The complainant in the above case states as follows:- About a year ago last April, I went to the defendant's place and asked him to buy me a draft so I could send it to China. He told me he was too busy then but would buy it the next day, and told me to come back to his place on the following Sunday. The following Sunday I went to his place for the draft, and he told me that the money was spent, and that he spent it because he was hard up, but told me that when he got the money which would be in a couple of weeks he would get me the draft. I have often asked him since then for the money or the draft, but have not received either. I have made several demands for the money or the draft but he has always told me that he did not have either. About 13 or 14 weeks ago he moved away and I was unable to locate him. I gave him the money which he was to buy the draft with, and when I got it I intended to send it to China. He had bought drafts for me on two occasions before this and gave me them and I immediately sent them to China.

I also remember hearing the defendant say, that he did not have time then to buy the draft, but would buy it for him in a day or so. A week afterwards I went down to the defendant's place again with the complainant and heard the defendant say, that he had used the money because he was hard up, but that he would get the draft for him in a week or so. The defense is that this $170.-was paid into the Loan Association formed by the defendant. It is true that the defendant did have a Loan Association and got money from the complainant in that way, but the book that the complainant^{has} as shows no item of $170.-. This Loan Association^{has} another scheme by which they have defrauded any number of Chinamen. I have accounts aggregating $3000.- in my hands now and not one cent has ever been paid out by the Loan Association to the people placing their money with the defendant, although they have repeatedly asked for the same. He has been the promoter of several schemes of like character out of which he has at least^{$20,000} made. My clients tell me that no reputable Chinese merchants will give the defendant a good character. There are a few of his own kind at No. 14 Mott street who helped him in his swindles in this Loan Association, who will stand by him, but no other Chinese merchant will do so. They say that he is a cheat and a scoundrel.

Mr Mc Laughlin.

For the Dft. Jere Wernberg Esq.

Guy Maind Sworn as interpreter

ING SONG the complaining witness being duly sworn and examined by Mr Mc Laughlin deposes and says;-

MR WERNBERG;- I move to dismiss the complaint on the ground that it charges no offence against the defendant. It is a charge of obtaining money by false pretense. It is well settled that to sustain a charge of false pretense the false representations must be in respect to an existing fact or a fact said to be existing.. There is no allegation in this complaint of any such false representation.

Mr Mc Laughlin;- It is a common law larceny.

THE COURT;- The motion to dismiss is denied.

TESTIMONY OF ING SONG;-

Q State the transaction with Tuen Yin with regard to the $170 referred to in this complaint?

A About the fourth month of the Chinese year last I went with $170 to the defendants store and asked him to buy a draft for me to China that day. He said to me " I have no time to-day; leave the money in my possession and I will procure it in a day or so; you come back Sunday or Monday next week and I will give it to you" When I went down after it defendant said that being in want of money he has used it, When I am not so close with money I will get a draft for you or give you back your money" //

MR. JENNINGS:- We can bring the father of this girl to prove her age if necessary, but we did not wish him to lose a days work. Your Honor may lawfully judge of the age of this girl ~~for the purposes of this~~ for the purpose of this examination.

TILLIE YOUNG THE DEFENDANT being duly sworn and examined as a witness in her own behalf deposes and says;- I live at 240 East 121st street I know this girl. I have known her pretty near a year. I first knew her in 125th street where her mother lived I was living there She used to come and see me/ When I moved to 130th street she came up and saw me up there. She would come and stay two or three nights at a time She used to take the washing home for her mother On five or six occasions when she was there I asked her to come and see me? So she said she would. One time she was there three days and nights when I was not there The liquor store man took her out the window by the fire escape when I was not there . The night I took her down town she asked me to take her. I said no she could stay home. She coaxed me to take her. I would not have taken her if I had not been drinking I asked them if she could not stay there I did not want to take her to the liquor store with me. I asked the house keeper to take care of her. She said " You know nothing will happen to her"

Q Did you return for her?

A Yes about one o' clock.

Q Could you get in?

A No the house was closed and I could not get in.. I went there after that and rang the bell and the door was not opened. I went around to the station house and asked the sergeant at the desk and he said he had not a man to send around. When I went again to the house the door was not opened. A girl came to the window When I went about 11 o' clock I was told she was arrested and when I went to the station the Sergeant said she was in Jefferson Market So I in got drinking and that was the reason I did not come.

Q Did you take that girl to that house for any improper purpose?

A No sir. Nothing ever happened to her in my company. I was always good to her.

Q Did she have those shoes on?

A No sir.

Q That cap?

A Yes sir --A different sacque--Her clothes were not as good as those she has on now.

Q And the reason you did not take her home was because the lady you left her with would not open the door so as to let you bring her home?

A Yes sir.

Q You went to the station house about eleven o' clock and the Sergeant behind the desk said she was gone to Jefferson Market

BY MR JENKINS;-

Q You say you had been drinking?

A Yes sir If I had not been drinking I would not have taken the girl. When I did take her down and leave her with Mrs Rose I intended to ^{her} take care of her until I came after her

Q Who is Madame Rose?

A Mrs Mc Carthy.

Q Do you know what kind of a place she keeps?

A I do not know.

Q And were you never informed?

A Never I have been there very seldom I came down town intending to go up at night.

Q Did you regard it as a proper place to take a girl?

A I did not know there was anything wrong going on there.

Q You never saw anything wrong there?

BRIEF FOR THE PEOPLE.

TILLIE YOUNG.

STATEMENT OF CASE:

The Defendant, Tillie Young, is indicted for the Crime of Abduction in having taken on October 8, 1893, a certain child, called Maud Brown, aged 14 years, for the purpose of prostitution to the premises known as 220 Wooster Street (a reputed house of prostitution) in the City of New York.

WITNESSES:

Maud Brown,
Mrs. Frances Brown,
Rose McCarthy,
Thomas F. Gilhooly,
Martin J. Mulligan,
Henry E. Stocking.

MAUD BROWN, aged 14 years, will testify:

That on October 8, 1893, her father put her out of the house at 251 East 125th Street, and that she then found her way to the residence of Tillie Young at 240 East 121st Street, where she remained over Sunday night and all day Monday. That on Monday night, at about 10-00 o'clock, in company with the Defendant she went down town and reached the alleged house of prostitution No. 220 Wooster Street at about 11-00 P. M. That after Defendant brought her there the Defendant left and did not return. That the Witness, after being given some supper, was put to bed in a room entirely by herself at about 4-00 o'clock A.M., October 10th, where she was not approached by anyone, nor tampered with in any way; but that before she left she saw several men and women enter and leave the house. That later on the morning of October 10th, a man, whom she identifies as Officer Gilhooly of the 15th Precinct, came to the house and took her away. That while in the house -- Witness will further testify -- the girls wore short dresses, smoked cigarettes and sang bad songs.

MRS. FRANCES BROWN of 251 East 125th Street will testify:

That her daughter Maud is 14 years of age and was born February 13, 1879; and that she has a record of the birth of her daughter in a bible in her trunk.

ROSE McCARTHY, Proprietress of the place 220 Wooster Street, will testify:

That on the night of October 9, 1893, the Defendant, Tillie

Young, who was intoxicated, came to her door with the Complaining Witness and asked that the girl be allowed to remain for an hour or two, when she would call for her. That the Witness, seeing the condition of the Defendant, did not like to turn the child away and consented to its remaining there. That there were no men in the house at the time and that some of the girls had retired. That after waiting until 4-00 A.M. on October 10th, Witness sent the girl Maud Brown to a room by herself and cautioned her, under no circumstances to open the door for anyone who might knock. That later on the morning of October 10th, Witness told the officer on Post, and that soon afterward Officer Gilhooly came to the house and removed the child. That at about 9-00 A.M., the Defendant called, being intoxicated at the time, and asked for the girl Maud Brown and was told that the Police had taken the child away.

FURTHER,- That Witness knows Tillie Young to be a person of bad character.

THOMAS F. GILHOOLY, an Officer of the 15th Precinct, Municipal Police, will testify:

That he found the Complaining Witness, Maud Brown, in the reputed house of prostitution at 220 Wooster Street, and that the Madame of the house had notified the Police of the presence of the girl therein.

MICHAEL J. MULLIGAN, an Officer of THE N.Y.S.P.C.C., has had charge of the case in court and has made an investigation of the same.

HENRY E. STOCKING, Assistant Superintendent of THE N.Y.S.P.C.C., will testify to the general reputation of the premises No. 220 Wooster Street.
