DEPARTMENT OF NEW YORK,

GRAND ARMY OF THE REPUBLIC.

HEADQUARTERS,

142 WEST 125TH STREET.

NEW YORK, June 23d, 1897.

CIRCULAR NO. I :

The Comrades of this Post will assemble at Headquarters on Independence Day, July 5th, at 9 o'clock A. M. sharp, and, in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the Post, march to Saint Jerome's Parochial School, 138th Street and Alexander Avenue (the Rev. P. W. Tandy, Pastor), where the Honorable Charles W. Dayton will, on behalf of the Post, present to the school a silk United States flag.

The object of this presentation of the flag of our country to these representatives of the rising generation is to inculcate in their minds the necessity of maintaining true allegiance to the Constitution and laws of our glorious Union, to teach them the lesson of patriotism in the love of our country, and to encourage among our children at large, and in the communities in which we dwell, the feeling of devotion to the ideas of universal liberty and equal rights to all.

Marching music will be furnished by the Bugle, Fife and Drum Corps of the Hebrew Sheltering Guardian Orphan Asylum, Isidor L. Fauerbach, Leader.

Every Comrade should realize that it is his duty to be present on this occasion, and that nothing but sheer necessity should excuse him for non-attendance.

The Comrades will appear in full uniform, white gloves, officers wearing side arms.

DEAR SIR:---

(As one of the former citizens of the town of Dryden) you are especially invited to join us in a reunion and Celebration at the hundredth anniversary of the habitation of the town, to be held July 10, 1897, upon the grounds of the Dryden Agricultural Society.

At 10 o'clock A.M. there will be a social meeting, at which all, and especially former residents, will be invited to take part, each person occupying only a few minutes, so that all will have an opportunity to be seen and heard.

From 12 o'clock to 2 P. M. the old relics of the town and a collection of pictures of deceased citizens will be on exhibition in the Fair building, as well as a special exhibit of old times and customs in the new log cabin modeled after the first one constructed in the township just one hundred years ago.

At 2 o'clock P. M. the more formal exercises will commence and will include an address by Judge Eggleston, of Cortland.

Please inform us whether we may expect you. There will be no postponement on account of the weather, as the Fair building will furnish accommodation in case of a storm.

Trusting that you will make an effort to be with us upon this occasion and join with us in Celebrating and honoring the first century of our town that is gone and the memory of the good people of the town of Dryden who have passed away with it, we are---

We are striving hard to build up a strong club in this ward for the benefit of the Republican Party that Republican principles may continue to dominate and rule the country and this great commonwealth. We have about 200 members composed of district leaders, workers and many young men of the party, although we are only four months old.

We have fine commodious club rooms and desire to enlarge our library, etc. Knowing your philanthropy and zeal for the cause, we take the liberty of sending you some tickets for our first public Outing, which we have spared no pains to make first class and desirable. We also sincerely hope you and your friends will be present. Kindly send your check for the same on or before the 20th inst., or return the tickets if for any reason you do not wish to retain them.

HONORABLE AND DEAR SIR:—

I take pleasure in extending to you and the members of your honorable City Council a cordial invitation to be present and participate in the Civic-Philanthropic Conference to meet at Battle Creek, Michigan, October 12 to 17, 1897.

You are especially invited to be present Thursday, October 14, on which day there is to be a conference of the Mayors of towns and cities, and county officials, of Michigan and surrounding states, to consider industrial and civic questions with a view of evolving some practical methods of reform.

Papers and addresses will be presented on the following and kindred topics:—"How to adopt a mutual plan to prevent idle destitute men being driven from one municipality to another;" "How to give relief through temporary employment;" "Municipal Charity Organization."

Be sure to appoint a good delegation to represent your council and institutions, and send list of names. Kindly ask the press of your place to announce the meeting.

Trusting you will honor and help the Conference with your co-operation and presence,

Yours very truly,

S. SHERIN, Secretary,

Dear Sir;

The production of my little one act play, "For Liberty", dealing with the escape from Cuba of Senorita Cisneros, takes place at the above Theatre Nov 1st '97 at eight o'clock in the evening - Many people of prominence, including the Cuban Junta will be present, and you would make me very happy if you would honor the occasion with your presence. A box will be reserved for yourself and friends. I am only a weary little woman, but brimful of American independence and sympathy for Cuba.

An early acknowledgement would be appreciated

Sincerely Yours

Mrs Hoffman Neil-
