Dear Sir:-

I trust you will excuse the liberty I take in writing to you in behalf of an unfortunate young man that has been led astray by bad company. He comes from a poor but very respectable family, his father having died about six months ago and his sisten is now dieing from consumption has left his mother almost without any means of support. The young man has been in my employ off and on for the past seven years and I always found him trustworthy and honest in every way, but for a few years past he has been the companion and associate of bad company and as a consequence took to drink and I am led to believe while under the influence of liquor would do wrong.

I do not ask any sympathy for him, but his mother and sister who, I am sure if you were to see, you would pity. He has written to his mothermaking a solemn promise ~~hereafter~~ hereafter to shun bad company and saloons, and on that promise I will give him employment or see that he gets it.

I might state that I put him ~~me~~ to work one year ago with R. H. Macy & Co, he collected large amounts every day and as far as I can remember was strictly honest in all his transactions while in their employ.

The young man that I refer to was committed by your honor on April 10th, 1888, to one year imprisonment and $250.00 fine, under the name of John Redmond, and if you could or would only remit his fine when his term expires, you would I am sure, lift a great weight from his poor and broken hearted mother.

His mother's name is Mrs Hannah O'Brien of 304 E. 105th Street. The young man I presume gave a wrong name in order to save any disgrace upon his family. Trusting you ~~will~~ will consider the matter favorably, I remain

Very Respectfully,

Daniel McGuire being duly sworn says that he is a brother to the defendant above named and is now in the employ of the Building Department of the City of New York as a building inspector.

That the said defendant is now confined in the penitentiary of the County of New York under and in pursuance of a judg-ment of this Court granted in the month of April 1888 whereby he was sentenced to imprisonment in said penitenti-ary for the term of one year and to pay a fine of two hund-red and fifty dollars. That by reason of said defendant's good conduct his term under said sentence of one year ex-pired in the month of ^{February} ~~January~~ last and that ever since said time said defendant has remained in prison under the further punishment of two hundred and fifty dollars to the present time and has served one hundred and twenty five days and upwards thereof.

Deponent further says, that the mother and sister of defend-ant are dependant upon them for support and that his only income is that derived from his employment, that said defend-ant has no means whatsoever wherewith to pay said fine so imposed neither has deponent or any member of his family

0624

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

COMPTON, NEW YORK

That said defendant has never prior to the conviction afore-said ever committed any offence against the law of the State of New York as far as deponent has knowledge, or has he ever been arrested or convicted for any offence whatsoever that he is a boiler maker by occupation and that he can secure employment at his occupation immediately upon his discharge from imprisonment.

That owing to deponent's meagre earnings he is utterly un-able to properly support and maintain his said mother who has become aged and infirm and requires extraordinary care by reason of her infirmities, and that said defendant's en-tire family have suffered and still continue to suffer great hardship and at times the actual necessities of life by reason of said defendant's enforced absence from home and his employment.

Deponent therefore prays this Court, that in its discretion it may deem fit and proper to remit so much of said fine so imposed against defendant as is still pending against him and that said defendant may be discharged from imprison-ment thereunder.

And deponent will ever pray .

made by 4 or 5 persons through all localities where team was supposed to be - Also notified police station at 51 St near 3rd Av.

who sent out notice - Several parties reported seeing team at various points, but did not notice who was driving, supposed it was regular driver delivering ice as usual

During day wagon 87 was driven to depot of Knickerbocker ice Co. foot E 92 St, and weighmaster Wm Conklin there delivered to said wagon 1250 lbs ice paid charged same to National Ice Co. Entry is on his weigh book of July 26/87. and Knickerbocker Co has been paid for ice - Among other employ

Weather was hot, and team much tired - Team were kept in stable for 2 or 3 days. Both were "green" (new) horses, ^{then} recently purchased from S. Mehrbach, horse dealer. Each cost $240.00. Within ten days afterwards, both horses ~~had~~ died, although treated carefully by V. S. Chas. Burden of E. 52 St. A warrant was secured for arrest of Roach but he disappeared - Was not seen again until middle of Feb/88 when he was arrested by Officer Phillips of E. 51 St. Station - Detective Cuff of same station informed writer that M. Roach had been arrested many times - once for stealing a harness at another time for snatching $11. - from a laborer. Other officers of station spoke of him as a "loafer" and "thief"

He is reported as "hanging round" corner 47 St & 3 Av, where with his pal "Yaller" and others he waits for opportunities to steal -

Dear Sir

I take advantage of your courtesy to send you a brief summary of items of evidence in case of People vs M. Roach.

From my own observation I should class the defendant as one of the dangerous class. He has a violent temper, and becomes furious when he can indulge in liquor. His Father and grey haired Mother appear to be respectable people, but have hitherto shielded him from well deserved punishment. If you will subpoena Mr Cuff the detective of 57 St Station, I believe he can throw much light on the defendants character -

Respectfully
