Chas. E. Schuyler, being duly sworn deposes and says, that James R. Dayton was and has been for nearly one year prior to his arrest, the Bookkeeper and Cashier for his firm, that on or about the day of 1887 deponent's Brother who was in Charge of the office in deponent's absence signed a check, pursuant to a power of Atty. in blank and gave the same to said Dayton to be filled out by him to such an amount as was necessary to pay a certain bill of which the deponent did not at that time know the amount thereof.
That shortly thereafter said deponent returned to this City and then learned that said Dayton had filled out the Check for the sum of $180- drawn, and converted the same to his own use. That during deponent's absence his Brother ascertained the aforesaid facts and thereupon had said Dayton arrested; that as this deponent is informed indicted for forgery in the second degree and is now confined

December 14th, 1887.

Hon. Randolph B. Martine, District Attorney, N. Y. County.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of the People vs J A M E S R .
D A Y T O N I have the honor to report as follows:

The indictment charges the defendant with the crime of forgery in the second degree, the punishment for which is not less than five years in State Prison. It appears from the affidavits of the complaining witness, Gerald Schuyler, and of defendant's employer, Charles E. Schuyler, who alone was aggrieved by the acts of defendant, that defendant is not a criminal but has heretofore borne a good character, is about 40 years of age, of industrious habits, has a family dependent upon him for support, was drunk when he committed the acts complained of, and did not intend to cheat or defraud his employer of the money which he obtained and used.

I do not myself believe that the laws against forgery were meant to apply, or should be made to apply, to such offenders as this defendant. His case, in my 0195

City & County of
New York*

opinion, is not within the spirit of the statutory prohibition. No useful purpose would be served by harsh application to the defendant of the letter of the law..

I would, therefore, recommend, and do report, that the indictment should be dismissed, in accordance with the recommendation of the complaining witness, and the only person who could have been aggrieved by the acts of the defendant.

Respectfully submitted.
