A/S
The People
vs.
Charles Sofsky.

{ The Court of General Sessions, Part I,
Before Recorder Smyth.

Monday, May 6, 1889.

Jointly indicted with Samuel Baker for burglary in the third degree, grand larceny in the second degree and receiving stolen goods.

David Levine sworn and examined.

I live No. 20 Chrystie Street and manufacture clothing at 35 Bayard Street; on the 19th of April I manufactured clothing there and occupy the first floor, I had property in the premises on the 19th of April, I locked up the place in good order at half past six in the evening and left clothing there, I was sleeping and the officer came about eleven o'clock to my house in Chrystie Street; I got up and went down to 35 Bayard Street and there found a window in the hall broken, there is a little window in the hall leading from the street, it was fastened, nailed with wood and a sheet of tin; when I left my premises at six o'clock that night this window was closed up and when I got back at eleven it was broken in; a large person could not get in but a boy could. When I got to my place with the officer I unlocked my door to get in, I missed my clothing when I went in consisting of thirty-nine pairs of pants, twenty coats, one overcoat and a pair of shears, I figured the property altogether to amount to about $265; I reckoned the pants at $2.50 a pair, the coats at $5.00 apiece, the overcoat at $15 and the shears at $8.00. I missed that property which was in my place just before I locked up, I saw the property afterwards in the Station House on the 19th of April in the evening about eleven o'clock in the evening when I went there with the police officer -- all I saw was one overcoat, it was my overcoat which I wore, I never have seen any of my coats; 35 Bayard Street is in the 10th ward.

Cross Examined. This place 35 Bayard Street is a tenement house, people live there but I don't know how many, I was engaged in business there a couple of months, I know Mr. Goldberg, the man who leases the house, he lives there with his family, Mr. Goldberg lived above my premises, I suppose another family lived above him but I do not know. It is possible for either of the defendants to have gone through that small window. I never saw the father of Sofsky before I saw him down in the Essex Court, I do not know that he had his place of business as manufacturing tailor in the same building, 35 Bayard Street. I did not call upon Sofsky's father in his shop at noon on the 19th of April, I did not talk with his father in Essex Market, I saw him in 35 Bayard Street after it happened, he went up to Goldberg's but I did not talk with him then. It is not a fact that I went up to Mr. Sofsky place in 35 Bayard Street on this day in question and asked him to allow Charlie to help me carry away some goods that night. It is not a fact that Sofsky's father told me that he could not let his boy leave the shop at that time and that I would have to wait till the evening. When I got to my place I did not find the door broken open, it was locked, I never saw Sofsky the defendant at 35 Bayard Street, the first time I saw him was in the Eldridge St. Station House. I did not go with these two boys on the night in question and direct them to deliver these two bundles to one of my customers in Orchard Street, I have no customers in Orchard Street. I went to the Station House with the officer on the night of the 19th of April and saw my overcoat, the other clothing was there but I did not see it, I seen it lying in bundles but I did not see the goods they did not give me any show to see the goods. Sofsky jumped up and said, "that overcoat belongs to me."

Owen Gallagher sworn and examined.

I am an officer of the 11th precinct and arrested these Defendants on the 19th of April between ten and eleven o'clock in Hester Street near Forseith, about five blocks away from 35 Bayard Street, it was between ten and eleven o'clock at night when I arrested them; both of them had bundles of clothing on their shoulders, I asked them where they got it and they told me they were sent from 35 Bayard Street to 111 Orchard Street, I thought it was a kind of late hour to be carrying bundles and I brought them to the Station House; they did not say from whom they had received them, they said a man sent them with them, I had no further conversation about it, I left them there and the Captain sent me down to 35 Bayard Street to investigate it.

I examined these bundles and they contained thirty-nine pairs of pants, nineteen sack coats and one overcoat and a pair of shears, I was present when the complainant was there. Officer Reap went to his house and woke him up, I and brought him to the Station House, Officer Reap brought him to Bayard Street. I saw the window that the complainant speaks of, there is no glass in it, it has a piece of thin covering on the inside of it, it is about a little over a foot long and not quite a foot wide, it is closed on the inside of the store with a piece of cloth covering and a piece of tin tacked on over the cloth. I had no further conversation with the defendants concerning this breaking; the window was broken when I got there, the window was about four and half feet from the floor, the complainant picked up the tin in the room. I do not think either of these defendants could have got in through the window judging from the size of it. The defendants did not tell me the name of the person to whom they were taking the bundles, they said they were taking them to 111 Orchard Street, I went there and found that Sofsky's father lived on the first floor, I did not know Levine before the time of the alleged burglary; at the time I arrested these defendants I did not look back to see whether Levine was following them.

Charles Sofsky sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: I am nineteen years old and was working up to the time of my arrest as an operator upon coats for my father who kept a place at 35 Bayard Street top floor, it is a tenement house, a couple of families live there, I have been working for my father for six years, I remember the 19th of April which was on a Friday, I was working that day in the shop. At noontime Mr. Levine came to my father's shop and asked him if I could carry some work for him. My father said, "yes, after he gets through with his work." After I got through with my work I went home to supper, I left the house a quarter to ~~ten~~, I went back to 35 Bayard Street, Mr. Levine was standing there and he asked me again if I would carry the work for him. I says yes; he gave me a bundle as he was going out, I was going up the stairs on the stoop, my father keeps the shop upstairs and Levine keeps a place in the basement, he handed me a bundle of coats and he had a bundle of coats on his shoulder; as we were going out he asked this young fellow Baker if he would carry a bundle and make a couple of cents? He says yes; we took the bundles and we were walking up as far as Chrystie Street and Hester and as we got around Hester I seen no sign of him, I saw the officer coming along and he asked me where did I get these goods? I said a man ordered me to carry them to 111 Orchard Street, with that he arrested us. We got the goods about a quarter to nine and we were arrested about half past ten. Neither Baker nor I broke into the place of the complainant but we got these goods in the manner I have described, I have never been arrested before, I always went to school until I began to work, I have always lived at home and have been a good boy, my father is in Court.

Cross Examined. I live at 111 Orchard Street, I got home to supper at about seven o'clock, I left about 7.45 to go to Mr. Levine's and got there to 35 Bayard St at half past eight, it took me about twenty-five minutes to walk there; as soon as I got upstairs I saw Mr. Levine in the hallway, he had the door open yet and he gave me the bundle and I started away about five minutes after, I was arrested at half past ten in Hester Street between Chrystie and Forseith, I saw the clock at the Station

5 House and it was a quarter to eleven; it was about four and a half or five blocks from Bayard Street to where I was arrested and it took us an hour and a half to go that distance because the bundles were very heavy, we were very tired and we put the bundle down pretty near every half block, I was perspiring very hard as the officer can say, Mr. Levine as far as I know was with us up to Hester and Chrystie Streets; he promised me half a dollar and the other fellow he promised a couple of cents, he told me to take them to, 111 Orchard Street, I live at 111 Orchard Street with my father, it is a five story brown stone building, we lived there about a year and a half, I don't know anybody of the name of Levine living there, he did not tell me what floor to take them to, I did not know what was in the packages. I did not attempt to run away when I saw the officer. In the neighborhood where I live a great many people have their clothing business in the tenement houses the same as they have in 35 Bayard Street.

Samuel Baker sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: I am eighteen years old and worked four years as a tinsmith, the last time I worked was in Scheider's in Brooklyn three weeks ago, I also worked for Goldstein and other tinsmiths, I live home with my mother 222 Madison Street, my father is dead. On the night in question as I was going out from the house, I walked up Bayard Street on the other side of the Bowery towards Chrystie Street and as I walked past this man Levine was standing in the hallway, he called me over and said, "young fellow, will you carry a bundle and I will pay you for it." I says, "certainly", I went in the hallway, he had it on his shoulder, he handed me the bundle and I walked out on the street, he said, "take it easy and walk together, I will be right behind you, walk as far as Orchard Street and I will meet you down there." I did not know what place it was going to, I heard him say that the goods were going to Orchard Street to a man named Levine or Levy, either one of those two names; we walked towards Chrystie Street, we turned down Hester Street, we came as far as Forscith and Chrystie Streets and we stopped there; he stopped just to look around and I stopped, I says, "what are you stopping at"; we stopped five or six places and every time we took a good rest because the bundles were very heavy. I says, "what are you stopping about?" And he says, "I want to see where this Mr. Levine is." When we turned Officer Gallagher took a kind of suspicion because it was late at night when the bundles were carried and he had us arrested for it. When we went down to the Station House we told him the same thing, I did not tell him nothing, Charlie Sofsky told him. Neither Sofsky nor I broke into the place in Bayard Street, I never saw the complainant before that night.

POOR QUALITY

Cross Examined. Mr. Levine said he would make it all right with me, Charlie was outside and had a bundle when I came up. I expected a job in Coney Island. on the 10th of May in a saloon to gather up empty glasses. I saw Sofsky before this night but never spoke with him. There were pantaloons in the bundle I had, there was no paper on them but a string around them.

Maurice Sofsky sworn and examined.

I am the father of the defendant Sofsky and am a tailor, my place is in 35 Bayard Street, I moved there about two months ago, I know Mr. Levine the complainant, his workshop was in the same building, I have been in it. The window spoken of is about as small as my hat, it is not possible for any human being to get in that window, I remember the 19th of April which was on Friday, I saw Levine that day at dinner time about twelve o'clock in my shop upstairs, Mr. Levine keeps down stairs, he came up and it was not the first time, I can prove that he was in my shop several times; he came up this day and said, "will you give me your son to go along with some goods?" I said, "he has not time now, he is working." My son went home with me to supper and I said to him, "if you can do a favor for the man, why not." We stopped work at seven o'clock, we had supper and he left the house at eight o'clock; he has worked for me since he left school, over six years, I have sent him continually to merchants for goods and he has collected money, I always found him an honest boy. When Mr. Levine moved in I loaned him lamps to work, I can prove that by Mr. Goldberg.

Cross Examined.

Mr. Levine does not live in Orchard Street, there is a man the name of Levine who lives on the third floor in Orchard Street and makes clothing but it is not the complainant, I know the other Levine about five years, he never did any work for me and I do not know where his place of business is. I never had any trouble with the complainant and cannot explain why he would make this charge against my son except that maybe he lost the clothes on the road and he followed my poor son.

Rosa Zitrenbaum sworn and examined through the Interpreter. I am sixty-five years of age and am the house-keeper at 35 Bayard street; the father of the defendant Sofsky keeps a shop on the top floor and Levine keeps a shop on the first floor near the stoop, I have been in Levine's premises many a time; the little window in the hall of his place is the size of that leather bag (pointing to a bag on the table). I remember the Friday night when I saw Sofsky and Levine, I saw Levine giving bundles to Sofsky and the other defendant, I did not know Baker but I knew Sofsky, I saw him give a bundle to Sofsky. Levine made the remark to me when he left, "now you lock the door because loafers come in and the drunken bummers lie around." I locked the door, they went a little while before and Levine followed them.

Cross Examined. I keep the key, it is not a lock it is a kind of chain that is fastened inside, it cannot be opened from the outside, I unfastened it the next morning about six or seven o'clock, I did not take any notice of the hole which you call the window, sometimes a piece of paper is stuck in, I saw Levine the next morning in his room at ten o'clock, I was on the stairs and I did not have a regular conversation with him.

Maurice Goldberg sworn and examined.

I am the lessee of 35 Bayard Street and have had the house about two years, it is a five story house and I have five tenants in the house, I have my shop there, Mr. Levine and Mr. Sofsky has a place there, Mr. Levine occupies the floor above the basement on the first floor, I have been in his place of business many a time, I have the measurement of the window, it is eleven inches long and twelve broad and fifty-five inches from the bottom to the window, it is for an air hole. It is possible that a boy half the size of these boys, the defendants, might get into that hole. I remember this Friday night, I was in the house at nine o'clock, I was sleeping, my wife told me the next morning that Levine and two boys carried away two bundles, my wife told me that my mother locked the door after they left, I know that the defendant Sofsky works in his father's place and I know him to be an honest boy. I went to bed that night at nine o'clock, I did not let anybody into the house before nine o'clock.

Jacob B. Baum sworn and examined.

I am superintendent of the wholesale clothing house of Louis Bessar & CO. 724 Broadway, I know the prisoner Sofsky for the last two years, he delivered goods for his father and I always found them correct; his father used to work for our firm and this boy delivered the work manufactured.

Owen Gallagher recalled by Mr. Davis.

I went to 35 Bayard Street after making this arrest on the night of the 19th of April and Goldberg the last witness on the stand before Baum let me in the door, it was half past ten o'clock. When I arrested these defendants neither of them said that they received the goods from Levine. When Goldberg opened the door for me I asked him where the proprietor of the store on the first floor lived and he told me in 20 Chrystie Street, I sent Officer Reap around there and waited, and Officer Reap was with me when I went down to Bayard Street from the Station House, he was with me when I rung the bell and Goldberg came down, I told Goldberg that there had been some goods stolen and I looked at the small window, he was standing on the stairs at the time, the window is about three or four feet from the stairs, Goldberg was talking Jewish, I could not understand what he was saying, I asked him where the proprietor of the first floor lived in English, he told me Levine occupied it and that he lived in 20 Chrystie St., he understood what I asked him, he was in his shirt sleeves and had pantaloons on; it was dark when we got in the hall and we lit the gas.

David Levine recalled.

It is not true what the defendants have testified, that I gave them two bundles on the evening of the 19th of April at 35 Bayard Street. Goldberg is the brother-in-law of Mr. Sofsky and the house-keeper is his grandmother.

I close up my place of business generally Friday night at six or half past six, I keep my religion, I never kept open Friday night. I never was in Sofsky's place, 35 Bayard Street and never asked him to allow his son to carry a bundle for me, I do not know whether these defendants robbed me or not, the officer came up and he told me my place was robbed, before he told me that I had made no complaint, I was in bed when the officer came to me, I had my supper and I went to bed about eight o'clock, I sleep on the first floor in 20 Chrystie Street, he knocked a good many times and I was afraid to open the door, when I did he asked me if I kept a place in 35 Bayard Street and I told him I did. He said then come on and let us go down there; I went down there and he told me to unlock the door, I unlocked the door and seen that all my goods were missing, that is the first I knew of it; the hall door is fastened with a chain, Sofsky's mother-in-law always locked the door with a chain; a party told me that Mr. Goldberg is brother-in-law to Charlie Sofsky. The goods which were stolen from me were lying in the middle room on a table and the table was standing about two yards from the window; the goods were not tied up but loose on the table. I repeat that I never was in Sofsky's place before this day; it is not a fact that I loaned some lamps from the elder Sofsky but I did lend Mr. Goldberg a lamp, I did not lend lamps from Sofsky's father two weeks before that Friday. I was married about three or four weeks before the holidays, I was married when this burglary took place, my wife knows that I was in bed that Friday night. I have never been arrested.

Owen Gallagher recalled.

When I found these defendants with the bundles they were not tied or fastened together in any way, the garments were loose and no strings were around the bundles.

Abraham Korngold sworn and examined by Counsel.

My business is tailoring and I work for Mr. Sofsky at 35 Bayard Street; I worked there over a year, I know Mr. Levine and he keeps a place in the same building. I remember seeing him on a Friday in the month of April, he came to Mr. Sofsky's place of business on the top floor, it was dinner time, about half past twelve, he asked me if Mr. Sofsky was in, I told him yes and he came in. Mr. Levine asked Sofsky that he should tell hisnson he should carry bundles away, I was in there that time and then went to dinner. Mr. Levine says to Sofsky he should send his son with these bundles, Sofsky says that he will send him, that is all I heard and then I went to dinner.

Sam Cotchinskis sworn and examined.

I have been in this country ten weeks, I work for Mr. Sofsky, 35 Bayard Street and have been working for him seven weeks, I know that Levine keeps a place down stairs I remember Friday, the 19th of April, I was working in the shop that day, Mr. Levine came up to see Mr. Sofsky, it was past twelve o'clock, the other workman who was here before me left for dinner then, Levine asked if Charlie has time enough to carry away some ready work, then the father of Charles Sofsky said, "he cant't do it now because we have plenty of work now to do", he said, "he has not got any time, he can do it in the evening", and that was the end of it.

Cross Examined.

I saw Abraham Korn-

gold working there that day, he went home to dinner, he went out before Levine came up. (The witness was examined through the Interpreter. The Interpreter said: The witness says that Levine came first and Abraham went afterward and to the other question which was, did not Abraham go away before Levine came up? And he said yes to that too.) How long had Abraham left Sofsky's place before

ORIGINAL

0031

Levine came up and asked about Sofsky's boy carrying clothes home? About ten minutes he was gone when Levine came up.

Interpreter: He says in Polish, when this Levine came up Abraham was not there.

Sarah Levine sworn and examined by Mr. Davis.

I am the wife of David Levine who lives at 20 Chrystie Street and I was his wife on the 19th of April last and I lived at 20 Chrystie Street that time. I remember the day on which his place was broken into and some of his clothing was taken away, I saw him that evening of the 19th of April, he came home at half past six o'clock and took his supper and between eight and nine o'clock he went to bed; he staid in the house all the time. What happened then during the night? There came a policeman, he was sleeping already, he knocked on the door so he went out of bed and opened the door and I said to him, "what is the matter?" The policeman said, "do you keep a place at 35 Bayard Street?" And my husband said yes. The policeman said, "come along, your place is robbed." So he took his coat and went away with him and that is all I know. My husband was in the house from six o'clock until he was waked up by the policeman which was about a quarter past eleven. I have been married about five weeks, I was not in Court yesterday, my husband said that I must come to the Court, he told me I must come on account of the goods being stolen, he did not tell me anything else. I am positive that my husband remained home all that night on the 19th of April. On other days except Fridays he remains in the shop till nine or ten o'clock but Friday evenings he comes home earlier. We live on the first floor front 20 Chrystie Street and occupy three rooms.

Pauline Kelly sworn and examined.

I live 20 Chrystie Street and know David Levine and his wife, I heard something about the robbery that was committed at his clothing place, I heard of it on a Friday night last month, April, I guess it must be about the middle of the month, I heard on that day that his place was robbed, I saw Mr. David Levine on that day in the hall, I was standing at the sink, I do not know if it was in the morning or in the evening, I saw him a great many times through the day, I saw him when he came home between five and six o'clock, I heard the knocking at the door when the officer came but I did not open the door, I did not see Levine after six o'clock.

Micheal J. Reap sworn and examined.

I belong to the 11th precinct police and I remember on the 19th of April going to No. 35 Bayard Street with Officers Gallagher and Mullane, I should think it was about eleven o'clock at night, we rang the bell of 35 Bayard St. and a man came to the door and opened it, we had one of the prisoners with us, he fetched us to the place from the Station House to where he got this stuff. I don't know the name of the man who opened the door for us but he is here in Court. That is the man (pointing to Goldberg) who opened the door. We asked him who kept a clothing store on the first floor, he told us Mr. Levine No. 20

ORIGINAL

0033

Chrystie Street. Officers Gallagher and Mullane remained on the inside and I went to No. 20 Chrystie Street and inquired of the tenants if they knew Mr. Levine and they said yes, I went to his door and rapped four or five times very loud and did not get any answer; several of the tenants woke up and wanted to know what was the matter. I said, "if Mr. Levine is here I want to get him up, his place has been robbed." Finally he came to the door and asked me what was the trouble. I asked him if he kept a clothing store at 35 Bayard Street and he said yes, I told him his place had been robbed, he put his pants on, he did not take time to button his suspenders, put on his coat and came down to 35 Bayard Street. I went into the premises where the clothing had been and saw the window which has been referred to, I noticed there was chair and the window on the inside.

Cross Examined. The first I knew of this transaction was when Officer Gallagher took these defendants to the Station House with this property. We went around to find out the owner of the goods. Goldberg opened the door for us and we all went in together, it was about eleven or a quarter to eleven, he came down stairs. I don't know whether he was in bed or not. I understood him to say when I asked him who owned the clothing store that he lived in 30 Chrystie Street, he spoke to me in broken English; he is the one I got the information from. I left the other officers behind me when I found out where the complainant lived, I went back to the Station House and took Levine with me. I heard this tall fellow (one of the defendants) say that he was taking the goods to his father's house in Orchard Street. I went back to

0034

Bayard Street with Mr. Levine and inspected the premises, one large room was all I saw on the first floor, the door of the premises did not look as if it had been broken, I noticed the window opening into the hall of these premises, it was burst open, I should judge it was about fifteen inches square, I do not know positively that either of those defendants could have gotten in that opening, I think the small fellow could get in by crushing himself pretty hard. A smaller boy than he could get through that hole, I saw a chair right up by the window; a dozen pair of pants could be passed out of that hole. When Sofsky said that he was taking these clothes to his father in Orchard Street, Officer Gallagher went for his father and his father came to the Station House; the father was asked if those goods were his and he said they did not belong to him, I do not recollect whether Levine was there at that time or not.

Gustav Dalgren sworn and examined.

I am a sergeant of the 11th precinct and remember the arrest of the defendants, I was at the desk when they were brought in, there was property there consisting of twenty coats, thirty-nine pairs of pants, one pair of shears and one overcoat which we found afterwards. I asked them where they got these goods and Sofsky answered me he was taking them home to his father at 111 Orchard Street. I sent Officer Gallagher for his father and he said the clothing did not belong to him. Levine identified the clothing as his. I have not the blotter of the Station House with me, I took their pedigree. Officer Gallagher said when he brought the prisoners in that the boys told him that they were taking the goods home to 111 Orchard Street, Sofsky's father. The boys did not claim in the Station House that the goods were given to them to be delivered to Levine at 111 Orchard Street, not a word was said about that.

ORIGINAL

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods with a recommendation to mercy.

George H. Stayner, and

Henry S. Ives.

The defendants have made a motion for the dismissal of the several indictments pending in this office against them, and I am called upon to determine whether I shall proceed to trial upon one of the indictments or make no opposition to the motion.

There are, in all, eight indictments now pending: One found on the 21st. of February 1889, charging Grand Larceny; one on the 26th of February 1889, charging the defendants with receiving deposits when insolvent; one on the 26th of February 1889, charging Grand Larceny; one on the 26th of February 1889, charging fraudulent issue of stock; one dated the 28th of February 1889, charging fraudulent issue of stock; another dated the 28th of February 1889, charging fraudulent issue of stock; another dated the 5th of April 1889, charging felony; and another on the same day also charging felony.

I am informed ^{that} my predecessor selected from these indictments the one where the People's case was believed to be the strongest, namely an indictment found on the 5th of April 1889, for felony and proceeded to trial, and that trial resulted in a disagreement of the jury. From that time until the close of his term no further prosecution of any of the indictments was instituted by my predecessor.

Some time ago the defendants, through their counsel, made application to me to try or dismiss the indictments. Thereupon I conferred with the complainants, viz, the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad Company, through their counsel, Messrs Lawrence & Washner, and they informed they did not desire to press the prosecution of these indictments further for the reason that they had become satisfied that no conviction could be obtained. My own examination leads me to the same conclusion, principally, because the co-defendant, Woodruff, who testified for the prosecution upon the former trial thereafter made an affidavit admitting the falsity of much of the material evidence given by him. His testimony would be useless to the prosecution should a second trial be attempted.

Moreover, it requires the vigorous and earnest co-operation of the complainants, a foreign corporation, ~~through~~ through whose aid alone, attendance of the necessary witnesses residing in other states can be obtained, to properly prepare and present this case in Court. The indisposition to prosecute the charges further render it impossible for the prosecution to obtain this evidence.

In view of all these circumstances I am of the opinion that no conviction can be had upon these indictments and I ^{do} would not, therefore, oppose the motion.

of No. 301 Mott Street, in the City of New York, being duly sworn, says that he is over the age of twenty-one years, and is a Sanitary Inspector of the Board of Health therein, especially detailed to the inspection of Milk; that on the 4th day of April in the year 1887, at premises number 345- Greenwich St in the City of New York, the said premises being a place where Milk was then kept for sale, one John D. Stephens unlawfully did then and there keep, have and offer for sale three quarts of impure and unwholesome Milk, which had been and was then and there watered, adulterated, reduced and changed by the addition of water or other substance, or by the removal of cream therefrom, and that such impure, unwholesome, watered, adulterated, reduced and changed Milk was then and there, by the said *John D. The said John R. Steffens three quarts of milk which had been and was then and there watered, adulterated, reduced the Board of Health of the Health Department of the City of New York, duly adopted and declared as such at a meeting of the said Board of Health, held in said city on the second day of June, 1873, as amended in accordance with law, and particularly in violation of a certain ordinance thereof, to wit: the one hundred and eighty-sixth section of

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Elijah Steinborn
and
Pierre Leclandre

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself, but from the fact that I believe them to be first offenders, that they are not really thieves, this conclusion is from inquiries made by me and from letters and written lamentations of regret that their whole life must be blackened by this one overt act on their part. I have received back all the property which they got from me, and therefore have not suffered financially. I therefore do not want to be the direct cause of their future if it should be of criminal depravity. I pray the Court to use its own good, wise and sound judgment but my prayer is that they may be set free.
