Samuel Martin

City and County of New York:-

Edward Brady being duly sworn says:- I am a Police Officer of the 23rd Precinct. I am the officer who arrested Samuel Martin the defendant herein on the complaint of John H. Klenke who charged the defendant with Forging a check. I am not personally acquainted with the defendant Samuel Martin and knows nothing of his previous life and character except what information I have received. I am informed by Mr Davis the defendants employer that said defendant has been in his employ as waiter and footman for about seven or eight months and that he had found said defendant, always a good dutiful and punctual servant. The defendant has never, to my knowledge, been arrested before.

 John McBready
 Indictment for attempt at burglary in the third degree.
 Andrew Steven, sworn and examined. I am in the liquor business, 441 East 14th St. I was there on the 1st of July. I know the defendant for four or five weeks. I locked up my saloon about twelve o'clock. I do not sleep in the place; the policeman notified me that it had been broken open.
 I went there about seven o'clock in the morning I saw where there had been an ice pick drove into the door, between the door and the jam. I had over a hundred dollars worth of property in there.
 Cross Examined. This door leads to the back yard, it is a side door the corner house is a drug store. My customers go in and out of that back yard. I guess the ice pick is ten to twelve inches long with a round knob on the top. I closed the store myself about twelve o'clock. I did not examine the posts of the door closely.
 The marks that I saw in the morning looked like where this bar goes across as if it were bored with an ice pick - the hole was bored through. I found the door locked in the morning with a common lock.

Bernard D. Manning sworn. I am an officer of the 18th Precinct; this saloon 441 East Fourteenth St. is on my beat. I was on duty on that post the night of the 1st of July; it is one door from Avenue A. There is a back door that goes out of the complainant's store into the back yard and there is a hallway goes out into Fourteenth St. from the Avenue A. house. On the night of the 1st of July I arrested the defendant. I was going along about 1/2 trying my doors and when I came to the front door of this liquor store on Fourteenth St. I heard a kind of a funny sound in the store. I looked in. I went into the hallway in 441. The door was shut, I could not see anybody. I still heard the noise. I went around into the yard and going through Fourteenth St, the rear of this house on Avenue A. I tried the door and I ~~was~~ heard somebody working inside. I went and got another officer; the roundsmen and the sergeant came; and when we got in there the defendant was standing up against the door kind of bent over; he dropped this ice pick. This was half past one o'clock. I arrested him; he said it was not him was doing it. When I came back with the officer I heard the noise still at the same door where I found the defendant. He tried the ice pick and it went through the hole that was cut in the door; the sergeant made him put on his shoes; the shoes were standing on the side in the yard near this entrance to the Avenue A. house. The ice pick was up against the door in the corner. I found it right alongside of his foot. Explain what part of the door was dug out with this ice pick. Just about the middle of the door right over the lock about three or four feet up from the ground. There is an iron bar which goes across, it is right over the lock where it was all dug out, it was all dug out ready to lift out at the end of the bar. Did the defendant say anything further than he did not do it? No sir, that is all he said. Cross Examined. I know the defendant to see him around there about five months now off and on. I have been attached to the precinct two years and three months. I do not think it could have been more than five minutes from the time I first heard the noise until I arrested the defendant. The hall door is never closed in that house. I took the defendant to the Station.

house and searched him and found 73 cents on him and that was all. He stooped down in the corner when he was after working at the door; you could put the whole ice pick through the hole he had made. I said to the prisoner going to the station house that I never thought he would have done such a thing. The noise I heard was a kind of banging at the door. Some parties got into the store two or three times before, and that is why I went into the back yard. I don't know if the defendant ever been accused of breaking into this store. This was a moonlight morning. The shavings from the hole in the door were all fresh. I did not see any man around there but the prisoner Catherine McCready sworn and examined for the defence. I reside at 262 Avenue A between 15th and 16th sts. The defendant is my son and he supports me; he has resided with me since he was born; he will be 23 years old the 28th of next Nov. He was on a two weeks drunk; he left my house on the night of the first of July drunk at ten o'clock at night. Maggie McCready testified to the same effect. John McCready sworn. I was drunk on the night of the 1st of July and don't remember going into this yard I was taken from. I don't recollect having this ice pick in my hand. Officer S. Manning recalled. The prisoner was about half drunk, but he talked coherently.

0990

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty with a recommendation to mercy.

James McGowan.

{ Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

Monday, September 1.

Indictment for assault in the third degree.

Bernard Nevins, sworn and examined. What precinct are you connected with? Sixth precinct. Do you know the defendant, had you ever seen him before that night? Yes sir. On the night of the 16th of July was it? No, it was the 19th. Where were you on patrol that day? I was on Mott Street. In uniform? Yes, I was down at the corner of Mott and Bayard Streets and a gentleman told me there was a gang down the street, I went to the corner of Mott and Canal and found four or five young men drinking beer on the sidewalk, the defendant was there and he was in the act of pouring out a glass, he had a glass in the left hand and a two gallon measure full of beer in the right hand, I told them to disperse and to drink the beer in the house; McGowan said, you son of a b-- before I go I will give it to you and he hit me on the top of the head and drowned me with the beer; he did not cut my head but it put a lump on it and broke my hat. Cross Examined. Did you assault him afterwards? I did. Did not you shoot at him? After the gang took my stick away from me and after he hit me on the head with the measure. I charged the fellow by the name of James McCarthy of 148 Leonard Street with being in the crowd but not with striking me with a beer measure.

Niel W. Conner sworn. I am an officer of the Fourteenth precinct, I remember the night of the 19th of July but I know nothing of this occurrence. I was brought down here to testify to the prisoner's character.

John J. O'Keefe sworn and examined. I remember the night of the 19th of July last and saw this occurrence, it was on the northwest corner of Mott and Canal Streets, I saw the officer going to disperse these men who were drinking out of a measure, I should say there was about six or seven of them, the prisoner struck the officer with the measure, the officer did nothing except to tell them to go away from there. The officer did not assault them at all, but after he was struck the prisoner started to run and he shot at him; after the officer was struck with the beer measure his club was taken from him by the crowd, he had no club at the time he fired the pistol.

The Case for the Defence.

James McGowan sworn. I live in No. 10 Clarkson Street. On the night of July 19 I left my home at five minutes past eleven to go across town to borrow an accordion off a friend of mine, my mother asked me would I be long and I told her I would be back in an hour, I took the car at the corner of Clarkson and Varick Streets and rode to the corner of Canal and Broadway and got out, I walked up on the left hand side of Canal Street and when I got within twenty-five feet of Mott Street I met a friend who said, hello Jim are you working? I said yes, doing a little. He had a can in his hand and said he had been over getting a pint of beer and asked me to have some of it, I took the can and raised it to my head and the officer struck the can and knocked it out of my hand, I jumped back a little ways and I saw him raising his club to give it to me again and I ran, he made the strike but it missed me. When I got to the other side of Canal Street I ran around the wagon and the officer when I was about the car track pulled a revolver and shot me. He had the club in his hand all the time; he came afterward and stuck me on the head, the mark is here, I said for God's sake did not you do enough for nothing, I tried to walk and sprained my leg. A couple of officers came to his assistance and they telegraphed for an ambulance and took me; the next morning I was brought to the Police Court; the officer said I want you to let this thing drop right here, if you should go out of bail and go to the hospital I will be willing to pay your board; he said he had been under the influence of liquor during the early part of the evening and that accounted for it; I was shot in the back and had to go to the hospital and have been under treatment since the 19th of July, the ball passed through and it splintered the bone.

Thomas J. Gilroy sworn and examined by Mr Vincent. I know the defendant by sight and I was two or three feet behind the officer when this thing occurred; the officer had ordered the young men and girls off the wagon, he told them politely to go away but the prisoner threw the glass and measure at the officer's head; he had several friends there who took the officer's stick and had thrown it about half a block away. I went to look for it and a small boy picked it up and handed it to me about half a block away. Several of the prisoner's friends followed me and I turned back again to the Station House and got the assistance of a roundsman who escorted me ten blocks to my house.

Bernard Nevins recalled. I heard the defendant's testimony; there is not a word of truth in it.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The defendant was sent to the penitentiary for one year.
