4-
 The People vs. Boyce Martin } Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Gildersleeve. Dec. 6. 1882 Jointly indicted with Nicholas Ward and George Brown for robbery in the first degree.

Jacob Strahler, sworn and examined, testified I live in Rahway, N.J. and am a farmer, I am 35 years old. I was in New York upon the 13th of Nov. last; since then I have been in the House of Detention. I lost a silver watch and sixteen dollars in money, two coats an overcoat, and a coat like the one I have got on. I lost this property between six and seven o'clock in the evening. I recognize Boyce Martin as one of the persons who were there at that time. I was coming out of a liquor saloon. I was pretty well intoxicated. I was attacked by four men and knocked down.
 After I got knocked down I was stupefied, I did not know what was going on; when I came to myself again I found myself in my shirt sleeves and all the property I had gone. This man here (Martin) took me by the throat and kicked me in the leg. I have had marks on my leg up to a day or two ago. I saw part of my property again at the police station; one coat that matches this vest; the officer took me to the pawn shop and showed me the coat.

The officer came with me into the saloon I saw him there and I told him he was one of them. This was in Broome St. I cannot tell the hour the officer went with me. I was robbed between six and seven o'clock. It was not long afterwards that the prisoner was arrested, I cannot tell exactly how long it was.

Cross Examined. There were four arrested, but I know only three of them. Burton was discharged by the Magistrate; the other two were tried and convicted of this robbery. I drank nothing but beer. I say two coats were taken from me. When I came to myself I went to the station house. I did not have to go very far. A German man showed me the way there. I went to the station house alone. I recognized the other two men who have been tried and convicted the same time I recognized Martin - Ward and Brown. The officers can tell you how the fourth man came to be arrested. I was in the station house when they fetched two men in; they asked me whether I knew them two men? I told him, "yes." How long had you been on this drunk? About three or four hours. A part of a steel chain which I lost was found on one of the prisoners who were convicted the other day. I recognize it (piece of a chain shown) as mine.

James Dunn sworn. I arrested the prisoner on the night of the 13th of November on the corner of Broome and Thompson Sts. in the bar room of Yinan; he was in the back room in company with between ten and fifteen black and white. The complainant came with me from the station house. I did not find any of the complainant's property with the prisoner. Brown and Hard were not in company with the prisoner. The complainant pointed out Boyce Martin; he said, "that is one of the men that robbed me". I arrested him and told him he would have to go to the station house, and he put his hand behind him. I grabbed his hand and took a loaded revolver from him. I took him to the station house. It was after the complainant identified him and I told him I would have to arrest him. I grabbed him before he got the hand in or the pistol out. Cross Examined. The revolver is not loaded now; it was loaded then with the exception of one chamber which was empty. He had his hand on the revolver, so fashion (showing) Did you see him draw it? He did not have a chance to draw it. Did you see him draw it? No sir, he did not draw it out of his pocket.

Thomas Moran, sworn and examined testified. I am a detective of the eighth precinct. I know the defendant Boyce Martin for several years. What do you know about this robbery? I first saw the complainant in the station house about half past seven o'clock. I went out with the prisoner's brother. Martin's brother said at the station house that it was Brown - he said in the presence of the prisoner that it was Brownie and Nick who robbed the man. I asked him how he knew it, if he saw it? He said, no, he heard it; we went out with him - that was after Martin was arrested; we went down Thompson street in search of those two men. Do you know anything about Boyce Martin? Nothing further than what I heard the complainant say.

Boyce Martin, sworn and examined for the defence testified. Beverly Mitchell was reciting Hamlet and Metamora to myself and my brother "Nen" and the complainant came out with "Brownie" and Nick (Nicholas Ward) each of them had hold of Shabler and took him out; then I went inside and Beverly went inside and went to the water closet.

My brother and "Ben" I don't know where they went to. Twenty minutes later this man, (the complainant) came back without any coat on and his head was cut.
 Did you stay there all the while after he went out? Yes. Did you have anything to do with robbing him? No sir. Cross Examined. I live 9 Clark St. I am a white-washer, a painter and a "loader". I have work from four or five market men, loading peaches and strawberries. I also drive a truck. I have lived for a year and a half at 9 Clark St. I was born in New York, on the 9th of Nov. I was working for Mr. Gale at 192 Walker St. I was arrested on the 13th at Tynan's liquor store, corner of Broome and Thompson Sts. I know Nicholas Ward and George Brown. They were in Tynan's liquor store that night. They did not listen to Hamlet and Metamora.
 I have lived always in New York except six months that I was in the penitentiary for fighting Robert Spriggs. I was charged with felonious assault with a pistol.
 I did not fire or draw the pistol. I say there was nothing in the pistol that night. I have it at home. When did you get this revolver? (showing it) I got that on the 10th or 11th. I bought it. I was not working on the day I was arrested. I be in Synan's liquor store generally all day; there is where the men come for us to whitewash I had not been drinking. I do not drink.

 Beverly Mitchell sworn and examined.
 I live at 16 Grand Street. and am a barber by trade. I came out of the house between four and five o'clock as far as I can judge and I met Henry Martin His brother was standing outside and he was talking about seeing Mr. McFullough play the Gladiator and other plays. I was telling them about different plays, illustrating it off to them. I was standing in conversation with these two men. Boyce Martin was standing there between the hours of four and five. I spoke to his brother about going to see Mr. McFullough at the Fifth Avenue Theatre. While we were standing there in conversation two colored men, Nicholas Ward and Brown came out with a man who appeared to be drunk; they were taking him toward Broadway down Broome Street. Did that man come back afterwards? I could not say. I went to the necessary. I went home. I had not been well. It was out of the liquor store that the men came out; they went down towards Broadway in Broome Street. Did anybody lead away that man except those two men that are now in State Prison? These two men, one on each arm. Was anybody with him? No sir. That was between four and five o'clock; it was not dark. Andrew Mitchell sworn and examined. I live 134 South Fifth Avenue, I am a waiter. Bryce Martin and I were in company from six to 8 o'clock; the complainant came in about half past six with no coat or no hat and stood by the stove about four minutes and said, I have been robbed by some parties unknown to him. Did you lose any money? He says, No, only an old coat and some papers which I value, I must have them. He left there about a quarter to eight. I think he came back with the detective. What I want to get at is, for say an hour before that man in your company? He was there from six to eight o'clock in my company. Cross Examined He did not say anything about the watch or chain that was found on one of these fellows. I don't know that anybody went out to get a policeman; he only complained of losing an old coat.

William H. Martin, sworn and examined testified. Are you the brother of Bryce? Yes sir. Where do you live? I live 57 1/2 Thompson St. What is your business? Truck driver. About the hours of four and five o'clock I saw the complainant and two prisoners coming out of this liquor store; the names of the prisoners I mean who were convicted is George Brown and Nicholas Hard. They went towards South Fifth Avenue. Then my brother and Beverly Mitchell went in the liquor store and I went about my business. Then I guess about a quarter to 8 when Andrew Mitchell and I were up on the corner of Clark and Broome St. he (Mitchell) told me my brother was arrested. I did not know my brother was arrested until he told me. I went with him around the corner; he told me that he seen this Brown with a ticket of this man's coat. Cross Examined. I drove a truck about three months ago. I have been sick, hurt my back and have not worked for three months. I live at 57 1/2 Thompson St. I am married and my wife lives with me. Jacob Strahler recalled. I never slept in this grocery store where I saw these men. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Recorder Smyth: Nov. 23. 1882 Jointly indicted with Byrce Martin for robbery in the first degree.

Jacob Strahler, sworn and examined, testified. I live in Rahway, N.J.; on the 13th of this month I was in the city of New York.
 I was on Broome St. about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. I cannot exactly state the time when I did get into Broome St.; it was between six and seven o'clock and it was dark; it was in the lower part of Broome St. near Thompson St. I saw the prisoners and Martin. I had sixteen dollars in money in my pocket, a ten and a five dollar bill and some change; also a silver watch and a chain attached to it. I was told the watch cost 150 francs ($30). I had two coats on me - a blue overcoat and a black coat; the overcoat was worth about $8 and the other $6 and a hat worth a dollar.
 I wanted to go to 118 Sullivan St. to meet a gentleman there; he keeps a livery stable; his name is Bailey; he was not at home. I owed him a bill and wanted to pay him. I had been drinking considerable before I got there. I was walking around the lower part of these streets going in saloons. I recollect being in one saloon corner of Broome and Thompson sts. and those fellows being there and asking me for drinks and I said I had no money.

 I got on the street, I don't know how far I walked when Martin took me by the collar of the coat and kicked me in the leg; the marks are on the right leg yet. I don't know how many kicks he gave me; these prisoners were with him at the time; they were all around me and got hold of me; there was four men altogether; they surrounded me after they knocked me down. I tried to free myself, I had one hand in my pocket and I had my pocket book in my hand; they held both of my hands. I could not move either of my hands. Martin caught me by the throat. They knocked me down.
 I was lying there for a while. I don't know whether it was because of the influence of liquor but I did not know anything of myself for a few minutes. When I met them I had my senses and when I was knocked down I lost my senses. When I came back to my senses I was in my shirt sleeves and had nothing at all - the two coats and the hat, the watch and the money everything was gone. My eye was cut. I saw a piece of my watch chain at the Police station (Piece of a steel chain shown) That is it.

 An officer went with me to the pawn shop and showed me one of my coats. Cross Examined. I am a farmer and come to New York city two or three times a year. I left Rahway about twelve or one o'clock and got to New York some time in the afternoon. I was in many lager beer saloons that afternoon and drank beer every time. I was pretty drunk.
 It was about five o'clock when I got into the saloon corner of Broome and Thompson St.
~~I recollect meeting the prisoners between~~ six and seven o'clock. I did not refuse to pay for a drink in that place. Brown did not go out of the saloon with me. I do not reclect going into a saloon corner of Broome St. and South Fifth Avenue and wanted something to drink and that the proprietors refused to let me go in. No colored man was with me. I recollect there were lots of colored people in the saloon corner of Broome St.; they all got around me and wanted me to drink and I would not do it. They wanted me to pay for drinks and I would not do it. I was knocked down in the street. I might have seen the prisoners in the saloon, but I do not remember whether I saw them in there a net. I do not think I was more than five minutes in the saloon before I went into the street. The coat which the officer showed me was my coat; it was showed to me the next morning.

Thomas Moran sworn and examined. I was a member of the police force on the 13th of Nov. I arrested Ward and Brown, at 521 Thompson St. I arrested Ward. Brown was brought to the station house about 12 o'clock by Martin's brother; he was around with two officers two or three hours searching for the prisoners. I searched Ward and found on him a piece of a chain, a key, and a paper of tobacco. I showed the chain to the complainant and he identified it. I saw the complainant in the station house about 8 o'clock talking to officer Dunn. Officer Dunn went out with him and shortly after returned with Boyce Martin to the station house. I arrested Ward a little after 8 o'clock. Before I arrested Ward the complainant described the chain and after I found the chain in Ward's possession he identified it as part of the chain he lost. He appeared to have his senses about him; he had a hat on which he said a man gave to him; he had no overcoat on; he was in his shirt sleeves; he had marks on his eye and the skin was broken; he was bandaged; he complained of his leg but I did not see it. I searched Ward in front of the desk and I found the piece of chain in his vest pocket; he said at that time it was his own property. A little after twelve o'clock he sent for me; he stated he wanted to see me and I went down stairs to the cell. Martin says, "Why did not you tell the truth about this?" In the presence of Martin he told me that Martin was not in this thing; he said it was Brown. Ward said Martin was not there and did not do it. He said he was with Brown. "And who was with Brown?" He did not want to tell. I asked him if he was with him? He said, No. Well, how can you tell who it was that done it if you were not there? Martin says, "Why don't you tell who was with him and who done it?" and then he gave the name of Manning. I asked him how he knew? He said he saw Brown with a coat in his possession and Manning was with him. We had him arrested the next day, but the complainant could not identify him and Ward denied that he was the man in the police Court; he went back on the statement that he made the night before. Then I found the pawn ticket of the coat that the complainant identified as his property in Brown's possession. I asked Brown where he got the ticket? He said he bought it from a white boy for ten cents. I asked him who this boy was? He said, I do not know. Then the next day in the police Court he denied that, he said that Ward pledged the coat and gave him the ticket. The police magistrate gave me an order on the pawn ticket and I went there and got it. There was found on Brown's person 14 cents, a key, tobacco, and a piece of chain. How far from the station house was it where Martin found Brown? According to what he told me about three blocks. James Dunn sworn and examined. I am a member of the police force and I arrested Boyce Martin on the night of the 13th of Nov. corner of Broome and Thompson sts. and brought him to the station house. I found a pocket book and a loaded revolver; the balls have been taken out; there was no cartridge in one chamber; he was standing at the end of the bar; the complainant had been drinking, but he talked consecutively.

Jacob Strahler recalled. I do not know the name of the proprietor of the liquor store corner of Broome and Thompson sts. I was never in that saloon before the night I was robbed; they come on both sides of me when they got out into the street.

Nicholas Ward sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live at 61 Thompson st. I did not have any thing to do with robbing the complainant and know nothing about it. I found that piece of chain up town. I did not get it from the complainant.

Dwight Martin sworn and examined. I live 9 Clark st. I heard the statement of the complainant. I had nothing to do with this affair. I was not in the company of either of these prisoners if they robbed him. I saw George Brown and Nicholas Ward take the complainant out of Tyrans' place corner of Broome and Thompson sts. and walk across the street with him. I went inside and about 20 minutes afterwards the man came back without any coat on. Then he went out again about half an hour later and he comes back again with this officer. The officer says, "Is the man here who robbed you?" He said, "Yes, here is the man."

I was sitting in the store yet. Arrest Examined. What were you doing with a loaded revolver in your pocket that night?
 I was shot two nights before that and I had that revolver to protect myself. I was shot in the side by Robert Decker; it was not a very severe wound; I was shot in Synan's place. I noticed that the complainant had a mark in the eye. When Ward and Brown went out with the complainant I was standing in the door talking with my brother Ken and Beverly Mitchell; he was talking Shakespeare Bros. I did not think it rather strange that they were taking that man out. I have been arrested three times - once for assault and battery with a pistol. I was arrested for being in a girl house and then I was arrested being accused by a man of tapping a till. I did not do it. I was in prison about four times. I was in the penitentiary once for six months for fighting and was never in any other prison.
 It must have been about 6 1/2 o'clock when Ward and Brown took the complainant out of his house - each one had hold of his arm. I told officer Dunn I was innocent of this. I think I told him I saw Ward and Brown take the complainant out. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of robbery in the first degree.

John Martin and James Williams } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth. Nov. 15. 1882.
Indictment for grand larceny from the person in the night time.

Frederick Oppermann Sr., sworn and examined.

On the 1st of Nov. I had a gold watch taken from me; it was what they call "a horse timer" and was worth two hundred dollars. It was fastened to a chain and the chain was in my left vest pocket. I was at a political meeting in a place they call "Turtle Bay hall Second Avenue. I had my watch about ten minutes before I went into the hall. I stood in front of the bar talking to several people when all at once the man who keeps the place said, "Oppermann, your chain is hanging down;" but before that I had my hand on my vest pocket, I was kind of afraid there was such a crowd there that I was going to lose my watch. When this man said, "your chain is hanging down, I found my watch was gone. I saw these prisoners around me, less than three feet from me about two minutes before I found my watch was gone. I said nothing to anybody, but went out of the door and when I got outside I told officer Boyle I lost my watch; we went around Second Avenue; we were going up to the station house, and when we come down the Third Avenue three young men came along, two of whom were the prisoners. As soon as they saw me with the officer they began to run; he caught two of them. I believe the officer knocked one of them down. I ran after the other; the third one got away. Cross Examined. The bar room was filled with people who came from the street after the meeting was over. I guess there was from 75 to 100 people there. I went to the bar with some friends, but I did not take any refreshment. Did you notice any one in particular interfere with you in the saloon in any way? No sir. Did you observe any of these young men do anything to interfere with you any more than anybody else? No sir. It was five minutes before the barkeeper spoke to me that I noticed the prisoners - three minutes, I cannot say; they were standing three feet from me. Did you ever get your watch back? No sir. William Boyle, sworn and examined. I am a member of the police force. I was beside the Little Bay saloon, not in front of it, but next door to it on the night of this occurrence. I saw the prisoners come out of the saloon.

They came out in a rush and ran right up Forty fifth St, and I chased them for a few blocks and came back, and when I came back I found Mr Opperman at the door, and he reported the loss of his watch. The prisoners excited my suspicion when they came out with a rush. I ran after them but did not catch them. I went and got the other officer to cover my post and went up Third Avenue and on the way to report the loss of the watch and three of them "seen" us and scattered - two of them are the prisoners. I grabbed one and the other two ran in different directions. I grabbed John Martin. Officer Yellerman caught the other prisoner a block below. The third man escaped. It was about ten minutes after I saw the prisoners rush out of the saloon that I saw Mr Opperman. I chased them two blocks. I came back and stopped a little while to see if they would enter any place. They did not and so I came back. I did not search Martin till I brought him to the station house. I was present when both of them were searched. I believe there was a revolver found on the prisoner Williams. I could not say that it was loaded. Cross examined. The prisoners got out of my sight for a little when they were running. It was on my road to the station house for the second time that I saw the prisoners; it was within one block of the saloon; they ran three or four blocks.

William M. Hellerman, sworn and examined testified. "I was a member of the police force on the first of Nov. I was on duty the evening of that day on Third Avenue. I saw the prisoners. I was on post between Forty fifth and Forty sixth St. I heard an alarm rap. I turned around to see where it came from. I saw three men running; two men ran past me and one put his foot to throw me down; it was neither of these prisoners; it was the one that got away. I caught the prisoner James Williams. Mr. Opperman came up and said, 'that is one of the men that got my watch.' Then I brought him to the station house and they identified them there. I found a loaded revolver upon Williams. I took the chambers out. The minute the club struck the sidewalk I saw them run and then I chased them down Third Avenue. The alarm came from Forty sixth St and Third Ave. Before I got near the prisoner the effort was made to trip me when I was about four feet from him; the other party ran across the front of me and threw out his feet

He went ahead and I grabbed the nearest one I could get hold of.

Mr Boyle recalled by Mr. Requier.
I gave an alarm by a single rap of the club about ten minutes after ten. Then I caught one the other two ran and I rapped.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.
