Q Hannah Drigley being duly sworn deposes and says, I live with Mrs Murray. In what capacity were you a servant on the 30th of May?

Q Chamber maid. What was the Defendant doing?

Q Cook, at that time. Was it her duty to go up and fix the room?

Q Yes Sir. Did you see her in the Kitchen?

Q I was not in the Kitchen that morning. Did you see her in the Dining room?

Q No Sir. What was the conversation between you?

Q All I remember is that she asked me to tell Mrs Murray, she was going away. I went and told Mrs Murray and she told me to tell her that Mr Murray would pay her, I went and told her that when she was ready

Mr Murray would pay her.
She may have asked me for some wrapping paper, but I forgot it.

Q

Were you present when she left?

Yes Sir, I was not in her room. I met her on the next floor.

When did Mrs Murray say she lost her ring?

Monday evening.
The Defendant left between 8 and 9 o'clock in the morning.

Q

Was anyone living in this place?

No, except a little

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

Plaintiffs

against

James Flanagan

Defendant.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse the above named defendant of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE ON SUNDAY, committed as follows :

The said defendant, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 5th day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-~~seven~~, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit : One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one Francis A. Deane, and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT :

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said defendant of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows :

The said defendant, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place, so licensed as aforesaid, unlawfully did not close, and keep closed, and on the said day, the said place so licensed as aforesaid, unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
against

Sama Frasier

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment, accuse

Sama Frasier

(Section 322, Penal Code.)

of the CRIME OF KEEPING AND MAINTAINING A COMMON BAWDY HOUSE AND HOUSE OF ILL FAME, committed as follows:

The said Sama Frasier, late of the ~~20th~~ twentieth Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ~~twentieth~~ twentieth day of ~~June~~ June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-~~seven~~ seven and on divers other days and times as well before as afterwards, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, a certain common bawdy house and house of ill fame, unlawfully and wickedly did keep and maintain; and in the said house divers evil-disposed persons, as well men as women, and common prostitutes, on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, there unlawfully and wickedly did receive and entertain; and in which said house the said evil-disposed persons and common prostitutes, by the consent and procurement of the said on the days and times aforesaid, there did commit whoredom and fornication; whereby divers unlawful assemblies, disturbances and lewd offences on the days and times aforesaid, as well in the night as in the day, were there committed and perpetrated; to the great damage and common nuisance of all the good people of the said State there inhabiting and residing, in manifest destruction and subversion of, and against good morals and good manners, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Sama Frasier
