PEOPLE, ON MY COMPLAINT,

versus

Timothy Sullivan

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. That I do this because I believe the defendant did not intend to hurt me, and at the time of the assault was not in a perfectly sober condition, and if he had not been in that condition, the occurrence would not have happened. The defendant has also previous to this arrest borne an irreproachable character, and I believe for his wrong he has already been sufficiently punished.
