William C. Sadler of No 31 Barclay Street, being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the first day of December, 1880, at the city of New York, in the county of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of the deponent the following property, viz: three printed bound books, known and described as the "Holy Bible" of the value of forty eight dollars; also forty one bound books, known and described as "Photograph Albums" of the value of two hundred and twenty nine dollars, and two prayer books of the value of five ⁵⁰/₁₀₀ dollars, said sums in the aggregate amounting to the sum of two hundred and eighty two ⁵⁰/₁₀₀ dollars, the property of depenent, and in deponent's care and custody, and this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously by taken, stolen, and carried away by Edward Bailey, in the following manner, to wit: said Dailey was in the employ of defendant and represented to him that he had ~~no~~ customers, at Port Jervis, in the State of New York, for said books, and would pay for the same on delivery, or if not, he would return the said books at once, that relying on such statement, defendant permitted him to take said books from the store, and said Edward Dailey, never returned with the books or the money.

Defendant further says that he visited Port Jervis aforesaid, the place ^{where} said Edward Dailey stated he had customers for said books, and found upon inquiry, that no such parties or persons, such as ^{he} had represented were at said place, and further that no such persons resided there at the time he took said books or since. That upon further inquiry at Port Jervis defendant was informed by one Jephtha Bee, whom said Dailey alleged to be one of the purchasers of said books to this defendant, ~~was~~ informed that he had never bought a book or album of any kind.

scription, whatever. And deponent was likewise informed by William H. Christen and H. Banker, persons residing at said place of sale, whom Quiley had alleged to deponent bought each an albino of the value of six dollars, ~~whereas~~ in fact they had not. And deponent therefore charges the truth to be, that said Quiley feloniously took, stole, and carried away the said property, and prays that he may be apprehended and dealt with as the law directs.

Court of General Sessions, Part I Before Judge Cowing. April 25, 1887.
Indictment for grand larceny of money.
William A. Babbitt, sworn. My business is plate glass mirrors at 538 and 540 Pearl St. I know the prisoner for about three years; he has been in my employ only since January, about the middle of the month; he was a bookkeeper; on the 6th of April he was there in the same relation. I had about thirty two dollars in money in my safe that day; the prisoner and myself had access to the safe.
He left the store about 10 o'clock in the morning on the 6th of April; he closed the safe before he went away, locked it and took the key away with him. I saw him that evening at his house. In the morning I sent him up to Twenty Third St. and he was to come right back; he had not come back at 5 o'clock, and I had the safe broken open and I found the money gone. Then I went to his house. I did not let on to him I had opened the safe. He said he was taken sick; he told me he would give me the keys and I would find everything as he left it in the morning; he said he stole the money; he returned the keys and the money, he would return whenever he could, that he had spent it. Cross Examined. I got to the store that morning about the usual time 9 o'clock. I saw the prisoner leave, I saw the money inside of the safe that morning; it was in currency; there was some silver; there might have been gold, but I do not exactly remember. I did not count it that morning. I gave it to the prisoner the afternoon before to put it in the safe; the safe was open the next day until he left. There was nobody but him employed in the office. There are from 25 to 30 employed in the store; they are not allowed in the office; they might go in un-awares to me. I told the prisoner on this morning to go and collect some bills of my customers. Then I asked the prisoner where the money was he said he spent it all but ten dollars that he gave his wife; he said he purchased a revolver to blow his brains out. I have not said to anybody that I would send the prisoner to the State Prison for five years if I could. I know of the death of the prisoner's child; he was absent a week about that time.

Dominick Durant, sworn in behalf of the prisoner testified. I am a looking glass manufacturer at 776 North St. know the prisoner over three years; he was in my employ; he left me about six weeks or two months ago and went to Mr. Babbitt. I never heard any complaints about him as to his honesty.

Peter Knott sworn. I am a range manufacturer at 24 and 26 Wooster St; have known the prisoner seven years; I never heard anything against him.

Charles Derulder sworn. I am a manufacturer of ostrich feathers at 20 West Houston St. the prisoner has been in my employ as a bookkeeper. His reputation was honest; that is all I know.

Ellen Lappin, sworn. I live at present at 82 Tenth Ave; I am the sister of the prisoner's wife; I was living with them on the 6th of April in consequence of sickness in their family; on the 6th of April the prisoner came home about 3 1/2 o'clock in the afternoon. I asked him why he came home so soon and he made no reply; he took a seat in the rocking chair, I called his wife; he looked to me to be crazy; she took him and put him on the bed. Mr. Babbitt came about 6 o'clock to enquire about him; they conversed together in the front room; the prisoner had been sitting up nights for three weeks with his children; his wife and baby was sick; the child had scarlet fever; the prisoner has complained of pains in his head for a week and over a week. I did not hear any of the conversation between him and Mr. Babbitt.

Lizzie De Lahaff sworn. I am the wife of the prisoner and remember the day of his arrest; he looked as if he was crazy when he came in. I asked him why he was home so early? and he said, "O, my head." I bathed his head with water and alcohol; he laid on the bed and had a sleep; he was talking foolishly. When I put away his overcoat I found a parcel in his pocket containing a revolver, three tickets for Barnums and a ten dollar bill. I asked him when he woke up where he got those things and he said he did not know - that he must have borrowed $20 or $25 from some one. Mr. Babbitt came in the evening. I did not hear their conversation; Mr. Babbitt went out and came back with an officer; the prisoner said if he thought he had taken some money from Mr. Babbitt he would shoot himself. Elisse De Lahaff sworn in his own behalf testified that when he went to Mr. Babbitt's place on the morning of the 5th he had pains in his head and in his chest and he took some alcohol; the pains in his head were caused by his having to sit up for weeks with his sick children. When he drank the alcohol he began to feel warm inside, but soon after he did not remember anything from 11 o'clock till he found himself in his own house about five or half past five o'clock.

I do not remember taking any money out of the safe. I have never been arrested before. James Thompson, a police officer, testified that he arrested the prisoner. Mr. Baffitt asked him if he took the money? He said, "yes. I did take it; you can have me arrested if you like; I bought a pistol with part of it, and I gave my wife ten dollars. He appeared to be depressed.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny with a recommendation to mercy.

Before me this

1881and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by John Dougherty (now here)for the reason following to wit: Deponent was standing on the sidewalk in front of premises No 292 East Houston Street and at the time said watch with one end of said chain attached was in the left side pocket of the vest then and there worn by deponent as a part of his wearing ^{apparel} the other end of said chain was in a buttonhole of said vest. That

Said Dougherty approached defendant seized hold of said chain with said watch attached and took stole and carried away from the person and from the possession of defendant the aforesaid property and ran away with the same. Defendant pursued said Dougherty and caught him. That while defendant was running after said Dougherty defendant caught hold of said chain and pulled it so hard that the chain broke. That when defendant caught said Dougherty, he struck defendant a blow on the breast with his fist. Defendant then knocked said Dougherty down and while down took said watch with a part of said ^{chain} attached from his possession.
