On November 11 she attended a meeting of the Salvation Army at 34th Street and 7th Avenue, and there she met the prisoner who asked her to have a walk with him. When they went out on the street the prisoner told her he was going down to his stable in West 36 Street to feed his horse. Witness accompanied the prisoner there and when they reached the place he asked her to come inside. When they had gone inside he took hold of her and asked her to "do it," and when she refused he said it was all right and promised to marry her, and then he had sexual intercourse with her. She returned to
