Indictment filed Nov. 16, 1892.

Indicted for burglary in the third degree.

New York, May 5, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Asst. District-Atty. E. S. Weeks;

For the Defendant,

Mr. Frederick B. House.

EMILE FRANK, a witness for the People, being duly sworn,
 testified as follows:

I am a shoe-maker doing business at 1533
 Broadway between 45th. and 46th. Streets. On the 13th. of October 1892 I was in business at that number. I had a stock in my store valued at about $500. On the night of the 13th. of October I closed my store at about half past eight o'clock. Nobody was left in the store. I returned to my store in the morning at seven o'clock. I found that the side light in the window had been broken and I missed about $190 worth of shoes. I afterwards saw two pairs of shoes belonging to my stock in the Station House. I positively identified them as part of the shoes which were in my place on the night I locked it up. The shoes were manufactured for me specially by William Douglas. The shoes now shown me are shoes that were in my store on the night of the 13th. of October when I locked it up.

Cross-examination:

I have been in the shoe business for about 9 months since I bought out this store. There are no shoes similar to the ones just shown me sold by any dealer other than myself in the City of New York.

ADAM F. RAY, a witness for the People, being duly sworn, testified as follows:

I sold the shoe store at 1533 Broadway to Mr. Emile Frank. At the time I sold the stock to him the shoes now shown me were part of that stock. They were made specially for my trade by the W. L. Douglas Shoe Company.

Cross-examination:

I have no interest in the business now. I occasionally stop in the store on my way uptown. I am positive that the shoes produced here in court were part of the stock which I sold to Mr. Frank.

WILLIAM G. MARSHALL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a salesman for the W. L. Douglas Shoe Co. The shoes now shown me are a part of a lot specially made by that company for the business of Mr. Emile Frank, 1533 Broadway, New York. I am able to identify the shoes positively by the special lacing in front and the number of the lot.

CHARLES W. THOMPSON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 22nd. Precinct. I first learned of the burglary at Mr. Frank's store on the morning of the 14th. of October. James Wilson is the person who gave that information. He came into the Station House and had a conversation with Captain Devery. In consequence of that conversation I went to the defendant's house. I told him that Wilson had been to the Station House and said that he knew who committed the burglary in Mr. Frank's store. I asked him to come to the Station House and tell what he knew about it. He came around to the Station House with me. Mr. Frank was there and identified a pair of shoes taken from Kennelly's foot as part of his property. Those are the shoes which I have produced in court this morning. Kennelly denied all knowledge of the crime.

Cross-examination:

When we got to the Station House the Sergeant ordered me to take the shoes off Kennelly's feet. I did so and then Mr. Frank identified them. The defendant said he had bought the shoes in Third Avenue near 24th. Street. I went over to Third Avenue near that street and could not find any person who sold the shoes to him.

4.

D E F E N S E:

JAMES BRADY, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I live at 326 West 41st. Street and have lived there about nine months. I am a car-driver by occupation. I have known Kennelly going on three years. I recollect the fact of his arrest in November of last year. One evening some few weeks before that he came home intoxicated. He had a package done up in a newspaper. I saw his wife open the package and in it we found a pair of shoes. That pair of shoes was the same as the pair now produced in court.

Cross-examination by Mr. Weeks:

I am positive this was a couple of weeks before the arrest of the defendant. I have been employed as conductor on the Broadway Road. I was discharged on an accusation of knocking down fares. I am positive that the shoes now shown me are the same shoes which Kennelly brought home on the night I have spoken of, wrapped up in a newspaper.

ANNIE KENNELLY, a witness for the defense, sworn, testified:

I am the wife of the defendant. I have kept house for him since we were married.. I know Brady, the last witness. On the night he speaks of I remember my husband coming into the house with a package. Brady and I opened the package and we found in it a pair of shoes. The pair of shoes was the same pair which my husband had on when

5.

he was arrested.

Cross-examination:

I can tell that these are the shoes by their general appearance. I have been married three years and a half, and my husband has always supported me.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.

occupation Liquor being duly sworn,

deposes and says, that on the 27 day of October 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

One Overcoat and three Sack Coats
and a Hat, in all of the amount and value of Thirty five dollars ($ - 35 - ⁰⁰/₁₀₀)

the property of deponent and in deponents
care and custody -

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Herman Renn and John Smith (both now here) and while acting in concert with each other, from the following facts to wit: That about the hour of 11.45 o'clock P.M. of the aforesaid date, while deponent was in his place of business, at the above mentioned address, he saw the defendants Renn taking and removing the aforesaid property from a closet

in deponents place of business, and at the same time passing and handing the said property to the defendant Smith, who was in said premises, and deponent further says that he found the aforesaid Overcoat and a Sack Coat and Hat in the possession of the 0030

Defendant Smith - and that the aforesaid
two sack coats were lying on the floor of the Water Closet, where the said defendants were acting in concert with each other.

The People of the State of New York, : Before Hon. Fred'k.
 : against : SMYTH, and a Jury.
 HERMAN KANN, impleaded with John :
 : Smith. :

Indictment filed November 2nd 1892.

Indicted for grand larceny in the 2nd degree.

New York, November 14th 1892.

APPEARANCES: For the People Assistant District Attorney Vernon M. Davis.

For the defendant Mr. Jacob Berlinger.

JOHN QUINN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 40 morton street in this city. I am in the liquor business at 94 6th avenue. I was in my liquor store on the 27th of October at about half past eleven o'clock at night. My bartender was there . I saw this defendant and John Smith in my place. I saw this man stand on top of some railings in the water closet and reach over across the partittion into an office where we have clothes; he was handing over the clothes to Smith who was there also. I had three sack coats and an overcoat in this little private office. It was my bartender drew my attention to these men. We caught them right at it. We locked the two men in the water closet and kept them there until an officer came. Smith said he did not do it; and if he did do it I could not have seen him . He has since pleaded guilty ot this charge.

I said I saw him over the partition.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I ahad never seen the defendant before . I saw his hat over the partition. The four coats I had in there were worth about sixty dollars. Smith said to the officer "I dont know this man I just came into the water closet.

WILLIAM W. COLLAMORE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am the bartender in the employ of the last witness . InI was in his place on the 27th day of September. I saw these two men come in the side door and a few minutes afterwards I saw a head and shoulders over the partition that separates the store from the water closet. I called Mr. Quinn's attention ot it; he went and locked the door of the water closet and held it while I went for an officer. When the officer came h e found the two defendants in the water closet and arrested them. The defendant Smith said that even if he did come in there the boss could not see him.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I was at the other end of the store at the time I saw the head and shoulders of the defendant . When the officer came he found some of the coats hidden in the water closet . They had been removed by some one out of the little private offi ce where we keep our good clothes.

D E F E N C E .

HERMAN KAHN, the defendant sworn, testified:

I am the defendant . I went into that saloon spoken of on that night . I went into th urinal in the water closet . Id did not go in there with any intention of stealing anything . Id did not know the man Smith who was in there; I had never seen him before that time . it is not true that I was on top of any railing and reached over to get these clothes . I did not know anything about the presence of the clothes in the water closet. I am positive that I never saw Smith.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

When I tried to get out of the water closet I found the door closed. I had no conversation with MH Quinn about this matter. I live at 18 East 31st street. I am a waiter. I have been working at No. 252 Fulton street Brooklyn in a restaurant and have also worked in a restaurant in the Bowery. I have never been arrested charged with any crime before . I have no acquaintances here as I have not been long in the country. I have not been working lately.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.

Indictment filed Nov. 2-1892.

M. J. Sharkey being duly sworn says that he is the attorney for the defendant herein and that Rose Steeman who resides at Number 203
Spring Street New York City is ill
and unable to leave her room
as appears by the certificate of John P. Nolan M. D. her to certify That said Rose Steeman is a material witness for the defense
and that from conversations had with her deponent expects to prove by her evidence as follows
That the room occupied by the complaining witness Mary Sheedy was the one usually occupied by the defendant and was not more than eight feet away from that occupied by said Rose Steeman
on the night of the alleged assault
That said Rose Steeman heard

no outcry though immediately
 after the arrest the said Mary Sheedy tapped at the door of the said Rose Keenan
 and said Rose Keenan heard her and opened the door. That said Mary Sheedy told said
 Rose Keenan that the defendant did not do her any harm and that she would not have made the charge she did but because one Margaret Keenan defendant
 did not refuse to give her said
 Mary Sheedy a room

That deponent is of the opinion that the said evidence is very material to the defense and that it would not be safe to proceed to trial without it

Mary Sherry being duly sworn says that she resides at Number 115 James Street New York and is the complaining witness herein
That at the time the assault
mentioned in her complaining affidavit was alleged by her to have taken place defendant was asleep and hurriedly rose and left the room that she was excited and although the defendant called after her and tried to obtain his presence in the room where deponent was sleeping she hurried away. That deponent has since learned that the room she occupied on the said time was the one usually occupied by this defendant and that he had no knowledge of deponent's presence

there until he entered her room. That deponent's room was easy of access through a window looking into an adjoining room and that deponent engaged said room from defendant's mother. That since the time of said occurrence and after carefully considering all the facts and circumstances connected herewith deponent is of the opinion that the defendant entered deponent's room with no criminal intent and at no time while there intended to rape or injure this deponent. That this affidavit is taken not because of any fear of punishment or hope of reward by deponent but simply to withdraw a charge rashly and excitedly made and to release from prison one innocent of crime.

I went right to 303 Spring St she was in front of the house, very much excited, she had on only a night dress and a sash: she was on her bare feet and her hair hanging down. She said "Tom Keenan assaulted her". They lived in the rear house I started into the hallway, the door closed after me, I met him in the hallway, and said "Where does Tom Keenan live" and he said "In the rear, go ahead and I'll show you". I took him to the light, and said "I'll see who you are". I asked the complainant and she said "he was the man".

His mother and sister followed us to the Station House; we had to put the mother out.

He said in the Station House that was his room before he went to Island and he afterwards admitted going through the ^{wind} window.

of No. 303 Spring Street, aged 21 years,
 occupation Married woman being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 4 day of November 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York.

Thomas Keenan (now here)
 did feloniously attempt to commit the crime of rape upon the person of Deponent,
 and did attempt to ravish Deponent
 under the following circumstances. Deponent retired to bed with her child who is six years old, in a bed room on the second floor of the rear building No 303 Spring Street, and Deponent locked the door of her room securely about the hour of 9.30 O' clock P. M. Deponent slept alone with her child in said room as her husband was absent on business. Deponent went to sleep soon after retiring, and Deponent was awakened about the hour of 12.30 O' clock
 A. M. by the defendant who was fumbling about Deponent's private parts.
 Deponent thought for a moment that it was her husband who had entered the room.
 The defendant did not at first say anything but attempted by force to have sexual intercourse with Deponent. Then Deponent became suspicious and turned up the light and resisted defendant's advances. Then the defendant held Deponent in bed by force and violence and Deponent told defendant
 to leave the room, and Deponent resisted with all her force and called for assistance and make an outcry. The defendant said "I'll be damned if I go out of this room until I get some of you" Then Deponent got away from the defendant's grasp and Deponent unlocked the door started to go to the street and the defendant followed Deponent

to the hall and attempted by force to drag deponent back, but deponent escaped in her bare feet and went to the street and called upon some citizens to secure the arrest of the defendant, and the defendant was arrested by Policeman Roberts of the 8th Precinct, now here. The defendant knew that deponent was a married woman, and he knew that deponent's husband was absent, and, on said occasion when deponent asked defendant how he got in the room defendant said he got in through the window, referring to a window which opened from deponent's bed room to the room occupied by the defendant adjoining.

Indictment filed November 25th 1892 .

Indicted for grand larceny in the 2nd degree.

N e w Y o r k , December 8th 1892.

APPEARANCES: For the People Asst. Dist. Atty. Gunning S . Bedford.

For the defendant Mr. J. Berlinger.

HENRY KLINE, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a salesman for the Eastman Co. Their place of business is foot of east 59th street. On the 15th of November I left my horse and wagon in which I drive around the city in front of a store on Spring street. I went into a store to collect a bill. When I came out I found that the horse and wagon were gone. I next saw them in Jamaica. Their value was $250. and they were the property of Eastman and company in my possession at the time.

WILLIAM STRUMPFER, a witness for the People sworn, testified:

I am a constable in the village of Jamaica. I know this defendant. He came to the hotel which my son keeps one night--about the 17th of November with a horse and wagon. He stayed at the hotel for the night, putting up the horse in the stable. I suspected that the property did not belong to him. The following morning I asked him to come with me to Jamaica and have a good time.

The place where my son keeps a hotel is called Creedmoor a few miles from Jamaica. He came with me and when I got near the town hall I placed him under arrest. I took him before the Judge and he was committed charged with this larceny. He told me that the wagon belonged to an advertising company in Howard street; then he told me that the wagon belonged to an advertising company in Walker street; then he told me that the horse and wagon belonged to a man named Anderson and that he received it from him at South Seventh street in Williamsburgh. The complainant came over to Jamaica and identified the horse wagon and harness as the same property he had left outside of the store on Spring street on the 15th of November.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

A blanket belonging to another man was found in the wagon which the defendant was driving. I have known the defendant for some time. I asked him to go to Jamaica with me to have a good time. It was my intention to arrest him when we got there. He told me these different stories while we were driving along the road. After we got out of the wagons and were on the way to the town hall, he no doubt saw my purpose, and started away. He was held by myself and another man and placed under arrest.

SAMUEL SCHWEISELHEIMER, A witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a butcher at No. 318 East Houston street. On November 15th Mr. Kline the witness came into my place to collect a bill. He left. Afterwards I saw the defendant passing by driving Eastman's wagon . I took particular notice of him because I knew he did not belong in that horse and wagon. I am positive I saw him driving the wagon . He passed close by me and I had a good look at his face. It was about twelve o'clock in the day I saw him. I had never seen him before . I have frequently seen Mr. Kline, the witness, driving the wagon. I afterwards told MR. Kline that I had seen this and he sent me a subpoena in response to which I am here.

NATHAN PARTINGTON, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am in charge of all the horses and wagons owned by the Eastman Company . I know the horse which Mr. Kline drove on the 15th of September. I saw that horse in a stable in Jamaica in custody of the constable about the 18th of November . I identified the horse and wagon as the property of Eastman and Company and brought it back to this city.

JACOB TOOKER, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 4th district Court. I arrested this defendant. He told me that an advertising man gave him this horse and wagon to drive out on Long Island. I do not remember what name he told me . I never knew the defendant before his arrest.

DEFENSE .

JOHN A. KLEIN, the defendant, sworn, testified:

On the 15th of November I was in Williamsburgh. I went into a saloon near the ferry. I there met a man named NAnderson whom I had known before . He had a conversation with me . . . e told me that he was employed by an advertsing agency in Howard street New York to put signs all over Long Island . . e said that he had a wagon outside belonging to the company and asked me if I would drive it to Garden City and put it up there for the night and he would meet me the following morning and would employ me putting up these signs. I went outside and got into the wagon. It was raining . I dro ve in the rain as far as Creedmoor and I th-ught I would put up there for the night. I went to the place of this man Strumpfer' son and they let me put up the horse for the night. The next morning the constable asked me to drive to Jamaica with him and I did so . When we got there he had me arrested . I only told him one story and that was the true one that this horse and wagon had been given to me by this man Anderson, who told me it belonged to an advertising agency . Id did not steal the horse and wagon . I was not in the neighborhood of Spring and Houston streets on that day . I dont think that I was in New York City that day.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I was sent to prison for fifteen days in Hoboken for being drunk . I have never been charged with any dishonest act in my life . I have never been in the penitentiary for larceny.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the 2nde degree.
