The People v. James J. Langan, sworn and examined
 Maurice County Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Judge Martine. Dec. 19. 1888.
 Indictment for attempt at Grand larceny.

I am a sergeant of the Municipal Police; on the 27th of November I was on Chatham St.
 about 1.30 in the afternoon. I was alongside of Mr.
 Kolb, the complainant. I saw that the defendant stood next to Mr. Kolb. On that day about 1.30 in the afternoon there was a painter doing some lettering on a large plate glass window of Barnard's clothing store in Chatham Square and that caused a crowd to collect on the sidewalk. I had occasion to go along through that street at that time and I stood a moment and looked around thinking I would see some pickpockets working. I only stood there about a moment when I saw the prisoner in company with two others in the crowd; he went over and stood on the left side of Mr. Kolb and his two friends.
 (They were also young boys) stood in front of Mr. Kolb. The prisoner put his left hand over his right arm and put his hand on the watch chain of Mr. Kolb. He got the watch partly out of his pocket when Mr. Kolb discovered the feeling around the vest; he turned and looked at him, at the same time I was so close that I was looking over the movements of the boy in the watch pocket. he let go and the watch fell back in the pocket and I arrested him. I brought him to the station house and he was locked up. He denied attempting to take the watch. It was a silver watch. I saw it in the station house when Mr. Kolb showed it to me; it was a double case watch; the prisoner gave no explanation of what he was doing. I don't know the value of the watch. I never saw the prisoner before that time or the boys who were in company with him.

The case for the defence

Counsel: I move to dismiss on the ground that they failed to show the value of the watch. The Court: I shall deny your motion; they have shown there was a watch there; it must have some value.

Counsel: I desire to call your Honor's attention to the fact that it is a subject matter of proof that the owner could have been put upon the stand and he could have shown what he paid for it. The people have alleged that it was the property of John Kolb and they did not prove by the witness that he saw the watch in the case and custody of Kolb. The motion was denied and exception was taken.

Maurice Canty, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: Where do you live? No 291 Front street with my father and mother. How old are you? Fifteen years old. I was fifteen a few days ago. Have you ever been arrested before at any time charged with any crime before? No sir. What have you been doing for a living, if anything? I have only left school about a year ago. I have been jobbing around, working at leather belting and printing offices. I heard the officer's statement under oath against me. Did you hear him testify that you covered your right hand with your left arm, inserting the fingers of your right hand into this man Kolb's pocket and attempt to take his watch? Did you hear him state that? Yes sir. Is that true did you do anything of the kind? No sir. I saw two boys stand in front of him, I was standing by the side of him looking at the writing. Did you touch his watch? No sir without I happened to rub up against it. Did you attempt to do it? No sir. Had you any idea of taking his property? No sir. Cross Examined. Do you know what perjury is? No sir. When you kissed that Bible what did you swear to do? To tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Do you Know what is done to a person who comes upon the witness stand and swears to a lie? No sir, I never have been in Court. Don't you know they would be punished if they told a lie? I suppose so. I did not mean to take Mr. Kolb's watch. Did you move it from the bottom to the top of that vest pocket? Yes sir. Mr. Kolb was a stranger to me I did not ask permission of him let me take his watch. You have admitted, as I understand it, that you did take that watch, lifting it up as the Sergeant described from the bottom of the pocket to the mouth, but at the same time you tell these gentlemen that you did not intend to steal it. I ask you who were a stranger to this gentleman what object or purpose did you have when you took the watch from the bottom of the pocket to its mouth why did you do it if you did not intend to steal it - have you got some explanation? No sir. If you can give a satisfactory explanation I will ask this jury to acquit you? I ask you again, did you intend to take that watch - did you intend to steal it? Yes sir.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

Indicted for assault in the second degree.

New York, March 14, 1889.

For the People, George F. Goff
Assistant District-Attorney Goff.

For the Defendant,
Lester F. Palmer
Lester F. Palmer, Esq.

A N T O N I O C A R A R A, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I sell papers for a living. I know the defendant for a good while. On Sunday, the 21st. of December, at about 12 o'clock at the corner of Park Row and Baxter Street the defendant took a dog away from me. I gave my dog to another boy and the defendant came along and cut the rope and ran away with the dog. I stopped him on the corner of Baxter Street and Park Row and he raised a knife and hit me with it. The knife cut me in the left arm. He ran away and I tried to run after him and a policeman arrested him. I showed my arm to the policeman. All my clothes were full of blood. The next morning I went to the Tombs Police Court and made a complaint against him. The doctor at the Station House fixed up my arm.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N :

Q Had you ever had any trouble with the defendant before that day ?

A No, sir.

Q While this friend of yours had the dog walking along the street the defendant came up ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Was there a string around the dog's neck ?

A Yes, and the defendant got hold of the string and cut it.

Q How far away were you ?

A Half a block down. He was right near the middle of Baxter Street.

Q Did you see what kind of a knife he cut the string with?

A A small pen knife. I saw the blade.

Q After he cut the string what became of the dog ?

A He took the dog and ran away with it. I caught hold of the dog's neck and told him to give it to me and he would not give it to me but said he would hit me. He then went to run away and I went to stop him and he caught me.

J O H N R A P O U S I, a witness for the People, sworn,
testified:

I know the complainant and the defendant. I am the person referred to who had the dog. I was walking up Baxter Street and the defendant came along with a knife and cut the string and took the dog up in his arms. I hollered for Tony and he came up and the defendant hauled off with a knife and hit him in the arm. I had the dog in my arms at the time the defendant came up to me.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N :

Q Where did you get this dog ?

A I got it at the corner of Wall and Broad Streets on Thanksgiving Day. I found it on the street. I do not know who owned the dog.

Q Was it your dog ?

A It belonged to me and my playmate.

Q You had the dog running along beside you on a string ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Then the defendant came up ?

A Yes, sir.

Q What did he say ?

A He didn't say anything but he cut the string.

4

Q Had you had any trouble with the defendant before that day ?

A No, sir.

A R C H I B A L D M. C R A I G, a witness for the Defendant, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police. On the Sunday in question I saw a lot of little boys in Paradise Park playing with a dog. I afterwards saw a crowd gather and when I came over this little boy told me that he had been cut on the arm. He said he was cut with a knife by the defendant and I then arrested the defendant.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N:

Q How many little boys were there about the time you came up ?

A Fifteen or sixteen.

Q And how many of that number spoke concerning cans being kicked about on that day ?

A I couldn't tell how many boys spoke at once.

Q And did any one of them say that the boy who contended he had been cut with a knife had been hit with a can ?

A Yes, sir; they said he was hit with a can.

P E T E R C E L L A, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am twelve years of age. I go to school and live at home with my mother. I know the complainant about two years. This dog was coming out of an alleyway and I picked him up as I thought I could get something from the man who owns him. After I picked him up a crowd came running down and the complainant says "That's my dog". I told him I wouldn't give it to him and he pulled my arm and I let the dog go and gave it to him. Then we commenced to play "kick the can" and the complainant was hit by a can in the arm. He was hit by a can that I kicked myself. It was a tin tomato can.

Q Did that cut his arm ?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you have any knife that day ?

A No, sir.

Q Did you cut him with any knife ?

A No, sir.

Q When were you arrested ?

A Just as I was coming out of the house before my dinner.

Q Did you carry a knife at that time, at all ?

A No, sir.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N:

Q What made you run ?

A I thought I was going to get arrested. I saw a policeman coming and I ran.

Q How many times have you been arrested before ?

A Twice.

Q What have you been arrested for ?

A For breaking a show case.

Q Weren't you sent to the Catholic Protectory ?

A No, sir; my little brother was.

M A R Y C E L L A, a witness for the defence, sworn, testified:

I am the mother of this defendant. I never saw him carry a knife in my life. I have frequently looked through his clothing and I never saw him with a knife in my life.

A N G E L O B A T A L A, a witness, sworn for the defence, testified:

I am fourteen years old. I know the complainant and the defendant. On Sunday, the second of December, I saw this occurrence. This defendant had the dog in his arms and Tony came and said it was his dog and the defendant let the dog go. Then Antonio Carara said that this little boy had stabbed him. I was present and I did not see the stabbing.

Q Were you looking right at them?
A Yes, sir.
Q You didn't see the defendant have a knife at all?
A No, sir. I saw blood on his arm.
Q Did you see any gun there on that day?
A No, sir. I didn't see anything in his hands. I didn't see any knife or any gun.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree.

At a Court of General Sessions of the Peace, held in and for the City and County of New York, at the City Hall, in the said City of New York, on the 19th day of December 1886.

Present,

THE HONORABLE

Randolph B. Madison

Justice.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Adrian R. Hunter

The District Attorney having heretofore, to wit: on the 19th day of December 1886, submitted to the Grand Jury of this County, empanelled in this Court for the present term, and then in session, a certain charge against the above-named defendant for attempting suicide.

and the said Grand Jury having, after a consideration of the evidence produced before it in support of the said charge, dismissed the same, twelve grand jurors of the said Grand Jury not concurring in finding an indictment against the said defendant for the charge so submitted, and the depositions and statements setting forth the said charge having been duly returned to this Court, with an indorsement signed by Morris Woodcock Esquire, Foreman of the said Grand Jury, to the effect that the said charge was so dismissed.

Now, on reading and filing the affidavit of therefore it being made to whereby it appears to the satisfaction of the Court that that the charge is well founded both in law and on the evidence, that justice requires that an indictment be found, and that there is reason to believe that if the said charge is again submitted to the Grand Jury evidence can and will be adduced, sufficient to warrant the finding of an indictment, and that an indictment will be found against the said defendant for the said charge, notwithstanding such dismissal, and on motion of the District Attorney, it is Ordered, that the said charge be, and the same is hereby directed to be again submitted to the Grand Jury of this County.

whose real names are unknown but who can be identified by George E. Oran did, at the City of County of and State of New York, on or about the 28th day of November 1888, unlawfully keep and occupy a room, shed, tenement, tent, booth, building, or a part thereof, and a place, upon public or private grounds, with books, apparatus and paraphernalia, for the purpose of recording or registering bets or wagers, or of selling pools, and did then and there record or register bets or wagers, or sell pools upon the result of a certain trial or contest of skill, speed or power of endurance of beasts, to wit horses, then and there about to be run in a certain race, upon a certain race-course, known as the

Clifton Races
at the town of Clifton in the State of New Jersey, and further being the owner, lessee, or occupant of said room, shed, tenement, tent, booth, building or part thereof, the said John Dor and Richard Dor aforesaid did knowingly permit the same to be used and occupied for the purposes hereinbefore mentioned, and therein did keep, exhibit and employ, certain and divers device, or apparatus, for the purpose of recording or registering bets or wagers, and for selling pools, as hereinbefore set forth, and did further become the custodian or depositary for hire or reward, of certain money, property, and thing of value, stated, wagered or pledged upon said result of said trial or contest of skill, speed or power of endurance, between horses, as is more particularly set forth aforesaid.

Deponent further says, that he has just cause to believe, is informed and verily does believe, his information being based upon personal observation, and from the statements of

George E. Oran

that the said John Dor and Richard Dor aforesaid now have in their possession, at, in and upon certain premises occupied by them situate and known as Number 355 Bowery, (second floor)

the 28th day of November 1888, he personally visited the premises occupied by the said John Dor and Richard Dor aforesaid, situate and known as Number 355 Bowery (second floor) them aforesaid, and had conversation and dealings with them in substance as follows, to wit:

Deponent, as he entered the room saw a blackboard with the names of the horses about to run in the Clifton races, with the odds that were being given on each horse opposite their names. Deponent took his place in one of the lines of persons that were formed to bet on these horses, & awaited his turn, and said to John Dor, I bet two dollars on Specie for place, handing the said John Dor a two dollar bill. The said John Dor handed back the two dollar bill to deponent, saying "the odds are four to five" deponent then handed the said John Doe, a five dollar bill and said "the bet five dollars then". The said John Doe took the money, tore off a ticket from a pad which he then and there had, kept, and used to record bets similar to deponents, stamped said ticket so torn off & handed same to deponent, recording deponents bet upon the duplicate ticket or stamp on the pad which the said John Doe kept. The said Richard Doe, was acting as ~~the~~ cashier at another office and received tickets similar to those deponent had received from said John Doe, and passed out money for the same. Deponent saw him having the same tickets and papers, in the envelope nearly and within which both John Doe, and Richard Doe were ~~both~~ employed. Deponent further says, from personal observation and dealings had with the said John Doe, and Richard Doe, he is informed and verily believes that the said John Doe, and Richard Doe, who now have in their possession at in and upon certain premises occupied by them, situated and known as Number 355 Bowery, (second floor, in said city of New York, aforesaid, divers and sundry books, apparatus, device, papers, writing instruments, and paraphernalia, for the purpose of

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I knew there were some other persons assisting the three prisoners already convicted but cannot say positively that the prisoner John Geary was one of them, and therefore desire to withdraw the complaint as against him.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
against

William Bradford
and George Blada

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse William Bradford

and George Blada

(Sec. 348, Penal Code.) of the CRIME OF KEEPING A ROOM TO BE USED FOR GAMBLING, committed as follows:

The said William and George, both late of the 22nd Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the second day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty eight, and on divers other days and times as well before as after, to the day of the taking of this inquisition, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, unlawfully did keep a certain room in a certain building there situate, to be used for gambling, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT. (Sec. 344, Penal Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

William Bradford and George Blada

of the CRIME OF ALLOWING A ROOM, ESTABLISHMENT, TABLE AND APPARATUS TO BE USED FOR GAMBLING PURPOSES, committed as follows:

The said William and George, both

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, and on said other days and times, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, having the care, custody and supervision of, and authority over the use of a certain room in a certain building there situate, and a certain gambling-table, and establishment, and divers cards, chips, dice, implements and paraphernalia and sundry devices and apparatus, a more particular description whereof is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given, the same being suitable for gambling purposes, with force and arms, feloniously did allow the same to be used for gambling purposes, against the form of the Statute, in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT. (Sec. 344, Penal Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

William Bradford and George Clark
of the CRIME OF ENGAGING AS DEALER IN gambling GAMES, where money and property were dependent upon the result, committed as follows:

The said William and George, both

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, and on divers other days, ~~was~~ ^{were} and yet ~~is~~ ^{are} a common gambler, and on the day and in the year aforesaid, the said William and George.

at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, in a certain room in a certain building there situate, feloniously did engage as dealer in a certain gambling game commonly known as " Faro " and " roulette " where money and property were dependent upon the result, a more particular description of which said gambling game is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

FOURTH COUNT. (Sec. 344, Penal Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

William Bradford and George Clark
of the CRIME OF ENGAGING AS GAME-KEEPER IN gambling GAMES, where money and property were dependent upon the result, committed as follows:

The said William and George, both

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, and on divers other days, ~~was~~ ^{were} and yet ~~is~~ ^{are} a common gambler, and on the day and in the year aforesaid, the said William and George.

at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, in a certain room in a certain building there situate, feloniously did engage as game-keeper in a certain gambling game commonly known as " Faro " and " roulette " where money and property were dependent upon the result, a more particular description of which said ~~banking~~ game is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

FIFTH COUNT. (Sec. 344, Penal Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

William Bradford and George Clark

of the CRIME OF ENGAGING AS PLAYERS, IN a gambling GAME, where money and property were dependent upon the result, committed as follows:

The said William and George, both

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, and on divers other days, ~~was~~ ^{were} and yet ~~is~~ ^{are} common gamblers; and on the day and in the year aforesaid, the said William and

George at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, in a certain room in a certain building there situate, feloniously did engage as players, in a certain gambling game commonly known as " Faro " and " roulette " where money and property were dependent upon the result, a more particular description of which said ~~banking~~ game is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SIXTH COUNT. (Sec. 385, Penal Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

William Bradford and George Clark

of the CRIME OF MAINTAINING A PUBLIC NUISANCE, committed as follows:

The said William and George, both

late of the Ward, City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, and on said other days and times, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, a certain common gaming-house there situate, for their lucre and gain, unlawfully and injuriously did keep and maintain; and in their said common gaming-house, then and on said other days and times, there unlawfully and injuriously did cause and procure divers idle and ill-disposed persons to be and remain, and the said idle and ill-disposed persons, on the day and in the year aforesaid, and on said other days and times, to game together and play at a certain unlawful game of cards called " Faro " and " roulette ," in the said common gaming-house aforesaid, there did unlawfully and injuriously procure, permit and suffer, and the said idle and ill-disposed persons, then, and on said other days and times, in the said common gaming-house aforesaid, by such procurement, permission and sufferance of the said William and George

there did game together and play at said unlawful game of cards, for divers large and excessive sums of money, to the great annoyance, injury and damage of the comfort and repose of a great number of persons, good citizens of our said State, there inhabiting and residing, and passing and repassing, to the common nuisance of the said citizens, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the People of the State of New York.
