Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } ss.
of New York,

Carmelia Odato

of No. 262 Elizabeth Street, aged 49 years, occupation Housekeeper being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 3 day of May 1912 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the Night time, the following property, viz:

A pocket book containing good and lawful money of the United States amounting to Two hundred Dollars

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Sciarnaruci Sabino (now here) for the following reasons - about the hour of 3.30 o'clock A.M. on said date deponent was awakened by a knocking at the door of her bed room. She opened the door and the defendant pushed his way into said her room and seized deponent by the neck and threw her on the bed - deponent screamed and the defendant ran out of said room deponent further says that in about one hour after defendant leaving her room - she missed her pocket book containing said sum of money. Said pocket book was under a pillow in said bed - and she placed said pocket book and contents dollars - $50-the property of deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Daniel Slattery (now here) for the reason that on said date deponent was in deponent's employ as a driver. On the said date deponent took out said horse to work it and has not since returned it. Deponent has been informed by Edwin Strauss 8-17 East 74th Street that on the aforesaid date this defendant sold to him the said horse and represented that the said horse was his property. Strauss further informs deponent that he paid the defendant five dollars for said horse. Wherefore deponent is further informed by her husband Ellen Gallagher that he has seen said horse and identifies it as deponent's property. Wherefore deponent charge defendant with larceny.
