Theresa Doerschuck - the Complainant
further testifies under oath on her
Cross Examination =

Ques. Did the defendant ask you to go into a liquor store to collect four dollars from her husband?

Ans. Yes!

Ques. What was your answer?

Ans. Yes all right - I then handed the defendant the dress. This was all the information I had
with her in regard to the dress.

Direct Examination

I went into the liquor store the defendant directed me - I did not find the person whose name
the defendant gave me - The name given me was Mr Wilson - I inquired for that name from a man behind the bar - And his answer was that he knew of no
man by the name of Wilson =
Theresa Doerschuck.

sight Thomas Doerrachinski - I saw her
for the first time last Saturday Evening at the Superior Saloon where I attend bar - she was there not more than three minutes - She asked me for a person by the name of Wilson - I told her to wait a few minutes and I would enquire for him - She did not wait
and left the Saloon - I know William Barrow (now present) by sight - I see him once in a while at the Saloon
I attend bar - He was not at the Saloon on the night in question - He was Enamored

Officer Maloney did not mention
to me the name of Wilson or Barrow.
There was a man who asked for Wilson

Bridget Bourse being duly examined before the undersigned, according to law, on the annexed charge: and being informed that it is her right to make a statement in relation to the charge against her; that the statement is designed to enable her if she see fit to answer the charge and explain the facts alleged against her that she is at liberty to waive making a statement, and that her waiver cannot be used against her on the trial,

Question. What is your name?

Answer.

Bridget Bourse

Question. How old are you?

Answer.

19 years.

Question. Where were you born?

Answer.

New York.

Question. Where do you live, and how long have you resided there?

Answer.

559 - 1st Avenue - I have lived there three months.

Question. What is your business or profession?

Answer.

I am a married woman.

Question. Give any explanation you may think proper of the circumstances appearing in the testimony against you, and state any facts which you think will tend to your exculpation?

Answer.

I asked this little girl to go into a begonia saloon. The complainant was away a half an hour and because she did not come I went home and took the dress to take care of - I am not guilty and had no intention of stealing the dress.

at the in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the daytime

the following property, viz:

Good and lawful moneys of the issue of the Government of the United States, consisting of National Bank bills, one being of the value of fifty dollars and two bills of the value of five dollars each all of the value of sixty dollars — $60.00

the property of deponent

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by John Brown (nowhere) and an other person whose name is unknown to deponent (but who was in company with said Brown) from the fact that on said day, deponent met said Brown and said unknown person near Castle Garden in said City, when deponent and said Brown got into a conversation, deponent told him said Brown that he would like to get the aforesaid described money changed into Hungarian and Austrian Money, said Brown said to deponent all right; here is my friend pointing to said unknown person not arrested, "give him your money and we will go and get it changed at his office"

Deponent gave said unknown person the money when they proceeded for about five or six blocks when the said unknown man went into a house and said Brown and deponent remained outside for about ten minutes, when he said Brown wanted to get away but deponent seized hold of him and would not let him get away until he was placed under arrest.

Deponent then for charges the said defendants with acting in collusion and concert with one another in the Larceny of said money and asks that they may be held and dealt with according to law.

Honored & Dear Sir

In the case
of John Brown to be sentenced, to day, for Grand Larceny, I took the liberty of writing a few days since.

I have learned
to day that the police
are apparently mistaken in saying that he was indicted for
a similar offence before.

He claims that he had been in the
city only one day when arrested.

I would, most respectfully, ask your Honor to delay sentence until I can write to his friends in the West and get some certificate of his character, and time of coming to this city. I have already written in his behalf, but have gained a few additional facts to day. One is that he was himself swindled of almost all of his money on his way to the city.

I hope your honor will excuse my speaking to you at an untimely moment this morning. I wished to secure time to look into his case here a little more.
