The People
vs.
James Elliott.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Cowing.

February 19, 1886.

Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Albert Freeze sworn. I live at 207 Seventh Avenue, I was in my store on the 13th of February, the defendant came in there Saturday night about half past ten; the boy who is engaged in our store called me and said that this prisoner and two other fellows were beating a Chinaman who wanted to come into our store; we had canned goods in front of the store and boxes and these fellows were upsetting those things, I told them to please, you had better move away and leave our things alone; then they called me bad names and I was going to go inside again, I told our clerk that as soon as those fellows commenced to upset things that he shall go for an officer. I guess they heard that I was going to get an officer and this prisoner jumped at me and stabbed me with a knife right here in the neck. They fetched me in an ambulance to the hospital but I did not like to stay there and went home, I was under the doctor's care since last night, I can eat nothing nothing except milk and extract of beef, I cannot swallow anything, I spat blood Monday and Tuesday a whole day. The prisoner is the man who stabbed me, I swear positively to that, I saw him hang around the store since eight o'clock the same night, the clerk told me that those fellows wanted to break in the cellar. There is an electric light in front of the store and I could see his face very well.

Cross Examined. I am positive that this boy is one
I of the three boys, he had his hat far back on his head and saw his black hair, I was standing about half a minute right in front of him, looking at him, I saw the knife, I have a witness who ran after him.

William J. O'Donnell sworn. I was in New York on the 11th of February, I was on the corner of 20th Street and I heard three boys talking, one of whom was the prisoner, they said they laid a Dutchman out on Second Avenue and 22nd Street, I asked the three, who was it and neither one would tell, so I notified Officer Shannon about the stabbing affair, he brought me up to see whether it was true, he found out it was true and he brought me down to the house where these Elliotts live, I did not see the complainant and the prisoner together at any time. Then we went upstairs and two of them were in bed and I was locked up as a witness. When they talked of laying out the Dutchman they said ~~to~~ it was up at Loomis's, 22nd Street and 2nd Avenue; that was the place where this complainant was.

John J. Shannon sworn. I am an officer of the 29th precinct and arrested the prisoner on the night of the 11th of February, it was about twenty-five minutes to twelve when I went into his house after him, I had him in the Station House ten minutes to twelve, I did not see the man who was stabbed that night, he was removed to the hospital in an ambulance, I was present when the complainant and the prisoner were at Essex Market before Justice Powers on Sunday morning, the complainant picked the prisoner right out of three without any hesitation. I asked the prisoner going up to the Station House what he stabbed the man for? He denied it and said he knew nothing about it, he was not there at all and when I got to the court in the morning he said he was around there for about eight minutes.

James Elliott sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: I was on 31st Street and my brother came over and said he stabbed a Dutchman and O'Donnell the witness, was there at that time, I did not stab the man.

Cross Examined. I was not at the grocery store, I was on the opposite corner, I did not say to the officer that I was there for eight minutes, I work at plumbing but for the last two months I have been working at a peddling wagon, I am seventeen years old and my brother is eighteen, we are about the same size and both look alike, I have been taken for my brother before, I did not throw any cans around the grocery store, I was not one of the boys who said, we have laid out a Dutchman, but my brother was.

John J. Shannon recalled. I know William Elliott who is indicted for a distinct assault with Cornelius O'Neill, he is the brother of this defendant; they resemble each other but the big one is not as dark complexioned as this one and his hair is not quite as dark, you could tell the difference between them.

Albert Freeze recalled. Both the brothers were there but William Elliott has light hair and James has black, I cannot be mistaken, the prisoner is the one who stabbed me.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
