THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against
LOUIS ZANGER

-----X
You will please to take notice that we shall move
this honorable Court at the opening thereof or as soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, on the 6th. day of October 1884, why the said Louis Zanger now confined in jail awaiting trial in default of bail, should not be discharged on his own recognizance, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just.

Affidavit—Larceny.

CITY AND COUNTY
OF NEW YORK } ss.

of No. 337 East 106th Street, Appt. 38 Salomon Repes.
being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 6th day of September 1884
at the above premises City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and, carried away from the possession of deponent in the day time with the intent to deprive the same true owner thereof

the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States issued to the Amount and of the Value of Seventy Eight $\frac{62}{100}$ dollars.

the property of Deponents.

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken,
stolen, and carried away by Louis Fanger. (now here)

from the fact that on said date the said Fanger. Came into deponents premises and asked deponent to cash
a check, saying that it was a late for the Bank and that he desired to pay some men. The said Fanger. Then gave to deponent the paper or writing hereto attached marked "A" and which purports to be a check for the sum of Seven Cents $6\frac{1}{2}$ dollars. saying to deponents that the said Check was genuine and of full value and drawn on the Merchants Morris Bank. Deponents believing the representations of the said Zanger. &c. true gave to him the said sum of money. trusting thereby the said instrument or writing. Deponents gave the said instrument or writing to the firm of Bernheim & Schmidt in payment of a bill, and was returned to deponents. With the information that it was worthless. Deponents then went to the Merchants Morris Bank. and was informed by George H. Livermore that there was no person by the name of R. H. Waldron (who purports to have signed said instrument or writing) having an account with said Bank.

That on the 12th day of September 1884. Deponents saw the said Zanger. and informed him that the said instrument or writing was worthless. The said Zanger. then said to deponents that there would be money in the Bank on the 12th day of September 1884 to pay said instrument or writing.

Deponents therefore charges that the said Zanger. did unlawfully obtain from deponents the said sum of money by means of false and fraudulent representations and by aid of a false token and traps. That the said Zanger. may be held back as the law directs. and that the representations made by the said Zanger. were made with the intent to cheat and defraud deponents and others by deponents was so cheated and defrauded.

*The New York Society for the

NO 100 EAST 23RD STREET, (CORNER 4TH AVE.)

New York October 17, 1884

Hon. Henry A. Gildersleeve,

County Judge &c.

Dear Sir:

I respectfully submit the following report in relation to the defendants hereinafter named, charged with highway robbery on the indictment of the Grand Jury in the Court of General Sessions, and referred to me for investigation.

I. JOSEPH ZIEDLER. The records of the Society shew that he was arrested Sept. 5, 1884 for disorderly conduct in stoning people in the street. At the Society's request, he was discharged in order to give him a chance to behave himself properly in the future. He had served a term previously of six months in the House of Refuge for disorderly conduct. His parents are respectable and seem to endeavor to shield him, but are unable to control him, and the father, who is a tailor, says that he is wild. He was 15 years old January 1883.

II. THOMAS J. DREHER. The records of the Society shew that on May 15, 1884, the mother applied to Police Justice Gorman to have him placed in an Institution as an incorrigible child. The boy could not then be found. He had been absent about three weeks, and his mother stated that he only came in occasionally late at night and went out early in the morning. He stole his mother's Cashmere sacque and pawned it. He has not been to school for over a year, and while only 13 years of age is a companion of thieves.

III. FRANK HOFNER, alias FREDERICK HOFNER. The records of the Society shew that he attempted to stab his own father, and was released at the instance of the Society in order to give him a chance to behave himself properly. His father is an habitual drunkard, and not long since stole his wife's watch, on the proceeds of which he went on a spree. The boy was 14 years old Dec. 2, 1883. The mother admits he associates with a bad set of boys. He was arrested about a month and a half ago for stealing fruit from Italian vendors and was fined $10. for disorderly conduct, which she paid. She appears to be a respectable woman but is utterly unable to control the boy.

My suggestion in each of these cases is, that upon the arraignment, the District Attorney should accept the plea of an attempt, and that the boys should all be committed to the House of Refuge.

I have the honor to remain,
With great respect,

Wm. D. Terry
