The People } Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Billy Jackson } Before Judge Eldersleeve.
 Thursday, August 11. 1887. Indictment for carrying concealed weapons.

Andrew J. Bradley, sworn and examined, testified. I am a police officer and on the 7th of July I arrested the prisoner on the corner of Twenty Fourth Street and Broadway. I took him to the station house. A little boy came up to me and told me that this man had dropped these Knuckles on his feet. This was while I had the defendant in custody; the boy is here in Court; he walked up to me and handed me the Knuckles and told me in the presence of the prisoner that he (the prisoner) dropped them and they fell on his feet; the prisoner denied it and said he did not drop them. These are the Knuckles.

The District Attorney offered them in evidence. Edward Carroll sworn and examined, testified. I live No. 203 Thirty Second St. I am fourteen going on fifteen years old. I recollect the 7th of July when I saw officer Bradley having the defendant in custody going to the station house. I was selling papers and I followed him down to the station house. On the way down the defendant dropped the Knuckles, I was in my bare feet and he hit me in the toe with them. I picked them up. I was right behind his feet; there was plenty more there. This was in Twenty Fifth Street; the Knuckles dropped from his right hand; he did not throw his hand behind him when he dropped them; he wanted to drop them in the gutter; he was near the gutter and I saw them drop them from his hand. I picked them up and gave them to the officer - the other officer that was there. I did not give them to this officer. The Knuckles now shown me are the ones. Cross Examined. I know these are the Knuckles, I had them in my hand I was close to the prisoner when he dropped the Knuckles; there was a crowd following first and I was behind; there was not many following; the crowd was ahead of the officer and the prisoner; there was a couple of people behind. None of the people are here. I did not see the defendant take the Knuckles out of his pocket but I saw them in his right hand; he dropped them next to me. I was walking close to him; the other officer handed the Knuckles to officer Bradley; he was ahead of Bradley and he went up and handed them to him.

0341

Andrew J. Bradley recalled. The name of the other officer who was with me is Nelson; he came directly with the boy and handed them to me. These are the Knuckles.

Billy Jackson, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. You are charged with carrying those Knuckles, did you have them in your possession at any time?

No sir. Do you know anything about it?

No sir. Have you ever had a pair of Knuckles in your life? Never had any use for them. The last witness upon the stand, the little boy, says that while you were crossing the street you dropped them from your hand and they fell upon his feet, is that so?

No sir. You were in custody of the officer? Yes sir, Officer Bradley had me that for? For being drunk, so he said.

I never have been in trouble. You always have been an honest, hard working boy?

Yes sir, I worked up at J. Hartfield & Son, 207 Fulton St. What is their business?

Printing. What were you doing there?

Light Porter. How long were you in their employ?

I was working for him about two weeks. What had you been at before?

I worked at Davis' drug store corner of Thirty Sixth St. and Third Avenue. I worked for him about a year and six months.

0342

Who did you work for before that? I worked for C. C. Smith, candy store between Twenty Second and Twenty Third Sts. and Sixth Ave.
I am positive I did not have possession of this weapon; the little boy is mistaken when he says he saw it drop from my hand. Cross Examined. I was not drunk,
I do not know what the officer arrested me
for. I was not insulting ladies in front of the Hoffman House; the officer arrested me corner of Twenty Fourth St. and Broadway, I think the Hoffman House is between Twenty Fourth and Twenty Fifth Sts.; he arrested me on the down town side. I never saw the Knuckles until the other officer gave them to Officer Bradley. I have not any of these people I worked for in Court to give me a character for peace and quietness.
Andrew J. Bradley recalled. I have been on the free six years and know a drunken man when I see him. The prisoner was drunk and disorderly and was insulting ladies in front of the Hoffman House.
The prisoner was convicted and remanded for sentence.
