City and County } of New York, } ss.

William Cornell
of No. Grand Central Depot, E. 42nd Street, aged 47 years, occupation Agent for Western Express Company being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 13th day of December 18*90* at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:

One trunk containing wearing apparel, jewelry and other articles all of the value of Two hundred and sixty seven dollars the property of A. G. Swaby and in care and charge of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Mark Young (now here) three other men not arrested all of whom were acting in concert for the reasons that said trunk containing said property was in Grand Central Depot in deponent's custody as the agent for the Western Express Company. That on said day deponent missed said property.

Deponent is informed by Matthew Reil (now here) that on said 13th day of December, 1890, he resided with his father in apartment 313 East 44th Street and on said day the defendant Young accompanied by Police Justice.

Patrick Lappin came to said apartment bringing with them a trunk; that they then broke the lock on said trunk and broke it open and took a portion of ~~the~~ ^{therefrom} property therefrom. That on the succeeding day to wit: the ~~defendant~~ 14th December 1890, two other men unknown to him ^{but whom he can identify} came to said apartment and removed the remainder of said property and took it away with them. Deponent is informed by Denis McMahon (now here) that he has since visited premises 313 East 44th Street and there found an empty trunk in the possession of Cornelius Reil. Deponent has since seen said trunk and identifies it as the one stolen from his possession.

The defendant in the presence of deponent and Officer Denis McMahon acknowledged and confessed that he in company with said three other men took stolen and carried away said property.

Wherefore deponent asks that the defendant Young may be held to answer this complaint and that said Lappin and two other men may be arrested and dealt with as the law requires.
