The People
Rosario Canizaro
Indictment for assault in the second degree

Scout of General Sessions. Part I Before ~~Judge~~ Martine Dec. 18, 1888.

Catherine Canizaro, sworn and examined through the Interpreter testified. I live No 4 First street in this city and was living there on the 11th of Nov. My husband is a shoe maker and I live with him. The defendant now on trial came to our house on November 11th at half past eight o'clock in the evening, it was on a Sunday. Then he came I, my husband, my little one and the son of the prisoner were there; the son of the prisoner is sixteen years old. As soon as he came in the defendant took the Knife from my husband's work bench in his hand, and I said to him, "What do you want here in my house, what are you going to do?" Immediately he with this Knife tried to cut me in the face, I put my hand out and I recieved a cut in my hand. I put my hand out to save my face and I got cut in my hand. I caught his hand in which he had the Knife and with the other hand he hit me with the hammer on the head and I fell to the floor; he took the hammer from my husband's work bench; he took the hammer and the Knife immediately when he came in I recieved a blow with the hammer on the side of the head. Then my husband rushed up, and when my husband came up to the prisoner he (the prisoner) cut him with a knife behind the neck over the ear and the prisoner bit my husband in the cheek; then I got up and I seized his hand in which he had the hammer. Whilst I held his hand in which he had the knife he bit me in my other hand four times and then he bit me in the arm - he bit me in all five times - four times in the hand and once in the arm. Then I and my husband got hold of him and held him fast, and we told the prisoner's son to go and call a policeman; we told the prisoner's son in Italian to run for a policeman; the son left and the policeman came and the prisoner was arrested in the house; it was only a short time before the policeman came; we held the prisoner for half an hour there. The policeman took everything out of the prisoner's hand, the knife and the hammer - the policeman took him away out of the room. Whilst the prisoner's son was gone for the policeman, we got the knife and the hammer out of his hand and it dropped on the floor; when the policeman came he picked it up and took the man. What conversation did you have during all that time - what did you say, what did your husband say and what did the defendant say? He did not say anything. Was she given all that was said by either herself, the defendant or the husband during all that time? All he said when we held him was, "Get me loose, I have to kill; that is all he said. Had she any previous quarrel or misunderstanding or had her husband that she knows of with this defendant? No sir, never. Was he sober (the defendant) He was sober - the prisoner. Cross Examined by Counsel Is your husband related to the defendant, my client? No sir, only the same name but no relation; he is from another country, another village. Was not the defendant's wife living in her apartments at this time? His wife lived with us but she was not present when he came in; his wife and his son lived with us. Did he not come in and ask for his wife? No sir, he did not ask for his wife when he came in. And the first thing he did when he went in was to take a knife and strike at her, am I correct? Yes sir, immediately. Did anybody use a knife at him while he was in the place? No sir, we were eating, we were at the table and I have a witness to that, that we were eating; we did not do anything.

Do you know how he got these cuts in his clothes (pointing to the defendant's back) I do not know, it might have happened in that way as my husband held him and he had the knife in his hand it may be that the knife came in contact with his clothes. Your husband had no knife? No sir. Your husband would not cut him? He (the defendant) had only a knife - my husband did not. Your husband is an Italian? Yes sir. He never used a knife? No sir, never, never used a knife on anybody. He does not use one at the table? He never used a knife on anybody. Was your husband arrested in this case? Yes, he was taken to the station house and his ear was dressed where he was cut. Was he not also taken to the Police Court? Yes sir, they were taken together. Was he not locked down stairs in the cell? Yes sir, he was over night; he was in the station house with him locked up. And did not this man (the defendant) make a charge against her husband for cutting and stabbing him? He said so, but I did not know anything about it. Is your husband here in Court? Yes sir he is here. During the time that this man was cutting you and cutting your husband and biting you and biting your husband, did you see what your husband did, in other words, did your husband bite him or stab him in return? No sir, my husband did not do anything; we held him only.

Did you have a doctor to dress your wounds?

Yes sir in the station house it was dressed.

Did you have a doctor attend you afterwards?

I went once in Bowme street to a doctor and he dressed it, an Italian doctor. Did you notice whether this man (the defendant) was bleeding in that shop on that day, whether there was blood coming from him? I do not know because I was nearly blind, the blood was flowing over my face, I did not notice.

Joseph Canizaro, sworn and examined through the interpreter testified: The last witness is your wife is she not? Yes sir. Do you remember the evening of the 11th of November last? Yes sir, the 11th of November. Do you remember about half past eight o'clock at night in your room you and your wife, your little child, the prisoner and his son sixteen years of age was there? Yes sir, we were eating at the time. Eating what - your supper? Yes sir, our supper.

Sitting around the table? Yes sir. I believe you are a shoemaker are you not?

Yes sir, a shoe maker. Do you make your shoes in the little room where you live?

 Yes sir, in the same room. And your shoe maker's Knife was there on the bench?
 Yes sir, near the door. from the street going into my room there is the bench. Tell these gentlemen what this prisoner did as soon as he entered your room and all that he said while he was there until he was arrested by the police officer? As soon as he entered he took from the bench a Knife and a hammer and he went to the rear where his son was; his son saw him coming and he put himself behind my wife; then the prisoner cut my wife in the hand and then he hit her with a hammer in the head and she fell to the ground; he said, "I will kill all of you"; whilst he was assaulting and cutting he said, "I will kill all of you!" After my wife fell on the floor I rushed up to get hold of him and he cut me hear with a Knife (pointing to the left side of the neck) and he cut me on the ear also. I reached out for him to catch his arm and get the Knife and then he bit me on the cheek.
 There is a mark on it. I got the Knife out of his hand; then I got hold of him from behind and I held him. My wife then got up and she helped me, and whilst we were trying to hold him and to take the hammer away he bit me in the ~~left~~ hand. and he bit me in the head. Then we held him till the policeman came; and the policeman took a hammer and another tool out of his hand - the hammer was on the floor, but the piece of iron was in his hand; the knife was on the floor. Cross Examined Did you cut him with a knife? Whilst he held me by the cheek with his teeth I punched with the knife into his back behind in order that he might let my cheek loose. Immediately when he let loose my cheek I dropped the knife. Was the defendant's wife stopping in your apartments at this time? Yes sir, she was; out of charity I let them live in the house for a short time, but she was not present at the time when it happened. Did not he come there and ask for his wife? No sir, he did not say anything about his wife when he came in. Did you ever carry a knife? No sir never.

John Brock, sworn and examined, testified I am an officer belonging to the Fourteenth precinct; the young boy found me on the Bowery about half past eight o'clock on the evening of Nov. 11th, and in consequence of what he told me I went to the room where these Italians were living. It is a Kind of alley called Exeter Place that these people live in they told me they were killing a man and woman round there. I saw this woman; she was sitting in a chair bleeding at the head and holding her arm. The prisoner was there; she told me that he bit her in the arm and hit her in the head with a hammer; she was bleeding in the hand. I got hold of the prisoner and took the hammer out of his hand, and underneath there was half a dozen knives and ~~pistols~~ on the floor; they must have turned the bench over while they were arguing. The husband of the woman had part of his ear off, he was bleeding very hard and he was cut in the neck and I think he had a kind of a scalp wound. I took them all to the station house. Joseph Canizars had a wound in the cheek but I don't know who caused it. The Sergeant looked at the wounds of the man and woman and he telegraphed for an ambulance to Bellevue hospital and the wounds were dressed. The defendant had a stab in his back and the doctor dressed his wound. The next morning Judge Gorman discharged Joseph and held the defendant; they made counter charge. The prisoner pleaded guilty to the charge and was sent to the State prison for four years and seven months.
