New York General Sessions.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Robert M. Bailey

City and County of New York: ss

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I have concluded that the running over of myself by the defendant with a dray and horses, for which the arrest was made, was not wilful. It was dark at the time of the running over and it is possible that the defendant did not see me. I do not think the defendant intended to do me any harm, but that the accident resulted through no wilful or malicious act on defendant's part. I am satisfied the charge of malicious assault should not be sustained. I understand the defendant is married and has a family and is respectable and I have no desire to see him punished, and ask that the complaint be withdrawn and the indictment dismissed.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 31st day of Indictment filed February 2, 1892.

Indicted for burglary in the third degree.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Asst. District-Attorney James W. Osborn;

For the Defendant,

Mr.

New York, March 14, 1892.

MARIA CAPPA, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 38 Laight Street. I lived there on the 17th. of February 1892. I saw the defendant Joseph Baresa on that day in my house. I went out to buy some groceries and at the same time visit a friend of mine. I occupy apartments on the second floor back in No. 38 Laight Street. It is a tenement house. When I went out the windows and doors of my premises were all closed. I left considerable property in my rooms including two cotton sheets and a watch of the value of $20 which was hanging on the wall. When I returned I found that these things were missing. I saw the defendant in my rooms. There was another man present in the room with him. The defendant ran out of my room and the other man got away, but I held on to this defendant till the police came and arrested him.

Cross-examination:

The value of these two sheets was between six and seven dollars. I have bought sheets of this kind and I know their value. I am positive about my door being locked. The lock was broken. I had never seen the defendant before that day. My husband is a shoe-black.

JOSEPH SUMMER, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live in Laight Street. I am the janitor of No. 38 Laight Street. I was in charge of that building on the 17th. of February 1892. I saw the defendant Joseph Baresa running downstairs out of those premises. I caught him. He told me to let him go and I told him I would hold him till I saw the woman. The woman Maria Cappa came up and identified him as a man who had been in her rooms.

Cross-examination:

I heard the complainant testify that she held the man until he was arrested. That is not so. He ran out of the house and I arrested him.

MICHAEL F. GEARY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of police attached to the 5th.

Precinct. 38 Laight Street is in the 5th. Ward of this city. I was called to make this arrest on the 17th. of February 1892 about twenty minutes of one o'clock. I inquired if anybody knew the defendant. Nobody in the building 38 Laight Street knew him. He told me that he belonged there. I investigated the door of the complainant's premises and found marks of violence upon it, as though some blunt instrument had been used.

MARIA CAPPA, re-called:

The piece of iron now shown me was in the defendant's hands at the time I arrested him.

LOUIS CAPPA, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am the husband of Maria Cappa. I live at No. 38 Laight Street. On the 17th. of February when I returned home I missed my watch which I had left there in the morning on going out to work.

DEFENSE.

JOSEPH BARESA, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I work for Charley Day in Roosevelt Street. I have worked for him about three years. I was out of work on the day in question. I was told by a friend that if I went to No. 38 Laight Street I could get work. I went there at about a quarter of 12 or 12 o'clock. I showed the address which I had on a card to a police officer and he directed me to No. 38 Laight Street. I went downstairs and was looking around to find the party whom I was directed to when this woman caught hold of me and began to scream. I ran down the stairs. A crowd gathered and I was arrested. I was not in the rooms of the complainant. I didn't work in there. I was not in company with any other man on that day.

Cross-examination:

Charley Day is a longshoreman. He is a boss and I have worked for him. He can be found at No. 27 Roosevelt Street. I expected to get work in No. 33 Laight Street and that is the only reason I had for going there.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.

Indictment filed Feb. 2-1892.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART III.

The People of the State of New York,

agains t

Frederick Taylor impeaded with John:
Beasley.

: Before
: Hon. James Fitzgerald
: and a Jury.

Indictment filed February 2, 1892.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree and receiving stolen goods.

New York, March 14, 1892.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Asst. District-Attorney James W. Osborn;

For the Defendant,

Maurice Myer, Esq.

THOMAS LAMBERT, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 7 Fifth Avenue in this city and have lived there seven or eight months. On or about the 9th. of February last I owned an overcoat. I paid $75 for it in London. That coat was stolen from me on the 9th. of February. I do not know who stole it. I found it afterwards in a pawn-shop and identified it as my property. I do not know the name of the pawn-shop. I am positive it was my coat. I do not say that the coat was worth $75 at the time it was stolen, but that is the amount I paid for it. It was a fur-lined coat.

GEORGE PARR, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at No. 105 Seventh Avenue in this city. I am a hall-boy by occupation. I had a conversation with John Beasley on the 9th. of February 1892. He asked me if I would write a note for him. He said he could not write himself. I wrote the note and then he asked me to take a walk with him. I took a walk with him along Fifth Avenue. He went into No. 7 Fifth Avenue and came out in a few moments with a coat. We went with the coat to the corner of Elesecker and Charles Streets. The defendant Taylor was standing on the corner and Beasley called him over./ Beasley and Taylor had a conversation. Then Taylor took the coat to a pawn-shop and pawned it. The note I wrote was to give Beasley some excuse for getting into the house on Fifth Avenue.

Cross-examination:

Taylor went to three or four pawn-shops but did not pawn the coat the first day. He did the following day. I do not know what the conversation was between Taylor and Beasley. The pawn-shops that he went to were closed up on the first day. Beasley told me what to put in the note and that is the reason I did it; simply to oblige him. I heard Beasley say to Taylor: "Will you pawn this coat for me?" and Taylor took the coat and went around to four or five different pawn-shops. I afterwards gave information which led to the arrest of Beasley and Taylor.

3.

DANIEL SULLIVAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I arrested the defendant Taylor about 10 o'clock on the evening of the 15th. of February. I brought him to the 15th. Precinct Station House. He was pointed out to me by George Parr, the witness who has sworn in this case. He was standing on the corner and, as I approached him, went in the front door of the liquor store and came out the side-door. I caught him and arrested him. I asked him if he knew anything about a coat being stolen from No. 7 Fifth Avenue and he said he knew nothing about it. Afterwards he says: "I have a pawn-ticket." I asked him if he had it with him, and he said no. He told me it was at his house No. 106 McDougal Street. We went to 106 McDougal Street, searched for the pawn-ticket. He found it in a trunk and he gave it to me. In the morning going to court he asked me what was the best thing for him to do in the case, and I told him that the best thing for him to do was to tell the truth. I told him he could not have had the pawn-ticket unless he had the coat.

DEFENSE.

JOHN BEASLEY, one of the defendants in this case, sworn, testified:

I am one of the defendants in this case. The co-defendant Taylor knew nothing about my going to No. 7 Fifth Avenue. I did direct him to pawn this coat. The reason I did not want to pawn it myself was that I had stolen it and I didn't want to be caught. The boy Parr was with me when I stole it. When I handed the coat to the defendant I said nothing about it being stolen and he had no knowledge on that subject.

Cross-examination:

I have known Taylor not quite a year. I have not been very intimate with him. I asked him to pawn this coat for the reason that I had stolen it and I thought he could dispose of it better than I could. I never told him that the coat was stolen.

FREDERICK TAYLOR, one of the defendants, sworn, testified:

I am a married man. I know Beasley three or four months. I recollect seeing the coat in question about the 11th. of February. I pawned it for $8. I gave the money to John Beasley. I didn't know that coat was stolen. I never was at No. 7 Fifth Avenue and I had no intimation that the coat was stolen. If I had known it was stolen I never would have touched it.

Cross-examination:

I was working in the month of December. I didn't try to escape from the officer as he has claimed. I have been a waiter at balls during the winter. I was standing on the corner of Eleecker Street and this little boy came up to me and says: "There is a man out there wants to see you". I distinctly asked him what the man wanted. He said he didn't know. I went over and there I found Beasley. He asked me to pawn the coat for him.

0094

I took the coat to two or three pawn-shops but they were closed. The next day Beasley came to me again with the coat and I took it to a pawn-shop and pawned it for $8 . I went with the officer to my house and found the pawn-ticket in a trunk and gave it to him.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of receiving stolen goods.

Indictment filed Feb. 2-1892.

in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a Three story brick buildingand which was occupied by deponent as a Stable and in which there was at the time a human being, by name

Peter Herrmann

were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly Breaking in a door leading from the Hall into said stable, and then afterwards breaking and removing the locks on the front door of said stable leading into the street - on the 3 day of February 1882 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:Ten Barrels of Flour - of the amount and value of Fifty five dollars ($55 <sup>00</sup>/<sub>100</sub>)the property of Frank Saucher, and in deponents care and custody and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

Peter Herrmann and Richard Blair (both now here) and while acting in concert with each other for the reasons following, to wit:

That deponent is informed by Officer Martin Sinnerly of the 20th Precinct Police that about the hour of 12.45 o'clock A.M. of the aforesaid date while patrolling his post on said street, he examined the doors of the aforesaid premises, and found the same securely locked and said premises securely closed and fastened and that between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock A.M.
of the aforesaid date said Officer saw the defendant

Blair, in the neighborhood of 27th Street and 10 Avenue with a horse attached to a merchandise wagon, and that said Blair on being discovered by said Officer, immediately drove away, and deponent is further informed by said Officer that about the hour of 2.45 o'clock A.M. of the aforesaid date, he discovered the front door of said stable open, and the said horse and wagon which he had previously seen in the possession of the defendant Blair, standing in front of deponent's place of business, and in said wagon was 8 Barrels of Flour, and two more barrels of flour lying on the sidewalk in front of the door, and that on said Officer's approach, two men jumped from said wagon, and ran into a hallway on the opposite side of the street, and that said Officer in company with Officer Henry P. Mitchell, then went into and examined a hallway on the opposite side of the street, and discovered the defendant Blair lying down in said hallway. The said Blair's clothes being covered with flour at the time, and that said Officer Fenner then went into said stable, where the gas <sup>was</sup> burning brightly, and said defendant Herrmann <sup>was</sup> lying down in a stall, and pretending to be asleep. Deponent therefore charges the defendants while acting in concert with each other in having committed a Burglary and asks that they may be held and dealt with as the Law may direct.

 Your Honor!
 Dear Sir!

In order to set my self to rights, I wish to demand a chance to plead to the charges of insurance. I have no money, as I was ill advised by the officer in whose place was, who stated to me that the case would be all right if I pleaded not guilty and let my lawyer attend to the rest, which certainly would not be fair for me to attend.

I turn on request your honor to set a date as soon as possible to give me a chance to plead and do not let me remain out here without being uninsured.

O. I have no mind. I want this to be the power you to obtain a better share, those of the day, but not ever as a power.

I am sure in such a case
 the power is not in the hands.
