Dear Sir

Never in my life have
I known such a thing as arrest
of the stain of any crime.

Never before have I thought of committing one dishonest act.

But now for many months out of employment, wanting the common necessaries of life, I was tempted by the apparently easy manner of doing this crime to take my first, and I am sure my last step in crime.

Sir, I could (but I dare not) bring the best of references from gentlemen
in this city and Brooklyn,

but to do so, would publish my disgrace
and that through me of my aged parents. This I am sure would kill them, for they have ever held a highly honorable position, at any cost I would spare them this pang.

0760

Yet for her sake, and that of my poor friendless wife I beg you will deal mercifully with Yours with sorrow

The People vs. William Smith
Court of General Sessions Part 7
Before Recorder Smyth Feb. 12 1885.
Jointly indicted with Thomas Smith for burglary in the third degree

James J. Ward sworn I live at 46 Charlton St. and am in the liquor and express business at 57 McDougal St. I kept a liquor store there on the 22nd of January.
The front door has two large panes of glass.
The front door leads into the street and there is a door leading from the hall into the store, on the night of the 22nd of January I closed my store at one o'clock and went home.
I left in the money drawer one dollar and one cent consisting of six five cent pieces
and seven ten cent pieces and one cent.
Officer Mapaire woke me up at four o'clock and I went back with him to the store. The door leading into the hall was broke in; one panel was burst and the bolts taken off and the lock pried in. I did not find the money in the drawer, but I next saw it in Jefferson Market Police Court.
Officer Mapaire had it in his possession.
This was a few days after I disremember
the date. Cross Examined. I have never to my knowledge seen the defendant before.
There was a light in the store from a kerosene lamp.

Patrick Maguire sworn. I am an officer of the eighth precinct. I know the defendant by sight, on the night of the 22nd of January I was passing 57 Macdonough st about four o'clock Mr. Ward's store. I tried the outside door and found it was locked and looked in the glass door to see that everything was right. I saw three persons in the store standing at the pool table; one was standing at the end with his back toward me and the other two were standing at the side. I took hold of the door and gave it a shake thinking Mr. Ward was one of them when this man who was standing at the pool table looked over his shoulder and turned around full face. As soon as he saw me he jumped from the end of the pool table and got between me and the screen; the other two men went around the pool table and went in the same direction. I came to the conclusion by their action that they were burglars. I looked towards the side to where this door opened out of the hallway and saw that the panel of the door and the casing was broke. I jumped to the hall door and put in an alarm rap. I was answered by Officer

0790

Bishop and O'Brien almost immediately I placed O'Brien at the outside door and took Bishop in the hallway. I started back in the direction in which these men went. I was fired on by one of the three. I jumped back and called on officer Bishop for his pistol as I had not mine with me. Then I passed out and got to the rear door and when I got back to the rear hallway I got hold of Thomas Smith by the neck, (not the defendant) I put the pistol alongside his face. He said, "all right, officer, I am doing nothing." He stooped down and let a pistol roll down his leg to the floor. I turned him over to officer Bishop. I got a lamp from an officer who came in the mean time and we started for the other parties. They got away in some mysterious manner. The pistol which Thomas Smith had was loaded. He had also a jimmy, a dark lantern and $1.05 in his pocket, five and ten cent pieces - also a locket and monogram which Mr. Ward identified as his property. The next morning I saw this prisoner at the 15th precinct station house and identified him as one of the men I had seen at four o'clock in the morning. I examined Mr. Ward's door and found it was broken.

0791

Cross Examined. I have seen the prisoner in the street previous to the time I saw him in Rand's store. I do not know the man who fired the pistol at me. The prisoner had been arrested I believe that same morning by Officer Conney for perpetrating a burglary in Bleeker St.

William Smith, sworn and examined in his own behalf. I live 427 Greenwich St. and am in the oyster business. I heard the officer testify. I was not in the store of the complainant that morning. I don't know where it is. On the night of the 22nd of January I was sleeping in a barber shop. I went to sleep at 9 o'clock on the 22nd and slept till seven o'clock of the morning of the 23rd. Cross Examined. I pleaded guilty to committing a burglary in Bleeker St. on the 23rd at 12 o'clock. The barber shop that I slept in on the night of the 22nd was at 599 Clarkson St. it was my uncle's store. he lives at 54 Carmine St. and working for my uncle was at Harry Miners' Theatre.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.

The People
vs.

William Wood,
jointly indicted with William Smith.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth.

February 11, 1885.

Indictment for burglary in the third degree.

Charles W. King sworn. I reside 46 South Washington Square and my place of business is 89 Bleecker, corner of Mercer Street, I lease the whole building, rent out the upper part and use the ground floor as a saloon: it has a storm door and a door inside leading into the saloon. On the night of the 23rd of January I left there about half past twelve and went home, the place was all locked up, I returned about two o'clock and found a pane of glass in a storm door had been broken. Evidently they had reached their hand in, pushed the bolt back, got inside of the storm door and then broken a large pane of glass in the door leading into the saloon and entered in that way, I missed a cut twenty or twenty-two dollars in silver and a decanter worth four or five dollars with a monogram engraved on it, I saw it that morning in the station house after they were arrested, there was two arrested, I recognize the defendant as one of the men I saw in the station house that night.

Micheal J. Cooney sworn. I am an officer of the 15th precinct and on the night of the 23rd of January arrested the prisoner William Smith and a brother officer arrested the other. We arrested them near a saloon on the south east corner of Bleecker Street opposite Mr King's, both were together about a quarter of two in the morning. About twenty-five minutes past one I passed down by Mr. King's store and saw the prisoner coming from the direction of Mr King's saloon and going into the other, I passed right by not knowing there was any trouble at the time, he passed me and kind of stumbled which drew my attention to him, this was William Smith; this prisoner I did not see at the time, but I went to Broadway about my business, I was there five minutes when this Harry Williams, the witness, came up to me and in consequence of what he told me, I went around and saw Mr King's store broken, I went over on the other corner and arrested the prisoners, I searched them in the store and found the silver and decanter on William Smith, twenty dollars and seventeen cents, Mr King identified his property.

Cross Examined. At the time I saw Smith I saw the other defendant in a toilet room of the liquor store.

Harry Williams sworn. I live at 336 East 86th Street with my father and mother, I remember the night of the 23rd of January, I went to Harry Miner's theater on the Bowery and had to be home by eleven o'clock, I did not leave the theater until it was out and I knew it was too late to go home and I thought I would walk the streets all night, I went as far as Bowery and Bleecker Street and between Broadway and Mercer Street I saw the officer pass the liquor store opposite Mr King's place. William Wood came out of the liquor store opposite Mr King's place and he stood on the corner three or four seconds and he made a sign with his hand, I did not say anything, I went across the corner and stood in the doorway and saw William Smith stick his head out of Mr King's place and saw William Wood beckon to Smith to come over; they both walked together and went into this liquor saloon, I thought there was something wrong, I saw the big window and the storm window was broken, I told the officer there was a burglary committed and that they went into this liquor store.

Cross Examined. I never saw these men before that night and I am quite sure I am not mistaken.

William Smith sworn and examined. I was arrested on the charge of burglary the same night Wood was and have pleaded guilty, Wood had nothing to do with the burglary, he is innocent, I did not see him till I got arrested with him, I never saw Wood in my life before.

Cross Examined. The man who was with me that night lives in Jersey and his name is Wilson, he does not look like Wood at all, he stood on the outside of the store while I went in, I had not been over to the saloon across the way before I went there, I did not put my head through a pane of glass, Wilson beckoned to me and went down Mercer Street when I came out, he made no signs to me while I was in the store, I took the money and the decanter, I went into the saloon alone, I did not know an officer was coming up the street, I knew Wilson about two weeks before this, this is the first time I ever was arrested in my life, I was arrested in the saloon while drinking at the bar, I saw Wood coming out of the toilet room with the officer.

William Wood sworn and examined. I was arrested in the saloon corner of Bleecker and Mercer Streets, I had nothing to do with this burglary, I never saw Smith until the time I was arrested, I was coming from a ball and went in to get a drink, I had to go to the water-closet, I was in there about ten minutes, I was buttoning my coat and vest when the officer came in and arrested me. The ball was at the Mercer Assembly rooms. I have been arrested before over four years ago on a plea of receiving stolen goods and sent to the Elmira Reformatory, I have been out two years and seven months.

Cross Examined. I live with my father and mother at 46 East 3rd Street, I have been working in a restaurant in Bleecker Street opposite Mr King's for Hearn & Fairchild, as waiter.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.
