Police Court, 4th District.City and County } ss.
of New York,of No. 100 East 23^dFrank G. Barkley Street, aged 36 years,

he has just reason to believe and doubtless that, on the 2nd day of December 1885, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, one Nicholas Lachleishner, now present, did willfully maim, injure, disfigure and disable the person of one Joseph Reilly, a male child of the age of six years, and whereby the said child was disfigured and disabled in a member of his body: to wit in the mutilation of the forefinger of the right hand of said child Joseph Reilly, the said injury being inflicted under the following circumstances, to wit: That said child while playing in front of the premises No. 428 East 63^d Street in said city, was seized by said Nicholas Lachleishner, who did then and there place the hand of said child upon an iron railing, and did then draw a certain sharp instrument, commonly known as a cigar-knife across the finger of said child, whereby the said member was nearly severed from the hand of the said child.

Wherefore the said deponent prays that the said Nicholas Lachleishner may be dealt with according to law, and more especially according to the provisions of section 206, of Chapter Three, of the Penal Code of the State of New York.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS OF THE PEACE
IN AND FOR THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

The People

v.

BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

Nicholas Jachleishner.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE:

The prisoner is indicted for mayhem under § 296 of the Penal Code, in having mutilated the right forefinger of a boy named Joseph Reilly, on December 29, 1885, in front of the premises 423 East 63rd Street. The child in question while playing in front of the premises, was seized by the prisoner, his hand placed on an iron railing and the finger cut off with a cigar knife. The facts in the case appear from the evidence.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PEOPLE.

JOSEPH REILLY: - 411 East 63rd Street; a child six years old. On December 29, 1885, witness was playing with a little boy named Conrad Biegner and two other boys directly in front of the premises 423 East 63rd Street, when the prisoner came out, and the two boys ran away. Witness was seized by the prisoner, and although he struggled the prisoner drew him up to the rail of the stoop, put the witness' hand on it and then drew a cigar knife quickly across his fore finger. Witness ran directly to his home, 411 East 63rd Street, only a few doors distant, where he was taken to a doctor by his mother and had his finger dressed, at the Colored Home and Hospital.

CONRAD BIEGNER: - aged 11; resides at 411 East 63rd Street.

Was playing with Joseph Reilly on the day in question with two other boys. Saw the prisoner come to the door, and he and Joseph ran away. Prisoner ran after them, seized Joseph, placed his finger on the railing and cut off his fore-finger with a cigar knife. He and Joseph then ran home.

ANNIE REILLY: - 411 East 63rd Street; is the mother of Joseph the child injured. Went with Joseph to the Cigar factory at 423-25 East 63rd Street of Blatt, Deutsch & Meyer, which is a large six-story building, where the prisoner was pointed out to her by the boys, as the one who had committed the offence.

DR. GEORGE H. TREADWELL: - House Physician at the Colored Home and Hospital, 65th Street and First Avenue. On Tuesday December 29, 1885, the boy Joseph Reilly came to him with an incised wound of the right index finger, which wound was an incision through the dorsal surface of the index finger of the right hand at the second phalangeal articulation, severing all the soft structures down to the integument of the palmar aspect and disarticulating the second and third phalanges. Will testify that the wound was one which could only be made by a sharp instrument, and that it could not be made by the finger being caught either in any door or in any staple of a door.

Joseph J. Sorogan being duly sworn, deposes and says :
 That he resides in the City of New York of New York in the County of New York and State of New York, and is 28 years of age, and is an Expert appointed by JOSIAH K. BROWN, New York State Dairy Commissioner ; That on the 19th day of December, 1885, in the Stone occupied by him, No. 327 Tenth Ave street, in the City of New York in the County of New York and State of New York, one Philip Laracy, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with and adding to a small quantity and proportion of natural Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of animal fats or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or Cream ; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby, in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter
 the product of the Dairy ; that the said Philip Laracy offered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit, one found as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place ; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or Cream, or both ; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow Butter, and was in semblance of natural Butter ; that the same was a substance known as Oleomargarine ; that it had been made, manufactured and rendered after April thirtieth, 1885, out of some animal fat, or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter. That the same was not manufactured, or in process of manufacture on April thirtieth, 1885, but has been rendered, manufactured, compounded and mixed since April thirtieth, 1885, as deponent is informed and believes.

that said Philip Laracy suffered and permitted his clerk and servant in his presence to sell to deponent one found of oleomargarine as aforesaid
 That the tube in which the same was contained did not have the words "Oleomargarine Butter" upon the top or side thereof, and such words were not burned in or painted thereon, with permanent black paint, in a straight line not less than one half inch in length, where deponent could see such brand ;
 that no printed label, bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter" was delivered therewith to the purchaser thereof.

Deponent further says that on said 19th day of December
 1885, he went to the said Stone of said
Philip Laracy in said City and County, and told his servant and clerk that he wanted some Butter ; that said servant and clerk showed deponent number of pounds of the said Oleomargarine hereinbefore mentioned, offered the same to depo-nent for sale, and sold the same to deponent ; that he so sold to deponent as butter one found thereof, and deponent then paid to him therefor the agreed price thereof, amounting to the sum of $ twenty five cents ;
 that, as deponent believes and charges, the said Philip Laracy and his clerk at the time of so offering and selling the same, well knew that it was Oleomargarine, and had been manufactured and colored as hereinbefore stated ; that he did not tell deponent at any time that the said Oleomargarine so sold to deponent was not Butter, the product of the Dairy ; that deponent saw the tube in which the said Oleomargarine was contained, and no printed label bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter," was delivered by said Philip Laracy or his clerk or servant to deponent with the Oleomargarine sold to him ; that on December 21st 1885, deponent delivered a sample of such Oleomargarine, so purchased by him as aforesaid, to Joseph F. Weisler a chemist of the city of New York N. Y., and caused the same to be analyzed by such chemist, as shown by the annexed certificate of such chemist.

Wherefore, deponent prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said Philip Laracy and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
against

Frederic Saracoy

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

(Chap. 458, Laws of 1885, § 8.)

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Frederic Saracoy

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the nineteenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, at the City and County aforesaid, one pound of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), unlawfully did sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Joseph J. Saracoy, for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT: (Chap. 246, Laws of 1882, § 1.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Frederic Saracoy

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Frederic Saracoy

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold, at retail, to one Joseph J. Saracoy, one pound of a certain substance, not butter, commonly called oleomargarine, and did then and there falsely represent the same to the said Joseph J. Saracoy.

to be butter; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

THIRD COUNT: (Section 480, Penal Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

- Philip Saragoy -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Philip Saragoy

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one

Joseph J. Saragoy, as an article of food ~~one pound~~ of a certain substance in imitation of a certain article of food, to wit: butter, without disclosing such imitation by a suitable and plainly visible mark or brand; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FOURTH COUNT: (Chap. 238, Laws of 1882, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

- Philip Saragoy -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Philip Saragoy

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, a certain parcel containing ~~one pound~~ of a certain article and substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy, and not made exclusively of milk or cream, but into which divers oils and fats not produced from milk or cream, entered as component parts (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), the same being then and there an article and substance required by law, in case of retail sales in parcels, to be sold from a tub, firkin, box or package, distinctly and durably stamped, branded or marked upon the top and side with the words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, where it could be plainly seen, in Roman letters, burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint in a straight line, and not less than one-half inch in length, and wherewith the seller was then and there required by law, to deliver to the purchaser, a printed label, bearing the plainly printed words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, in Roman letters not less than one-half inch in length, in a straight line, unlawfully did then and there sell and cause and procure to be sold at retail to one Joseph J. Saragoy.

~~from a certain tub and box~~ which was not then and there stamped, branded or marked as aforesaid, and did then and there unlawfully omit to deliver therewith to the said Joseph J. Saragoy, a label of the kind and description aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FIFTH COUNT : (Chap. 215, Laws 1882, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Philip Saracy

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows :

The said Philip Saracy

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one

Joseph J. Saracy, one named

of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter, and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy, and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or sage, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SIXTH COUNT : (Chap. 458, Laws of 1885, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Philip Saracy

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows :

The said Philip Saracy

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one

Joseph J. Saracy, one named

of a certain article, substance and compound in imitation and semblance of, and designed to take the place of natural butter produced from pure, unadulterated milk, or cream of the same the said article, substance and compound, so sold as aforesaid, being rendered and manufactured out of divers animal fats and oils not produced from unadulterated milk, or cream from the same, the said article, substance and compound not being manufactured or in process of manufacture on the ^{30th} ~~thirtieth~~ day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (a more particular description of which said article, substance and compound, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

I have known the defendant about two years & have always been on friendly terms with him. He visited me often - sometimes in two weeks and sometimes two and three times a week. This trouble was in the evening.
The defendant, another man and I were playing cards & sent out for some beer. This knife is mine and it was on the counter, I didn't have it in my hand. It is used for cutting soles. He took it up and cut me with the knife. He didn't strike me with a club, it was with a knife he did.
It was not a club or a broomstick

0021

he struck me with but a knife.

Q He cut you with the knife?
A Yes sir.

By Mr. Lery -

Q Whom was present - a man named
August Kleeman?
A Yes sir; he was in the yard.

By "The Court"

Q Who was there at the time?
A My boy.

By Mr. Lery

I didn't strike him at all nor did I go at him with a club nor did I threaten to stab him. I did not approach him with a club in one hand and this very knife or any knife in the other. I was sitting down when he attempted to get the knife & then I got up. I was standing up when he stabbed me & was outside.

Herman Lass, the defendant being duly sworn testified as follows, on

District Exam - by - Sur. Leroy

I live at 234 East 41st St and am a butcher. About 8 P.M. on the 14th of December 1885 I visited the complainant at his house. I didn't not stab him at all. The complainant approached me with a club in his hand and struck me in the face with it, under the right eye & he had a knife in his hand. Then I took this club out of his hand & struck him on the forehead with it & inflicted the wound there. When he approached me with a knife & club in his hand - he tried to strike me with the club. I struck him in self defence one blow.

The Defendant having been arraigned,
Judge Gildersleeve said:

" You have pleaded guilty to a violation of the Excise law, in selling liquor to the Officer who makes the complaint. You acted simply as a Bar-Keeper, and I suppose your employer is going right on with the business, with some other Bar-Keeper. As I am informed, you have been in the country three weeks, and you have spent two weeks of that time in prison, for selling liquor for another man. I think you have been sufficiently punished. Be care-

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

James Sennott

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

James Sennott —

of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE
ON SUNDAY, committed as follows :

The said James Sennott,

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixth — day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit : One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whisky, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to Frederick Jackson, and to — certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT :

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

James Sennott —

of the CRIME OF GIVING AWAY INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE, ON SUNDAY, committed as follows :

The said James Sennott,

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit : On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week,

0854
