STATE OF NEW YORK,
CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, } ss:

POLICE COURT, 2 DISTRICT.

Joseph Alderman

of No 69 West Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 15th day of October 1886

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Deponent went into a room on the second floor of the premises No 114 East 104th Street, in the City of New York and there purchased from one Samuel Hammond (now here) a ticket marked "K 51 1/2 Hannibal, Friday Oct 15th" for which Deponent paid to said Hammond the sum of two dollars. At the time of said purchase Deponent said to Defendant "I want two dollars on Hannibal" and it was in consequence of said remark that the Defendant received the said two dollars. Deponent charges that said ticket represents a bet or pool upon a horse race, for the reason that on said date a race was advertised to take place at Brighton Beach track. Deponent charges that, said race there was a horse named "Hannibal" entered as one of the racers, and that the figures "1/2" on said ticket were intended as a wager on said race, and were in fact a record that in case the said horse Hannibal should win said race, the said Hammond would pay to deponent sixteen dollars for two dollars then and there paid the ~~deponent~~ ^{defendant} wherefore deponent charges the said defendant with selling a pool ticket on a horse race in violation of section 351 of the penal code of the state of

FRIDAY

New York

Dear Sir

In above case
the bondsmen for Little Johnson have received notice to produce him on Monday for trial. I will be very busy all next week
having three civil cases set down for trial, and I cannot therefore return it a favor if you would kindly not put this case on till week after next.
This is the case of the

Dear Sir

I have taken a great interest in the case of little Richy Malone, having known his mother and family for some years. As you are well aware on account of my connections with Judge Gorman I am asked by many to interest myself in similar cases to this, but I hardly ever do because I find that most of them lack merits.

In this case however, I feel certain that it is one deserving of mercy and I am certain that if the facts of the case had been presented to Judge Cowing by counsel he would have tempered justice with mercy. I therefore would request you to state the case to Judge Cowing and at the same time give him the petitions which I understand are being prepared.

We can heartily recommend the boy, as one having a good

The People
vs.
Richard Howard.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Cowing.

January 23, 1887.

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Elizabeth Seabold sworn and examined. Are you a married lady? No sir, I am a widow. Where do you live? I live 2409 First Avenue. Were you in the city of New York on the 21st of December, about one o'clock in the afternoon you were walking on Grand Street? Yes sir. What did you have in your hand if anything? I had my little satchel and three dollars and eighty-eight cents in change in a pocket-book. It was your satchel, pocket-book and money? Yes sir. When you were walking about one o'clock on Grand Street with this property in your hand did you see Richard Howard, the prisoner at the bar? I saw him. What did he do to you if anything? He opened my satchel and put his hand in, I grabbed his hand in my satchel and hollered out and then Officer Eayer came and took him. After you cried out and he put his hand in the satchel, what did he do? He ran away. How far did he run before the officer caught him? He ran a few steps.

Cross Examined. There were a great many people on Grand Street, I was just done shopping, I haven't got my satchel here, it is a common latch and opens on the top. I was going towards the Bowery, I first noticed the prisoner one block below Ridley's store, I first saw him about the corner of Forseith Street, he was back of me, when I took hold of his hand he was on the side of me towards the gutter, I took hold of his right arm, I could not see then that he had anything in his hand, there were a great many people there and I was excited, I asked him if he took my pocket-book and he said no he did not take it, he tried to com ence to run fast and I took hold of his coat and when the officer came he was going towards him, I did not lose anything, I am sure this is the man that put his hand in my satchel.

Itteine Bayer sworn. I am an officer of the 11th precinct and on the 21st of December I was in Grand Street in the neighborhood of one o'clock in the afternoon I saw the complainant and the prisoner on that occasion, I was standing corner of Grand and Elridge Streets, right opposite Lichenstein's and I heard the scream and I saw the prisoner coming running over from Lichenstein's and I caught him in the middle of the street and brought him back where the people were around the complainant; she says, this man tried to rob me, put his hand in my satchel and wanted to snatch my pocket-book. I took him around to the Station House, he ran right into me, the complainant was about five or six feet from the prisoner when I arrested him; the screaming attracted my notice, I am detective in the 11th precinct.

Richard Howard sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: I live 144 Bleecker Street and have never been arrested before, I am a house and sign painter, I remember the day of my arrest, I was returning from Williamsburgh, I had been over to Middleton and Marcy Avenue to see about some work and on my return I came through Grand Street and saw this crowd near Worseith Street, it was pretty hard work to get through the large crowd and walking along leisurely I was surprised by some one catching my left hand, I asked the party, what do you mean? She says, you are trying to take my pocket-book. I says, I didnot know you had one; she says, my satchel is open; I said, I know nothing about that, I am not accountable for that, I am very sorry, I tried to reason with her and she was much excited, I did not want to be arrested for this, I had not done anything, I am in a position where I cannot afford to be arrested, she insisted that I took it, I says, I cannot talk with you so I just started to go across the street, I got as far as the curb when officers came and I stopped immediately, I offered no resistance, I told the officers, here I am, take me, I haven't done anything. I did not put my hand in the woman's satchel, she was in front of me, I was on one side and she touched my left hand and turned around to go towards the Bowery, she was very much excited and I tried to explain to her that I did not know anything about it.

Cross Examined. I was very close to her side, I appreciate what an oath is, I am innocent of this charge I have never been arrested before. I knew if I was arrested I would have to be in jail, the officer never grabbed me, I stopped and he took me.

Itteine Bayer recalled. I heard the lady scream and the prisoner ran and I grabbed him by both shoulders.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty.
