Charles W. Leggett
 who is charged upon the Complaint of Enoch S. Jordan with assault and battery being duly sworn says that he is a native of this City and is 23 years of age and a clerk in the Wholesale Grocery store of William A. Leggett & Co. of this City of which his Father is the senior partner and that he has never previously been charged with or guilty of any offence against the Laws.

And deponent further saith that during the past summer he hired and occupied an apartment in the house No. Fourth Avenue in this City and the Complainant another apartment in the same house. That being credibly informed that the said Complainant was in the habit of visiting his said apartment during the afternoons during deponents absence and without his knowledge or consent which information he has since ascertained to be true. That with the intent of calling said Complainant to account for his said conduct and deponent being small and delicate of stature, requested Charles Hines, a porter in said store to accompany him to protect him while so doing. That deponent called upon said Complainant and requested him to come down into deponent's room and explain or account for his said conduct which said Complainant refused to do. That deponent thereupon requested the said Charles Hines to come up into the said Complainant's room for the sole purpose of guarding and protecting deponent while endeavoring to obtain such explanation. That some words then took place between deponent and said Complainant, when the said Charles Hines took hold of said Complainant thrust him into a chair and shook him and gave him two or three slight blows without being instigated or requested so to do by deponent and without doing the Complainant any other injury than the slight discoloration under one of his eyes.

And deponent further saith that the Complainant seems to be endeavoring to magnify this occurrence into a very serious offence against the Law for sinister purposes of his own.
