of No. 24 Broad Street, aged 27 years, occupation Broker being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 12th day of July 1897 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States of the amount and value of Fifty one $\frac{14}{100}$ Dollars the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Albert Toby, for the following reasons, to wit:

Deponent engaged defendant as as defendant is informed by the Paying teller of said bank that he cashed said draft, and gave said money to defendant.

Wherefore, defendant charges defendant, with appropriating said money to his own use, and withholding the same, and denying to defendant the benefit and use thereof, and prays that he be apprehended and dealt with as the law directs.

Brother Hartmann;

There is in your Office the case of the People vs. Frederick Trumper, a case of receiving stolen goods which case has been brought to my attention by one of my clients, and I have examined the case and am of the opinion that the defendant, Trumper is not guilty. He bought the goods regularly from an agent apparently, or salesman, who called at his place at regular intervals and sold him pipes at the then market prices, It turned out afterwards that this agent was a workman in a pipe factory who took these pipes and sold them to the defendant. The defendant after having bought the goods from this thief, displayed the goods openly in his windows and sold them regularly in the course of business. He bears an excellent reputation and has lived in this one house and has been doing business there for upwards of 15 years, if I remember correctly. He is deserving of consideration, and I should like said case disposed of, which in my opinion will be in the form of a recommendation for a dismissal of the complaint, or a milder form of disposition such as we were wont to indulge in at your Office. Will you kindly take the trouble and investigate the case? The real thief in this case whose name I have forgotten, pleaded guilty and was sentenced some time ago.
