John Brogan being duly sworn says I am the defendant above named, I am indicted for Robbery in the First Degree and am wholly innocent of said charge

That I have two witnesses one named James Williams and Richard Wagner who were present at the time of the alleged Robbery and saw me there during said time and saw, and heard all that took place on that occasion and who can prove that I did not participate in or act in concert with any person in or about the commission of said Robbery

That said witnesses are necessary and material to the defense herein and without them I am unable to proceed to trial and as I am advised by my said counsel that it would be unsafe for me to proceed to trial without the testimony of said witnesses.

That as I am informed by Bernard F. Brogan that the attendance of the witnesses can be secured by the 18th day of September 1883.

Brogan being duly sworn says that he is a brother of John Brogan the defendant above-named, that on the 8th day of September 1883 deponent received two subpoenas to serve in the above action for defendant. One to serve upon James Williams who resided at corner of Ponce and Mulberry Street in the City of New York. That ^{on Sept 8th 1883} deponent ascertained from one Sullivan the proprietor of the boarding house where said Williams resided, that said Williams was at Sea Cliff, engaged at one of the Hotels there and would not return to the City until September 18th 1883 and that said Williams would then remain permanently in the City.

That on the 8th day of September 1883 deponent also went to number 161 West Street in the City of New York the residence of Richard Wagner the remaining witness and ascertain that said Wagner resided there no longer but had changed his residence, and the people at said 161 West Street could not inform deponent where said Wagner had removed to; but deponent is confident that he will be able to ascertain the residence and whereabouts of said Wagner in four or five days -

Honorable Sir:
 Your attention is respectfully called to the case of John Brogan; one of two men. that robbed a citizen of this ward, on the evening of November the 3d. 1882. in 70th st. near 3d Avenue. The articles stolen were a diamond & scarf. Brogan's companion in the crime, Richard Walton, took a plea, and was sent to prison for five (5) years by Judge Cowing. - But strange to say, up to this date Brogan has not been brought to justice. - He is on bail, and some people in this ward seem (judging from what they say about the matter) to think that he will not be brought to trial. - Let us see.

One of many citizens that wear jewels & are watching this case.

See to it, that you do not forfeit your upright name, for honesty and square dealing.
 I have every respect and confidence in you, and would give you my name were it not for good reasons.

being duly sworn, deposes and saith, that on the 3rd

day of

November

1887, at the

19

Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, from the person of deponent, by force and violence, without his consent and against his will, the following property, viz:

One diamond Ear Ring

of the value of the property of deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, by force and violence as aforesaid, by

Richard Walton and John Brogan,

(both now present); from the fact that previous to said robbery deponent had said diamond Ear Ring in deponent's scarf which was then worn on the person of deponent and while deponent was in the act of getting off the rear platform of a 3rd Avenue Car at the corner of 70th Street, the said Walton put his arm across deponent's throat and attempted to take said diamond Ring from deponent's scarf but did not then succeed in getting it from deponent and said John Brogan was then and there in company with said Walton and acting in collusion with him Walton and said Walton and Brogan then followed deponent from said Car through 70th Street and towards 2nd Avenue, when said Walton came up to deponent and seized hold of deponent by the throat and at the same time seized hold of said diamond Ring and tore the scarf and Ring from deponent.

 said Walton and said to him do not strike my husband. he Walton then said I want that (meaning the diamond ring) and I am going to have it and at the same time the said Walton struck my wife a blow on the chest, the said Brogan was then and there in company with and acting in concert and collusion with him said Walton defendant was subsequently informed by Officer McNameara that the said Brogan had informed him McNameara where the said diamond ring could be found and that he McNameara found said ring at the corner of Avenue & 59th Street, where he said Brogan had dropped when McNameara arrested him
