Court of General Sessions. Part 3
Before Judge Cowing.

Wednesday, December 14th, 1892

Indictment for assault in the first degree.

Mary Buch, sworn and examined by Mr. Bedford.
What is your name? A. Mary Buch.

Where do you live? A. No. 171 Essex street, New York.

What is that, a tenement house? Yes sir.

What floor do you occupy? I live on the first floor in the rear house. Are you a married lady? Yes. Any children? Two.

Your husband and yourself and the little ones occupy the first floor? Yes sir in the rear house. Does the prisoner at the bar, Herman Sanders, live there too?

No sir, he lives at No. 175 Essex street.

You live at what number? No. 171 Essex st.

He lives two doors the other side of you? Yes.

Were you in your apartment on the 29th of November, or where did you see the prisoner? I was by the lady that lives next door to them in the evening of the 29th of November. That lady lives on the same floor of Herman Sanders. Sanders and his wife had a fight. I did not see it but I heard the noise. I did not do anything. I sat still and then my father happened to go down stairs. I do not know if Sanders threw his wife out. His wife was out in the hall. My father says, "you ought to be ashamed of yourself hitting always your wife!" and then my father halloed and I ran out then he ran in the front door (Saunders) and came out of the back door and had a hatchet in his hand. I saw it, and he went to strike my father and I ran in between to save my father's life and he hit me on the right arm. It laid me up.

How many days were you so that you could not use it? A week. When that blow was struck on your left arm ~~you fell~~ stood between the prisoner and your father trying to ward off the blow that he was trying to get at your father. Yes. My father had no weapon in his hand.

Cross Examined. I saw my father had any weapon in our hands. Do you know how he got that cut in that condition? No. I do not know that, he was wild. Did you see a hod such as hod carriers use to carry up bricks there? No. I did not see anything of that kind. Is it not a fact that you were inside his apartment? No. I was in that lady's apartment. But when you got hit were you not in the defendant's room? No. I was outside in the hall. Had you been in the inside of the apartments of the defendant at all? No sir. Your father did not go in there? No, not before the policeman was there. The policeman came and then you went in there? Yes. Didnt you see the defendant's wife there? No, she was gone. I did not see her there at all. You do not know how the defendant got those bruises and that cut on the head? No sir. Had you ever had any trouble with this man? No, I never seen him before. Did you go to the Hospital with your arm? No, I went to a doctor. I dont know his name. Did he sew up your arm? No. How many times did you go to the doctor? I went once.

Henry Miller, sworn and examined, testified. The lady who has just left the witness box is your daughter is she not? Yes sir. Do you remember the 29th of November? Yes, the evening, it was on a Tuesday.

Did you see the prisoner on that day? Yes. What did he attempt to do, if any thing? I went down the stairs on my way to the water closet and I saw that he threw out his wife into the hall. Her head was bruised and she was bleeding, and he was bleeding too, and his shirt was hanging out. Then he called his wife a very nasty name. I am ashamed to tell it again. Then I said to him, "you are an old man and should be ashamed to make such trouble." Then he commenced to call me bad names and he rushed at me. Then he (Sanders) took a hatchet and rushed at me. My daughter went between him and me and as she did so, she received a blow with a hatchet on her arm. Then my daughter went for a policeman and the policeman came and he was arrested.

Cross Examined. Did you say any time that night that "we fixed him" (Sanders)? No. After the affray did not you say that "we fixed him"? O. No, the policeman took him. Did you say anything after the policeman had taken him away that "we fixed" him? No, I did not speak to any one. Did you ever have any trouble with Sanders? Yes, I had some quarrel with his wife, and I took his wife every night in my place.

What is your business? I am a hod carrier. There is the hod that you had with you that night? It is in my cellar or in the shop. Didn't you have a hod in your hand the night you went into this man's room and the night your daughter was hurt? No sir. Did you hit this man at all? No. I did not touch him even with a finger. Do you know how he got that cut on the head and how his hand got hurt? I do not know how that happened. Was he fleeing? He was fleeing when he came out. Were you in his rooms at all that night? No sir. Where was your daughter when she got hit in the arm? In the hall. Where were you? In the hall outside.

Catherine Moxley sworn and examined. Where do you live? No. 175 Essex street. Were you there on the 29th of November? Yes, it was on Tuesday evening. What did you see this prisoner do, did you see him have a hatchet in his hand, what did you see him do? I saw that he had a hatchet in his hand and he hit Mrs. Bruch on the arm with it. I saw that. What did Mrs. Bruch do or say to the prisoner before you saw him hit her on the arm with a hatchet. She was in my room, she did not do anything.

Cross Examined. Was she in your room when she got hit? No, she was in the hall. Did you see whether she went in the room of the defendant? Nobody was in the room. Did you see Mr. Miller there the father? No, there was no light in the room - the room was dark. Our door was open and that gave a reflection of light into the hall. Did you go out of the room with Mrs. Buck at the same time? No. You came out in the hall after you heard Mrs. Buck halloo and after she had been hit? Yes, I was standing there and I saw it. I saw when she received the blow and when the blood commenced to ooze from the wound.

Patrick Hough, sworn and examined.

What precinct do you belong to officer? The eleventh precinct. Did you make the arrest in this case? I did, Sir. on the 29th of November between half past seven and eight o'clock. Where was the prisoner? In 175 Essex street in this city. Did you see Mary Buck? Yes, it was her screams that I heard. I heard them in the street, and that attracted my attention to the place. What was her condition? Her hand was bleeding. Was it an incised wound in the arm? Yes. An inch long? About an inch across. Did you find any weapon that would cause such a flow as that? I found that hand hatchet on the floor of Sanders' apartment.

What did this woman, whose arm was cut say to you in the presence and hearing of the prisoner, if she said anything? She merely charged him with the offence. "I want him arrested forthwith."

What did she say as she charged him with the offence? She said that "Sanders, the man in the rear house 195 Essex street struck me in the arm with a hatchet. Was the door locked or unlocked? It was unlocked. What did you say to Sanders when you saw him? I got hold of Sanders right away and got the hatchet on the floor. I says, "Did you assault this woman?"

He says, "They all got around me," he said something like that. He had defended himself? Yes, something like that. Did you see the prisoner's wife that time? Yes the prisoner's wife was bleeding too. I asked her if she would go to Court and make a complaint against her husband. I asked her if Sanders assaulted her too? and she said, "yes." I said, "will you go to the station house and make a complaint against him and she said, "no." That is all I know about the case. What was the condition of the prisoner when you arrested him? His hand was badly cut and there was a scalp wound on the top of the head. Now he received it he could not tell me, but he made a complaint in the station house against Mary Buch, but in the Court in the morning he could not explain it. He was partly drunk when I arrested him. He did not say what he had been struck with. I did not hear of any hood in connection with this case and I did not see any in the room. It was a flesh wound the complainant had, it did not penetrate to the bone. A plea of guilty of assault in the third degree was accepted and the defendant was sentenced to the penitentiary for one year.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. My reasons for wishing to ^{withdraw} the Complaint are - the defendant and I were friends for years, and had been rooming together for nearly a year before the trouble occurred. I now feel that I was hasty in making the Complaint as I have since learned that he may pawned the watch in a pawn and afterwards came to the store I was working in ~~he came to the store~~ and spent the dollar he obtained on said watch with me. I made the Complaint in the heat of passion when I discovered what he had done. I therefore respectfully request permission to withdraw the Complaint.
