City & County of New York SS:

James G. Kennedy being duly sworn doth depose and say that he is the defendant in the above entitled criminal action; that deponent is not guilty of the crime charged and set forth in the Indictment herein; that deponent did not intend to kill the person mentioned in the Indictment herein, nor did deponent intend to do her any bodily harm whatsoever at the time and place set forth in said Indictment or at any other time.

And this deponent further says, that he is not possessed of any real or personal property; that deponent has no relatives or friends who can justify as sureties upon deponent's bond to the extent now fixed as the amount of bail required herein; that deponent verily believes that he would be able to secure the amount of Five hundred dollars bail 0233

if the bail should be reduced to that amount.

That deponent has been confined within the City Prison since December 3rd 1884 and has made every effort in his power to obtain bail, but up to this time deponent has not been able to obtain it: Wherefore deponent request the Court to reduce the bail herein to the sum of Five hundred dollars.

City & County of New York ss:

duly sworn says that he is the father of the above named defendant; that the defendant is twenty two years of age and upwards; that defendant has always been a good, respectful, respectable and dutiful son, sober and industrious in his habits; that the defendant had undoubted evidence which lead him to believe that the person who he is charged with having assaulted, his wife, had been unfaithful to her marriage vows, and the knowledge of such facts had so affected the mind of the defendant that he appeared, at intervals, shortly before the acts alleged to ^{have been} committed by the defendant, were committed, that those who had known him intimately were greatly exercised lest he should do himself some great bodily harm.

0237

And this deponent further says that there has been a complete reconciliation between the defendant and his wife, the party who he is charged with having assaulted, and all past offences condoned; that deponent resides with his family at No. 209 East 76th Street in the City of New York and is desirous of taking the defendant and his said wife into deponent's family and then provide a permanent home for them.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself, and that owing to the language I used I consider that it was my fault that the assault was made. I cannot say positively that his intention was to shoot me as it may have been accidental. I don't desire prosecute.

Horse as a witness - I was about twenty five feet from the place of accident. The horse were trotting at lively gait, it was a brewery wagon. Having barrels & things in it. I recognize the prisoner as the driver of the wagon.
 I saw him getting down off the wagon.
 When turning the corner of Broome & Clark Sts with the child on the way to take her parents home. I pressed the prisoner and smelled his breath.
 There was an odor of liquor & the prisoner was breathing heavily. While standing in front of 536 Broome St. I heard a little colored girl Laura Morris say something to the prisoner (the driver) I did not understand what she said. -

Wallace E Allen

Louis F. Fisher being sworn says:
 I reside at 18 Clark St. I worked last in a confectionery 389 Canal St. at present am unemployed. I was standing in front of 536 Broome St. about 2.30 P.M. on Nov. 21st 1884 & was looking in the direction of Clark St. A man named Allen was with me at the time, & I saw a object under a wagon.
 I turned around & followed to Allen found Mr. Walter, & returning passed through Prince St. & as we got to the Station House, we were asked to go in as witnesses, we did so, we also went to Court, I was not examined at the Court, Mr. Walter, I saw a Druggist wagon standing about 10 feet down from the hotel I saw the forward wheel which passed the back of child, I smelled the pyrethrum, break oil & smelled of liquor, the horses were breathing pretty fast, - I was acquainted with Mr. Walter about 10 years, there was another man on Wagon, sitting behind on a barrel,

Laura Morris being sworn says: I live at 199 S. Fifth Ave. - November 21st 1884, in the School was just about turning out. I was standing in front of a Fancy Store ~~when~~ ^{between} between Brown & Clark Sts. when I saw a wagon run over a child. I heard the child say Oh! Mama as the hind wheel passed over her. I screamed and Allen picked up the child and took her to a Drug Store corner of Varick & Brown Sts. - Allen called to some one to hold the reins of the wagon. I recognize the prisoner as the driver of the wagon and the driver in the Station House and he looked very stupid I cannot say whether he was drunk or not. He looked as if he was half asleep. There were two men on the wagon, the driver and a man behind him.

The street was clear of trucks or wagons in front of me - I was looking forward. I do not think the child was on the crossing when run over. When the child was run over she was about 5 ft from the curb of the east side. I do not think if there had been a brake on the wagon I would have been able to save the child. I could have stopped the truck quicker or if I had had a brake but I could not have saved the child.
