POLICE COURT
SECOND DISTRICT.

THE PEOPLE &c. on the complaint of
EMANUEL BURLANDO against
ANNIE DUBOIS

Examination before Justice Patterson

May 31st 1889.

JOSEPH E. WINTERS, a witness for the people being duly sworn and ~~cross~~-examined by Mr. Eldridge T. Gerry, counsel for the people, deposes and says:

Q. Give your name, residence and occupation?

A. My name is Joseph E. Winters, I live at 36 West 32nd Street. I am a physician.

Q. What professional position do you hold, doctor, if any?

A. I am Professor of the diseases of children in the University of New York, and consulting physician as to the diseases of children, in Bellevue Hospital, Out door Department.

Q. Have you made an examination of the person of the child Delia Dubois in this case? A. I have.

Q. When was that examination made.

Objected to, by defendant's counsel on the ground that the child referred to must be produced and identified.

The child Delia Dubois referred to, was here produced in Court and identified by the witness and also by Dr. Walter H. Snow, the succeeding witness.

EXAMINATION of Dr. Winters resumed.

Q. When did you make the examination? A. On the 28th of May, Tuesday last.

Q. Where did you examine her? A. I saw her at my office, but made the complete examination at the rooms of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children at No. 100 East 23rd Street.

Q. Now state in detail exactly what you found on that child, describing anything that you may have found in respect to bruises on the body? A. I found an injury on both buttocks inflicted by a hot iron I should say, there being two on the left buttocks.

Q. How large were they? A. I should say about an inch in diameter, an inch and a half, possibly two inches.

Do you mean they were burned? A. Yes, burned and I found burns, also-- ~~Mr.~~

Mr. GERRY-- You can refresh your mind by reference to this paper (Handing witness paper.

A. I do not think it is necessary to refresh my mind by the paper. I found burns also on the vulva interiorly.

Q. Were they within or without the orifice? A. They were out of the orifice but on the inner side of the folds being in rather than out both posteriorly and anteriorly.

Q. What was the size of these burns? A. Posteriorly an inch in diameter and an inch and a half in length. Anteriorly much smaller, much more superficial. And there was also burns on the abdominal walls, on the front of the chest.

Q. Were these burns on the abdominal walls below the navel?

A. Below, a little below the Umbilicus.

Q. How many burns were there? A. Two.

Q. Do you remember the size of them? A. About an inch.
A slight one on the chest.

Q. Where was the one on the chest? A. About the middle of the chest on each side. Slight.

Q. On each side? A. Yes, slight.

Q. Longitudinally? A. One running across in the direction of the navel.

Q. Also oblique? A. Obliquely.

Q. How long were they? A. Three quarters of an inch.
They were superficial.

Q. Anything else? A. Yes, I saw deep burns ^{between} ~~on~~ the elbow and fore arm.

Q. About how far from the elbow? A. About midway betw en the wrist and elbow.

Q. Oblique or at right angles? A. Oblique.

Q. How long were they? A. I should say an inch in diameter or an inch and a half.

Q. How deep was it? A. That one has destroyed all of the skin down to the tissue beneath the skin.

Q. Did it go down to the sub-tissue? A. Right down to the sub-tissue.

Q. Did you discover any other marks? A. Yes, there ware extensive contusions.

Q. Where were the contusions? A. Over the back, over both shoulders, on both thighs, these were slighter.

POOR QUALITY

0055

- Q. How long were these bruises on the shoulder? A. Well, some of them the discolorations extended I should say three inches-- from two to three inches.
- Q. Was there any ecchymosis there? A. Yes, a good deal of ecchymosis.
- Q. Now in regard to bruises, A. There were also bruises and contusions on the abdomen, on the upper part of the chest near the collar bone on the right side and several contusions over the left temple and as the result of that extensive extravasation of blood both upper and lower beneath the lids of both eyes, beneath the skin. The bridge of the nose extravasated down to the malar bone.
- Q. Down to the cheek bone? A. Yes.
- Q. This extravasation of blood is commonly known as black and blue? A. Yes.
- Q. What other marks did you discover, if any on the person of this child? A. The burns and contusions, these were all.
- Q. I now call your attention to the burns. As a medical man, how long standing should you judge them to be from the examination which you made? A. At least three or four days. It would take that time for the changes to have occurred.
- Q. Can you determine as a medical man from the character of the burns as to the nature of the instrument or implement by which they were necessarily inflicted? A. Well, I do not think it could have been done by anything but a hot iron.
- Q. (An iron rod shown to witness) Will you look at this iron and say whether those burns might have been inflicted with an iron similar to that? A. Yes, I should say they could.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

Q. To what degree of temperature must iron similar to that have to be heated in order to cause those burns? as near as you can judge what temperature would be necessary?

A. The iron, I should say would require to be red hot. The one on the left fore arm might be made after the iron was black.

Q. If they were occasioned by the iron of this description about how long would it require to have the iron applied — would not the application have to be longer if the iron was black than if the instrument was red hot? A. Yes.

Q. About how long, in your judgment, would it be necessary to apply such an iron when red hot to produce such wounds?

A. Ten seconds, say.

Q. Were these burns such, as in your judgment, could have been occasioned by the child accidentally falling against an iron or stove or anything else? A. No, sir.

Q. Now come to the question of contusions. From the ecchymosis and general appearance of the parts affected of how long standing should you as a medical man, judge these bruises to have been? A. Well some days— three or four days— several days.

Q. Was there anything in the bruises which would indicate the character or cause of the contusions? A. It could have been one and my impression was it was done by the fists.

5 Q. It was of just such a kind as would come from the blow of

POOR QUALITY

0057

the fists? A Yes, sir.

Q. Were these contusions such as, speaking as a medical man, you would expect to find in the case of a child falling down? A. Oh, they could not have occurred as the result of a fall. I judge that on account of the location.

Q. What was the general condition of the child physically?

A. Very badly nourished. Very much emaciated. Nervous anxious, depressed, frightened.

Q. Judging from the appearance of the child, how old should you say the child to be? A. She certainly does not appear to have more than the development of a child of six. But I should say, having seen her two or three times and talked to her and questioned her that she was older.

Q. How much older? A. Well, seven or eight.

Q. What was the mental condition of the child?

A. That was difficult to get at because first, it was almost impossible to hold communication with the child but after getting her confidence and talking with her, I should say her mental condition was that which you would expect in a child in her state of nutrition and with her nervous system so affected and in a state of suffering.

Q. Was that mental condition that which in your judgment which would result from her physical condition, and partly caused by want of nourishment? A. Yes.

CROSS-EXAMINED BY MR. McCLELLAND.

Q. What time of day did you make this examination?

A. I first saw the child about half past ten in the morning, the examination was made at the Society's rooms about

POOR QUALITY ORIGINAL

0058

half past twelve.

Q. Who was present at that time? A. Mrs. Becker, the matron of the Society.

Q. Who else? A. During the first examination no one else. Mrs. Becker was the only one there. During my next examination Mr. Becker was present and there was another person an officer of the Society whose name I do not know.

Q. In your judgment, the injuries you saw on the person of this child had been inflicted some three or four days?

A. I should say so from the appearance of the injuries.

Q. What effect would the lapse of three or four days have in leaving indications upon which you found your judgment in the case of these burns? A. Discoloration had taken place under the skin.

Q. In that respect only would the lapse of three or four days time result? A. Yes.

Q. And you believe that in that respect only is there any modification of the conditions of the application of hot iron to the human flesh produced in four days? A. Well, it was three or four days.

Q. And the only difference there is, is in the color?

A. That was with reference to the contusions, not the burns.

Q. Now I am speaking about the burns. What would the lapse of that time produce as an effect upon these wounds?

A. The deeper one had progressed to suppuration.

Q. Would you at the end of four days be as well able to judge about these wounds upon examination as upon the day that they were produced? A. I think so.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

0059

8

Q. You testified that there were two wounds upon one of the buttock of this child and one upon the other?

A. Yes.

Q. How did they extend, in what way? A. Were they so that the child sat down upon them or how? A. They were on each side vertically, the one on the left buttock, that was oblique.

Q. That was toward the outside? A. A little more towards the outside.

Q. Now was there any other indication upon the body above these injuries or other burns? A. Not of other burns.

Q. You say there were no burns above these three? A. Not that I recollect now.

Q. Were they on the under part of the buttock, on the part that the child sits down-- that she would sit upon?

A. Not on the part that the child would bring into contact with anything in sitting down. These burns were rather on the part which would be protected if the child sat down.

Q. You have testified to some indications of burns that were between the legs? A. Interior.

Q. On each leg, or both legs did you see that?

A. On both lips of the privates.

Q. How far up did they extend-- how far was it out of this part of the body? A. Right on the lips of the vulva on the inner side.

Q. It did not extend out to the flesh of the legs?

A. No.

Q. These were burns upon the buttox and inside of the thighs? A. They were exactly where I told you they were

POOR QUALITY

0060

on both lips of the vulva.

Q. There were some of these burns that you speak of upon the stomach or breast? A. Yes.

Q. How far above the waist? A. They were on the sides of the abdomen about on the line of the navel or a little below, possibly.

Q. You have stated that these injuries could not have been received by any process of falling? A. Yes.

Q. Take a piece of iron like this book not a sharp piece, but a piece with an edge like this book, suppose the child should fall straddle of such a piece of hot iron, could not an injury something of that character be produced? A. No, sir.

Q. Why not? A. On account of the location of these burns.

Q. Wounds produced in that manner would go directly between the legs to the mouth of the vagina would they not?

. Possible, if the child fell in a certain position.

Q. If the child fell ~~straight~~ straddle upon a piece of hot iron like this or say of the shape of the side of this desk, would not the injury extend directly up to the mouth of the vagina, can you say that injuries of the character that this child has could not have been so produced? A. It would go up into the mouth of the vagina. I say that on account of the location of these injuries that it could not be possible to produce them by accident.

Q. Take a piece of iron something like the top of this desk do you mean to say that it might not give similar injuries? A. It would not inflict the same injuries.

Q. But it would inflict some injuries of that kind?

POOR QUALITY

0061

10

A. Some injuries.

Q. Now you say these injuries might have been inflicted by this iron which has been shown to you. Now take this in your hand and illustrate how you think these injuries may have been inflicted by this iron? A. I do not think they could have been done accidentally.

Q. Illustrate with this iron how you think these injuries may have been inflicted? A. By the application of such an instrument first to one buttock and then to the other.

Q. And then between the legs? A. Off at the sides.

Q. In order to do that you would have to bring the child across the knee or across something? A. I do not think that is necessary.

Q. In what way could you conceive it to have been possible?

A. It could be done while the child was standing.

Q. Three or four of these wounds could be inflicted while the child was standing? A. In the first place the application must be made posteriorly and then anteriorly.

Q. You say in your judgment ~~xxx~~ that these injuries could be inflicted while the child was standing? A. I say so.

Q. Or laid down? A. Or either way.

MR. McCLELLAND. Now I ask that this child be produced.

MR. GERRY-- I object to the production of the child. As President of the Society I object to bringing this child here now to be frightened and tortured again. We have had her brought in here to be identified. We have seen that she is hysterical and terrified and I object to bringing her here again at the present time on the ground that it is unnecessary.

POOR QUALITY

THE COURT: I do not see the reason why she should be brought in. What is the object?

Mr. McCLELLAND-- My client has a right to be confronted with the alleged evidence of her crime.

THE COURT-- What is the reason for it. Do you say the child was not burned.

MR. McClelland-- We say she did not receive these injuries. We say this charge is an infamous lie. We say this woman has the right to be confronted with the alleged evidence of her crime. I wish to see the child in order to continue the cross-examination of this witness. The child is now within the court house and I ask that she be produced while this witness is here upon the stand.

THE COURT-- What does it amount to?

MR. McCLELLAND-- We want to show the injuries. I propose to show what these injuries are. The defendant is entitled to see.

THE COURT: I do not think that it is necessary. We can go on and take the evidence.

Mr. McCLELLAND: I decline to go on with the cross-examination unless this child is produced. I make this proposition now that this child is now within this court house that she has been in this room. Dr. Winter has testified as to the character of these injuries. He is now upon cross examination and I now ask that this child be produced upon this cross-examination for the purpose of aiding me in the cross-examination. And I ask it because it is the right of the defendant. We have no knowledge of the character of these injuries. I ask that this child shall be brought right here and if you decline to do it I will do cline to go on with the examination.

MR. GERRY: The child has been here, we have seen that she is hysterical and frightened and she had to be removed because the scene here was a very painful one. I can perfectly understand that the production of the child at the present time would result in injury to the child. I am willing to be guided by the court. If your Honor desires the child produced, I will produce it but I do not see that it is necessary or that it is the right of the defendant.

THE COURT: Mr. Gerry has concluded his examination.

MR. McCLELLAND: I decline to go on further until this child is produced.

THE COURT: I decide that it is not necessary to produce the child at this stage of the proceeding.

MR. McCLELLAND: I decline to go on with the cross-examination.

THE COURT: I cannot understand how to produce this child now will prove anything as to its condition a week ago.

MR. McCLELLAND: I cannot tell you. I am on cross-examination. I cannot disclose my defense. I am testing these people.

THE COURT: The child will not be brought in now. I think it is proper for counsel to proceed with cross-examination of this witness.

MR. McClelland. I cant do it yet. I decline to go on with the cross-examination until this child is produced.

THE COURT: There is no necessity for it. If that is all and you do not wish to cross-examine the witness, I will excuse him.

I live at 41 East 28th Street. I am a physician.

Q. Are you one of the physicians employed by the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children in medical cases where they require such services? A. Yes.

Q. How long have you been a practicing physician? A. Nine years.

Q. What is your position? A. I have been in the Department of Obstetrics in the University and I have held a position in Demilt Dispensary and I have been house surgeon in Bellevue Hospital.

Q. Did you make an examination of the child referred to in this case who has been brought in here and identified?

A. I did sir.

Q. When did you make that examination? A. At my house on the 26th day of May about half past six in the evening.

Q. Have you heard the testimony of Dr. Winters, here?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. Does your opinion coincide with his as to the appearance of these burns and bruises or contusions?

A. I found one burn on the right buttock and one burn on the left buttock.

Q. Do the descriptions of the burns and bruises which Dr. Winters testified to correspond with the results of your

Q. What was that? A. There were no bruises about the eyes discernable that I saw. They had not developed.

Q. In other words the ecchymosis or discoloration had not entirely taken place? A. Yes, sir.

Q. Did your examination in regard to the physical condition correspond to that which has been testified to by Dr. Winters? A. Decidedly so.

Q. How long before you made the examination was it in your judgment that these injuries were inflicted? A. I should say about two days before I saw the child.

Q. You know about the antecedents of the child? A. Nothing whatever.

Q. In your opinion how could these wounds in question have been created by the instrument here shown?

A. By taking the iron in the hand and the child standing up or being crossed on the knees and then placing the iron obliquely down between the buttock anteriorly and the same thing done interiorly.

Q. Conceive of a child falling across a hot iron, and falling down, might not injuries of this kind be inflicted?

A. Some could, but not the same kind of injuries.

Q. You agree with Dr. Winter in regard to his professional opinion as an expert as to the possible method of inflicting these injuries with this iron? A. Yes, I do sir.

Q. And do you agree with Dr. Winter in his opinion that it was impossible for these injuries to have been inflicted by an accident such as falling? A. Most decidedly.

14 MR. McCLELLAND: I now make the same motion that has been already denied that this child be now produced during the cross-examination of this witness.

Mr. GERRY: And I make the same objection to this as to the other application that the injuries of this child are of such a character and duration that it would be simply an infliction of further injuries to produce her.

THE COURT: I make the same ruling as before. I do not think it is necessary to produce the child at this time.

Mr. McLELLAND: And I except to your Honor's ruling.

In the Matter :
of :
Pease Duhan, a Fugitive from :

City and County of New York ss.

Rachel Bernbach, being duly sworn, deposes and says: I reside at No. 101 Second Street in the City of New York with my father Isidore Bernbach. The above named defendant lived with us for about four months prior to the twenty-fifth day of May last past. On that date I had in a bureau drawer in the said premises two pocket books, one containing the sum of thirty-five dollars and the other the sum of eighty-nine dollars. About four o'clock in the morning of the said twenty-fifth day of May, the said Pease Duhan entered the room where said property was and I saw him open the bureau drawer. I asked him what he was doing and he answered that he was "looking for something," and immediately turned and ran out of the room, and I did not see him thereafter until late in the same day, when he was arrested in the City of Jersey City. Upon examining the contents of my bureau drawer I discovered that the said pocket books containing the said money amounting in all to the sum of $124 had been taken therefrom. I thereafter made inquiries with my father, Isidore Bernbach, to find what had become of Duhan, and through a boy that Duhan had employed to help him get his trunk away from our house, learned that he had gone to the ticket office kept by one Moritz Rosette at 196 Stanton Street and there purchased a ticket over the Pennsylvania Railroad for some place in the West. My father and myself then went at once to the Pennsylvania Railroad Depot in Jersey City and after a considerable search, aided by Detective Dalton of Jersey City, who was attracted by our actions, discovered him on board of a train then about to leave the depot. He tried to make his escape from the train but was pursued and captured by the detective and taken before a Justice of the Peace where, upon my complaint, he was committed for thirty days to await the arrival of extradition papers. Upon being arrested he confessed to me that he had stolen my property and said that he had done so because he had no money of his own.

From the foregoing I allege that the said Duhan after the commission by him of the crime above stated, and for the purpose of avoiding arrest therefor, fled from this jurisdiction and is now a fugitive from the justice of this State in the State of New Jersey.
