Indictment filed August 13, 1891.

Indicted for robbery in the first degree.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,

Asst. District-Attorney Henry E.R. Stapler;

For the Defendant,

Mr. Robert H. Racey.

New York, September 15, 1891.

GIOVANNI MAGNOTTI LOUMANO, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I have a bakery at No. 141 Mulberry Street. I sold that bakery last month about the first part. The man who bought the bakery took possession of it on the first of the month. His name was Papino. I got the sum of $135 for the bakery on the same day. I put the money in my pocket. On Sunday the 9th. of August I had $200 in money in my pocket and a gold watch and chain. The value of the gold watch and chain was $65. I met the defendant at No. 190 Mulberry Street in the restaurant. The boss of the restaurant asked me "What have you done with your bakery?" and I answered him that I had sold my bakery. The defendant was present at this time and when he heard this statement from me he turned to me and told me: "If I can get you a bakery in the country, out of town, will you buy it?" I told him I would see about it, and he said: "If you think about it, to-morrow we will go and speak to the owner and will try and buy this bakery out of town." He left me and we were to meet the next morning at 8 o'clock. The following morning at 8 o'clock I met him in the same restaurant and we went from there to a house in 7th. Street. On 7th. Street we entered into a saloon on the corner and we had some drinks. We each had a glass of soda water and we also entered into a cigar store and we bought a package of cigarettes each. He says: "Now, let us go and see this party on 7th. Street". We went through the yard and then into a basement, and while we were there two other people came in. The house was No. 193 Seventh Street. The prisoner at the bar, after we all got into this house, took out a revolver and put it against my neck and one of the other men opened a razor and put it on the other side of my neck, and the third one put his hands in my pocket and rifled me. This man took the watch and chain and $200. I had my watch in my vest pocket and the money was in the inside pocket of my vest on the right hand side. After the men had taken the money from me in the manner I have stated, all three of them ran away. I ran outside also and I could scarcely speak I was so much frightened.

3.

I went away. That same evening I met the prisoner at the bar at No. 193 Mulberry Street and had him arrested. When we were at the Station House the defendant told me to go to Salvatori Longo at 195 Mulberry Street and to Francesco Murri at No. 195 Mulberry Street and they would return me the money and the watch and chain. When I went to the place indicated by him and claimed my property I was turned out of the place. When the defendant put the pistol to my neck he said: "Don't move, otherwise we will kill you". When the man put his hand in my pocket to take my money I could not make any resistance, because I was already half dead. I was frightened by seeing the revolver and the pistol.

Cross-examination:

- Q What time of the morning was this when you were in this cellar or basement? A It was about nine o'clock.
- Q Just describe to the Jury what you mean by a basement. Did you go downstairs? A Yes, sir.
- Q How many steps? A I am not sure if there were two or three.
- Q Was it a cellar, or was it the hallway of the house?
A There was the stairs leading to the hallway upstairs, and this is where the door was, underneath those steps.
- Q Was it a private house or a tenement house? A I don't know who lived in the house.
- Q Was it a tall house? A It was a large house.

4.

- Q Were there windows facing the street ? A They faced the yard.
- Q Do you mean the street or the yard? A No, sir; it was not the street but inside on the yard.
- Q You went into a hallway first ? A It was from the street that we went through.
- Q They went through a hallway or what ? A Through an alley-way.
- Q Did you notice any doors leading into rooms, as you went through that alley-way? A There were doors, but they were closed.
- Q How far were you inside from the yard in this passage-way? A A few steps.
- Q How did you come to get into this place with this defendant ? A He told me to go there to meet this person from whom I wanted to buy the bakery out of town.
- Q Did he tell you the name of this person? A No, sir.
- Q How long were you in this passage-way? A As soon as I was inside they caught hold of me.
- Q Two persons beside the defendant ? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did you see the defendant take the pistol out of his pocket? A Certainly, because he immediately put it near my throat.
- Q Did you have the defendant arrested the first time you saw him after this ? A No, sir. I did not have him arrested at that time, because he promised to give me back my things and wanted me to see him at half past seven that night.

Q Didn't you go down to Mr. Pinoli's restaurant at about 12 o'clock? A It was about twelve o'clock, when he told me he would give me back the watch and chain and money.

Q There was a woman there, wasn't there? A No, sir.

Q Didn't you make a statement to the defendant when you saw him there at 12 o'clock that somebody had robbed you of your money and your watch and chain up in 7th. St.?

A No, sir.

Q Didn't he state to you then who were the persons that robbed you? A No, sir; that is not true.

Q Didn't he state to you that he would try and get you back your watch and chain and your money? A No, sir.

Q Didn't you know at the time you were being robbed that the Station House was only two or three doors away?

A No, sir.

Q When did you go to the Station House? A That night. I found the defendant in Mott Street and I asked him if he had my things with him. He said no, and I called an officer. I asked a friend of mine who was near by to go and get me an officer.

Q Did he have any pistol with him then? A He left his things with the owner of the restaurant.

Q Did you see this man searched in the Station House?

A Yes, sir.

Q Was there any pistol found on him at that time? A No, sir.

6.

- Q Did he have your watch and chain then? A No, sir.
- Q Did he have any money? A Only three or four dollars.
- Q What were the words he used when he placed this revolver at your neck? A He pulled his revolver and says: "Don't move" and then the other two men caught me from behind.
- Q You didn't cry out or make any noise at all? A No, sir; I was afraid of them killing me when I saw the revolver.
- Q Did the defendant put his hands on you at all? A One hand was on my shoulder and the other hand was holding the revolver at my throat.

NEIL W. CONNOR, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police of this city, assigned to duty in the 10th. Precinct. I saw the complainant on the 10th. of August last in the Station House of our precinct. On his complaint I arrested the defendant at No. 192 Mulberry Street at about 8 o'clock in the evening. The complainant told me that he had been assaulted and robbed of $200 in money, a gold chain and a silver watch. At the Station House the prisoner denied having any connection with the matter. I searched the defendant and found no pistol on him.

DANIEL J. HOGAN, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a Police Officer attached to the 10th. Precinct. At half past 8 o'clock on the evening of August 10 I came into the Station House and the Sergeant told me there was a prisoner laid up for robbery, and that the complainant was sitting in the back room and had stated that he got robbed some place in the neighborhood of 8th. Street. I took the complainant with me to 8th. Street and Second Avenue and he told me it was down at First Avenue. I then took him to First Avenue and he took me into a cigar store and he said that the defendant and himself had been in there and bought a box of cigarettes. From there I took him to the corner of 1st. Ave. and 7th. St. and he said he had a drink in there with the defendant. From there I went with him to No. 98 East 7th. Street, which is a tenement house with a high stoop. He took me under the stoop two steps down and into a basement or hallway leading into the yard and he told me that was where he was robbed by the defendant. I didn't search the premises for a revolver.

JOHN FALVELLA, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am an interpreter connected with the Tombs Police Court. I saw the prisoner and the complainant at the Tombs about the 11th. of August last. I was called upon to interpret the complaint made by the complainant to the defendant. I did so word by word. His answer was

"not guilty". Then he told the complainant that if the complainant would not prosecute the case, when he got out he could go to a man by the name of Salvatori, I don't know his last name, and get his goods and things back.

Cross-examination:

This conversation took place in front of the Judge's desk in the Tombs Police Court. I am positive that I have correctly stated the words used by the defendant in speaking to the complainant. The defendant said "not guilty" in answer to the charge, and afterwards turned to the complainant and said if he would not prosecute him that he could get his goods and property by going to Salvatori when he got discharged, but he did not mention the last name at the time.

PASQUALI STINGONI, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a bar-tender employed at No. 44 Mulberry Street. I know the defendant John Alberti. I had a conversation with him in the court room at the Tombs on the 11th. of August. He told me "Go and find Salvatori Longo and let him come here to arrange this business". That is all I know about the case. I went and got Salvatori Longo to see if he would come and make some arrangement. Salvatori Longo went to the Tombs, but I did not hear the conversation that took place.

Cross-examination:

Q Did you go to see Salvatori Longo? A Yes, sir.

Q And he denied that he knew anything about it, didn't he ?

A Yes, sir. Salvatori declared himself independent.

The prisoner withdrew his plea of "not guilty" and pleaded guilty to the crime of "Robbery in the second degree".
