PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Jacob. Jacobson }

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendants and myself are residents in the same house No. 138. Division St. where we have lived for the past year. we have been the best of friends until this occurrence it started with my mother and his' wife, about some misunderstanding and family affairs, the alleged assault was committed during a quarrel in the hall way and since that time I have forgiven him, for every thing that occurred, my injuries are very slight and since it happened I am all well, the defendant is the only support of his mother she is a very old woman and I desire to withdraw this complaint and hope he will be discharged.

that on the 26 day of August 1893, at the City of New York, in the County of New York

Barry Jarvis, (now here) did unlawfully, misfully and feloniously marry one Ethel Louisa Clark while having a wife living without having divorced in violation of Section 298 of the Penal Code of the State of New York for the following reasons. That on the 21st day of February 1891 the defendant was married to one Grace Mary Minger, by Rev R. J. McNeill a clergyman of 164 East 36 Street in the City of New York and a record of the said marriage copied from the Health Department records and certified by the Chief Clerk of the said Department is hereto annexed. That defendant is informed by Ethel Louisa Clark, that on the said 26th day of August 1893 the defendant Barry Jarvis did bring her, Ethel, to Milton S. Littlefield a clergyman residing at 341 West 56 Street and did represent to the said clergyman that he had been married and had been divorced, and in these representations the ceremony was thereupon performed and the defendant did then and there commit the crime of bigamy in violation of the section aforesaid. Wherefore defendant prays that the defendant be dealt with according to law.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS, PART III.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF

NEW YORK

VS

FRANK JIOCIPINI.

BEFORE

HON. FREDRICK SMYTH

AND A JURY.

INDICTMENT FILED SEPT. 12th, 1893, INDICTED FOR ASSAULT IN
THE FIRST DEGREE.

New York, September 18th, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S.

FOR THE PEOPLE, ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY, S. J. O'HARE.

FOR THE DEFENDANT, MR. C. J. O'CALLAGHAN.

WILLIAM H. McKABE, a witness for the people,
sworn, testified:

I live at No. 509 Ninth Ave. I was on Third Ave., on the night of the 21st of August last; I saw the defendant there; I was walking peacefully down Third Ave., on my way home from my Sister's house, when this Italian came up to me and caught me by the sleeve; he put his hand in his left-hand pocket and took out a knife or some sharp instrument and slashed me with it; my face bled, I did not know I was hurt until some people came around and told me so; I had never seen this man before, never had any quarrel with him and do not know any reason in the world why he should have attacked me in the street; I took my handkerchief out and it was all covered with blood. A police officer came, the man was arrested and I made a charge against him in the Police Court the next morning. He just gave me one slash in the neck with some sharp instrument.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

My place of business is at 322 East 31st St. I have lived in this City for a number of years; I never saw this man before in my life, I never had any trouble with him, I do not understand his language and had no conversation with him whatever. He had no cause or provocation for striking me in the manner in which he did.

MARY BEHRENS, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I live at 609 Second Ave., in this City. I am working in a candy store at that number. I saw the defendant now at the bar on the night of the 2nd of August last. I was on Third Avenue between 32nd and 33rd streets a short time after 12 o'clock; I was just taking a walk with a friend of mine; when I got between 32nd and 33rd Streets, the defendant came up in back of me and scratched me with a knife; I could not say exactly what it was; I did not see him until he was a couple of steps behind me; he cut me right on this side, the mark of it is there yet and I have no objection to showing it to the Court and Jury. I never saw this man before, I never had any difficulty with him and I do not know why he should have struck me in the manner in which he did.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

I never had any trouble with this man before. I never saw him before in my life; he just simply came behind me and gave me a jab with his knife. I had done nothing to him whatever.

JOHN McCULLOUGH, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I have seen the last two witnesses who were upon the stand. I saw them upon the night of the 2nd of August last and they made complaint to me that the defendant had stabbed them. I met the defendant on Third Avenue between 32nd and 33rd St. I saw a crowd gathering, I ran and was informed that this defendant had cut two people; I placed him under arrest. I brought him back and he was identified by both William McKabe and the woman Behrens. The woman came and told me that she had been cut in the neck. The man McKabe was bleeding and he told me that he had been cut. I placed the defendant under arrest and took him to the station-house; I could not find any knife on him at the time; when I got him to the station-house I searched him and found nothing whatever upon him; I went back afterwards and I found the knife which I now produce on 32nd Street. None of the witnesses could identify the knife as the one which the defendant had used.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

This man cannot speak any English and therefore I had no conversation with him at all. When I showed him the knife in the station-house he made an effort to get possession of it; he did not say whether it was his knife or not. I did not give it to him.

D E F E N S E.

FRANK JIOCIPINI, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I work in First Avenue near 68th Street, I don't know the number. The name of the man I work for is John Itiola. He is a barber. On the night in question I was up town, I believe, on Third Avenue. I was under the influence of liquor. These people who are strangers to me, came up and commenced to push and to hit me; I did not know what to make out of it; that is all I remember. The next morning I found myself in prison and that is all I know about it.

about it. I do not remember stabbing any of these people. I never was arrested before in my life. The knife which is now produced I recognise as my knife and when the officer showed it to me in the station-house I wanted to get possession of it. I have worked for a barber for some time but have never cut anybody before. I do not know any reason why I should have cut any of these people as they never did anything to me. I have no recollection whatever of meeting these people or of cutting them as they have stated.

The Jury returned a verdict convicting the defendant of the crime of assault in the second degree.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace
OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Frank Jirocopius

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse in his right hand then and there had and held, the same being a weapon and an instrument likely to produce grievous bodily harm, then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, cut, stab and wound, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THIRD COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Frank Giocopius

of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said

Frank Giocopius

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: On the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the said May Behrens in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and he the said with a certain sharp instrument to the Grand jury aforesaid unknown which he the said Frank Giocopius

in his right hand then and there had and held, in and upon the neck of he the said May Behrens then and there feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully strike, beat, stab, cut, ~~harm~~ and wound, and did then and there and by the means aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully and wrongfully inflict grievous bodily harm upon the said against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

INDICTMENT FILED SEPTEMBER 14th, 1893, INDICTED FOR GRAND LARCENY IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

New York, September 19th, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S.

FOR THE PEOPLE, ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY, S.J. O'HARE,
FOR THE DEFENDANT, MR. HUGH COLEMAN.

HELEN A. ELY, a witness for the people, sworn,
testified:

I live at No. 102 West 71st Street, with my mother-in-law. On the 10th of August last, I lost personal property consisting of an under-skirt and other ladies' clothing. I had also twenty-five yards of white silk, with a brocaded flower in it, twelve and a half yards of black silk, with a red stripe in it. I also had some under-clothing which was missing. The value of the property which was taken from my premises altogether was about $350.00. I went to the country about the 20th day of July. Some of these articles were in my trunk at the time I left on the 20th of July. The trunk was in the front basement of the house. This defendant Annie Johnson was in my employ at that time as a domestic servant. I returned from the country on the 29th of August. When I returned from the country I did not find any of the articles that I have mentioned here. They were missing.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

There were three servants in the house altogether. This defendant was in my employ about six months previous to the time I went away into the country. I am positive that the articles I have mentioned were in my trunk.

FRANK H. EVANHOE, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I am a detective officer attached to police Head-quarters in this city. I was notified that a crime had been committed, and some property taken from this complainant. In consequence of information I received, I went to the residence of this defendant, and arrested her. I found her at her house, 247 West 32nd Street on the 3rd of September. They had been looking for her for a few days. When I found out her house I went up-stairs and tried the door. The door was open, so I went in and lit the light, and looked around. I saw a skirt lying in a basket. There was nobody there, so I took it with me. That skirt was afterwards identified by Mrs. Ely, as part of her property which she left in her trunk at the time she went away to the country.

I took it around to Mrs. Ely's house and she identified it. I charged the defendant with having stolen it, and she at first denied that she had ever lived with Mrs. Ely. I asked her about the other articles, and she said she never knew anything about them. Then I asked her about that skirt, and she said that a friend of her's had left it there; that it did not belong to her. We locked her up. We searched her house, and we found a roll of twenty-five yards of silk. She said that that silk had been in her house for some time. We searched all the pawn-shops, but were unable to locate any more of the goods. Officer Vallely was with me in this search.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I found but one article in this woman's house. I cannot remember the day of the month exactly, when she was arrested. I did not have much conversation with her.

JAMES F. VALLELY, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:

I made the arrest of this defendant in connection with Officer Evanhoe, at 243 West 32nd Street. Mr. Evanhoe said, "Come up, and we will see this woman. We went to the house 243 West 32nd Street, and went up a stoop, into a back room. We didn't find anybody but the defendant, and we said to her, "What became of the skirt that was lying on the table last night?" She said, "What skirt?" and I said, "That fancy skirt that was embroidered." She said she didn't know where it was, at first, and finally Mr. Evanhoe went over to a drawer and pulled out a piece of goods. That piece of goods was afterwards identified by Mrs. Ely as part of the property which was in her trunk when she went away to the country. When the defendant found we had discovered this much property, she says, "You give me five minutes time, and I will go and get that skirt for you, but I want to go alone." She went out, and Mr. Evanhoe went out after her. In about five minutes she came back, with a parcel under her jacket, pulled it out, and in it was a skirt which Mrs. Ely identified subsequently. We asked her where the rest of the property was that was taken, and she said that she left some of the things on her bureau, but they were gone. They were stolen out of her house. She said one package contained twenty-five yards of silk. We searched the pawn-shops, but were unable to locate anything until we got to Michael Eanan's pawn-shop, and there we found some of the articles which Mrs. Ely identified.

D E F E N S E.

ANNIE JOHNSON, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am a married lady, but I am not now living with my husband. I was living out with Mrs. Ely, as she has stated. She went away to the country. There was another girl living there, and she asked me if I wanted some articles. She gave me several of these articles, including a piece of silk, and I took them to my house and kept them. I had no intention of stealing anything, as I believed that this girl had a right to give me the articles which she did. As soon as the officers came to my house, I told them all I knew about the matter, and I told them if they would wait, I would go out and get a skirt, which they said I had. I never denied having these articles, nor did I ever deny that I worked for Mrs. Ely. I have never been arrested before in my life, and I have always worked for my living. My husband does not support me, so I am compelled to work out. I did not steal any articles from Mrs. Ely's trunk, nor did I have any part or lot in stealing them.

The Jury returned a verdict, convicting the defendant of the crime of receiving stolen goods.
