Weeks;

For the Defendant,

Mr. A. Canton.

JOSEPHINE KRALL, a witness for the People, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

I live at 220 Third Street in this city. I occupy the first floor above the street. I have three rooms. I went to a ball on the night of the 26th. of March leaving my rooms at half past eight in the evening, and returning the following morning. I securely locked my premises before I left. There are patent locks on both of the doors. When I returned at half past one o'clock the following morning the locks were broken off two of the doors and another door was pried open to the extent of two inches. I entered into the kitchen and from the kitchen I saw three persons in the front room. The defendant was one of those persons. I was afraid to go any further thinking they might hurt me. I commenced to holler. Then people came out into the hall. Two of the men ran away, but this man was caught. Nothing was taken from my premises but I had silverware, furniture and my wearing apparel amounting in all to about $200 worth of property. A police officer came and took the defendant into custody. Before the officer reached me this defendant ran away and got out into the yard, but was afterwards caught.

Cross-examination:

I am married, but my husband is not living with me at present. I have three rooms in this tenement house. The door to each room has a patent lock on it. I had never seen either of the other two men before. I have seen this defendant a great many times in Third Street, but did not know him.

THOMAS A. HERBERT, a witness for the People, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

I am a police officer attached to the 13th. Precinct. I know the premises No. 220 Third Street in this city. They are situated in the 11th. Ward. I was called to those premises on the early morning of the 27th. of March. When I got there I found Mrs. Krall and some other people in her rooms. I noticed that the lock was broken off the door. I did not arrest the defendant. I told another officer his description and he arrested him.

Cross-examination:

There was a slight fire in the rooms of Mrs.

3.

Krall when I got there and most of the people were engaged in putting it out.

HENRY RIEGEL, a witness for the People, being duly sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 13th. Precinct. I have known the defendant for 8 or 10 months. I saw the defendant on the morning of the 23d. of April corner of Third St. and Avenue B. I told him he was wanted at the Station House. When the Sergeant accused him of the crime at the desk he denied it. He did not acknowledge at any time that he had committed this offense.

DEFENSE.

WILLIAM SEIGLER, the defendant, being duly sworn, testified:

I am 23 years of age. I am a native of Austria. I came to this country when I was about four and a half years old. I am a marble cutter by occupation. I have been out of that business for about two years. I was convicted once on my own pleading. In this case I am not guilty. On the night in question I was working, tending bar. Between half past seven and eight o'clock in the evening I went to see a young lady named Louisa that lived in the same house with Mrs. Krall. We were speaking at the door for awhile. There was a dance going on right across the street and I went over there in to the dance. I did not enter this woman's room, but I admit standing at the door talking to this girl and she may have seen me there. I was asking this young lady to go to the dance with me but she did not come.

Cross-examination by Mr. Weeks:

I have never been known by any other name than Seigler. I have never been convicted but once of a crime.

It was in 1884 that I was sent to the House of Refuge for petty larceny. I never heard of any burglaries in that block before this one. If there were any burglaries there I had nothing whatever to do with them.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.

Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Cowing. May 1. 1893 Indictment for assault in 1st degree.

William J. Wilson, sworn and examined.

I live at 343 West Thirty sixth street. I am a carpet layer. I have lived there since the 20th of last June. I know the defendants, Morgan and Simmons. I have known them since New Year. I don't know where they lived. I remember seeing them on the 5th of April; it was a quarter to one when I first saw them in front of 345 West Thirty Sixth St.
New York. I was coming out of the house; they followed me out; they were in the house on the first floor. I live one flight up. They have got friends on the first floor of the same house; they followed me on the street. When I came out on the street I commenced talking to the janitor about taking my rent down to the landlord. He stayed there and had a few words. All at once these two prisoners came out behind me, Frank Morgan and Simmons - his name is ~~the~~ ^{though} McCoy, we know him by. While me and the janitor were talking, I heard him talking.
The janitor's name is Isaiah ^{Porter} Simmons walked up to me and says, "We have it in for you for quite a while; we want you to give us ~~the~~ satisfaction ~~store~~." I said, "Go about your business, I have done nothing to you, you have done nothing to me; what do you mean?" They said, "we want satisfaction ~~the store~~, and we are going to have it." This Morgan man says, "we want satisfaction for a fight you had with Sam Castright, you done him up, now you have to do me and my partner together." I said, "you leave me alone and I will leave you alone." With that Timmons jumped back and pulled a knife out, making a lunge at me; he cut my coat, he did not cut me. With that I knocked him down, and when he got up again he made another lunge at me. I knocked him down, and while I was down the knife fell down. He got the knife in his hand and I grabbed the wrist, and the fireman grabbed my wrist, at the same time and took the knife out of my hand and his hand together. As soon as the fireman got the knife and was going to shut it up and put it in his pocket, Morgan grabbed the knife out of the fireman's hand and ran down the street. I went out of the house and went to the drug store. In the mean time up came a policeman and had taken Simmons in; in the mean time he had arrested Morgan. I did not see him drop the knife, but the janitor of the house in front of where the knife was dropped picked it up and said his boy saw him drop it.

Cross Examined. Have known this man since New Year's day. I never had a difficulty with him before that. I know of no good reason why he should have treated me in this way, only defending his friend because this Sam Cartwright and me about a month before this trouble had a fight and I got the best of him. This man Morgan was the leader of a gang of eight men that laid in Sam Cartwright's house to catch me. I heard about it and notified the Captain they were laying for me. The Captain that night put a policeman on the beat. It was three weeks prior to this time this defendant

I do not bear the reputation of a great fighter. I knocked him down after he cut my coat. I did not jump on him. I was on my feet all the time because I was afraid of the other man. I thought he had a knife too. I have known these men since January and never had trouble with them. I called this man no names whatever; he did all the talking. I was speaking to the janitor Isaac Porting, sworn and examined. I live at 345 West thirty sixth street. I have never had any dealings with the defendants. I remember seeing them in front of my house on the 5th of April in front of my house while I was in conversation with the complainant Wilson on the sidewalk. I heard Simmons say to him, "I will cut your entrails out, you damned son of a b—h," he stepped back at the right two steps, drawing a knife. No words had occurred between the three men before that at all. He drew a knife and made a plunge at Wilson with the knife and Wilson knocked him down. He rose again and made another plunge at him and knocked

~~2/25/25~~ him down the second time. Wilson grabbed his hand. Did you see his knife in his hand while he was making the plunge?
 I saw him when he pulled it out of his pocket - that was Simmons. What was Morgan doing all this time? Morgan did not do anything at all at that time. Simmons jumped up the second time and clunched Wilson and then Morgan grabbed Wilson by the shoulders.
 That time the fireman ran up and he twisted the knife out of their hands.
 Morgan picked it up and ran away with it. He ran down the street. I don't know how far he went.

Cross Examined. Were you present when this trouble began? I was. Wilson had an overcoat on his back. Didn't he throw off his coat and throw it to you? No, he did not, not until his coat was cut, he was going to throw it to me.
 Do you know what caused the fight? I do not know anything about that. I was there because I was the janitor of the place there. Do you know these men? I do not know them at all. I never saw them before.

Edward Lane, sworn and examined.
 I live No. 215 West Forty sixth street and am attached to Engine 26 New York Fire Department 220 West Thirty seventh st. in the immediate neighborhood where this assault occurred. I remember the 5th of April. I saw the defendants and the complainant first at 241 West Thirty seventh street. I was on the other side on the sidewalk about half past one o'clock. They were all standing together.
 I did not see Mr. Forting there. I saw Simmons pull out the knife. I was fifty feet away. I think he pulled it out of the hip pocket. He made two or three lunges at Wilson.
 He jumped back. The next thing I saw was two of them lying in the street. I saw them get up and saw Simmons run after him again. I did not see him have a knife. Merfan was standing one side; he was not doing anything except encouraging Simmons. He was telling him to go for him and give it to him. When you got up were they clinched these two men, Simmons and the complainant

Yes, the whole three of them were clinched together. What did you do?
I ran up and I saw the knife.
You could not swear in whose hands it was? No sir. I would not swear to that. I saw one had hold of the other by the wrist. The knife was in one of their hands clasped like that.
As soon as I seen it I ran in and grabbed the wrist and took the knife out of whose hand it was in.
To the best of my opinion the knife now shown me is the one. I was closing the knife with my hands.
I meant to put it in my pocket and as I had it in my hand and just got it closed, Morgan ran up and grabbed the knife out of my hand and he ran away with it; he ran towards Eighth Avenue.
I had my eye on him; he did not go any place off the sidewalk.
(Cross Examined. I was present when this altercation began. I did not see the complainant strike this man first. The defendant cut his coat twice before he struck him. Was this man down at any time, did you see him on the ground? Yes. I saw him on the ground. After he knocked him down did he jump on him? No.

Did you see him cut him while he was down? When they were lying down I was about 45 or 50 feet away from them. Wilson was not on him. They both loosened and got up; he did not lie on him. You saw them clinched together on the ground? Yes. I know he cut him when he was standing up. I was about 25 or 30 feet away. You could see that Simmons was cutting and not this one? Yes.

Michael Quinn, sworn and examined. I am attached to the 20th precinct. What beat had you in that precinct on the 3rd of April? I had from 34th to 38th streets on both sides. The tour was from eight o'clock to one. About one o'clock on that beat did you see these two defendants, Simmons and Morgan? Yes. I made the arrest in front of 345. Did you see the complainant there, Wilson? Yes. I took him to the station house along with them. I saw Mr. Portinger and the fireman. Did you see anything of this occurrence? No sir. I arrested Simmons first. While you were going to the station house with Simmons did you come on the other man? No. I told the fireman to take Morgan right along. They were all standing in a gang or in a clinch like.

 When I got there Simmons was still going to fight with this Wilson the complainant. I did not see a knife there.
 I had the knife in my possession.
 I got it from the janitor of the house, Mr. Pating. He said he picked it up on the street. The men were present when the janitor gave me the knife.
 I asked them if they saw the knife before? They said they had never seen it before. Did you have any conversation with either Simmons or Morgan as to why they had trouble with the complainant? No sir.

Cross Examined. I did not see the beginning of this trouble and do not know anything about it. You do not know whether they handed the knife or the other man handed it? No sir.
 All you did was to receive it from the janitor? That is all.
 District Attorney. That is the case for the people.

The case for the defense Frank Simmons, sworn and examined testified. Where do you live? I live in No. 319 West 1st Street. How long have you lived there? I have been living there now for four months. What do you do for a business? I am a waiter in the summer and I work at stove business in the winter. How long is it since you worked? I just got out of work about a month ago. On the 5th day of last month I went with Eddie Morgan to see his mother as he had asked me to go around. I met the complainant on the 3rd of April. Did you have any trouble with him? No more than he called me in when I was going out of the door. He said to me, "Look here, I hear ^{that} you was to come here to help do me up or something when I was fighting back in the yard with the other women." Then I said, "O, no, you make a mistake." I said nothing more, and he did not say anything more. I started to go away. He said, I want to tell you. I don't want you no any black son of a b to interfere with my business.

unless I burst a hole through you as big as my fist. "I says, "What is that you say again? Then he repeated the words. So I said, "I am black, it is true, and you are black just the same as I am; If I am a black son of a b—h you are a black son of a b—h. With that he struck me in the jaw. I staggered up against a fence. He wheeled around. His coat was on his arm. That man Brown was standing by the step. He caught the coat when he came to hit me again. I struck him with my right hand. He threw me in the middle of the street and struck me right in the head. I laid out flat on the stomach. I was begging to let me up.
 That boy pulled him off my back and in pulling him off the fireman ran and grabbed my hand and dragged him from under me off the ground. I got up and spit the blood out of my mouth. I walked a block.
 I looked around. I saw that officer running across the way. He came up to me first. He says, "What is the matter?" I says, "That big man putting on his coat is beating me. He walked me back to him, and when he walked me back Wilson and his friend said, "Arrest them two boys there." And this officer and another one ran up, and one took hold of him and one took hold of me. In that time we started off this friend made answer, "your coat is cut." His friend gave Wilson that knife. Wilson said, "yes, my coat is cut. Then the officer said to me, "Is that your knife?" I said, "No sir." Wilson said, "that is the man that cut my coat," and when I got in the station house he said that I cut his coat. God knows I am not a man to carry a knife. I never seen that knife until that man shut it up.

Cross Examined. I have never been arrested before Edward Morgan sworn. I saw Wilson strike Simmons and knock him down. I did not see Simmons cut him with a knife and I did not see any knife with him. I was sent to Sing Sing for assaulting a woman with a stick. I served 18 months. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Joseph Sulari

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. That at the time I made the complaint against the above defendant I was greatly excited and labored under the impression that said defendant accompanied Salvatore Lopez for the purpose of assaulting me. But upon due reflection and after taking into consideration the fact that Lopez was drunk ^{at} the time he called on me with this defendant, and that said defendant being an intimate friend of Lopez as well as of myself, ^{upon being satisfied} and that he resisted and did all in his power not to have Lopez come to my rooms, and when ~~when~~ I met Lopez at the time he assaulted said defendant addressed Lopez and not me with an oath and separated us at once and had it not been for his intervention probably my injuries might have been more serious.

I respectfully submit that said defendant be discharged.
