As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The defendant is a married man having his wife and two young children aged five and three years dependent upon him. His character was good, and I am informed he was tempted to run off property on goods while under the influence of drink. True restitution was made, and <sup>the</sup> complaint having grown out of defendant's business relations with us we do not in view of the circumstances above mentioned desire to be the cause of separation <sup>from</sup> this defendant from his dependent family.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County
of New York, ss:

of No. 254 W. 127th Street, aged 61 years, occupation Surgeon & Physician being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 25th day of August 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One gold watch and one gold watch chain together of the value of two hundred and fifty dollars.

the property of Sarah A. Playford. deponent's wife and in deponent's care and custody.

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Edward Kellaker (nowhere) from the fact that at about the hour of 6 o'clock P.M. said date this deponent delivered several trunks to deponent's home at said address.

and immediately after he left deponent missed said property from a bureau in a bed room in said premises where deponent had seen said property just before the defendant came in. deponent is informed by Officer Joseph Sullivan that when he arrested this defendant he the defendant had a gold watch and chain in his possession. deponent further says that he has seen seen the watch and chain found by the officer in the defendant's possession and fully identified said property as the property of his wife and as the property mentioned in this affidavit.

Wherefore defendant charges this defendant with feloniously taking stealing and carrying away said property.

about nine dollar. $ 9—the property of Deponent

carried away by Mary Kelly (now here)

Deponent had the said money in a pocketbook in a leather satchel carried on deponent's arm and deponent was at the perfumery counter in Mass store in West 70th street corner of 6th Avenue, and deponent is informed by Mary Plunkett now here, that she saw the defendant open deponent's satchel and take out the said property and the defendant was arrested with said stolen property occupation Superintendent being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 30 day of August 1892 at the City of

New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

A quantity of black silk, of the value of Thirty Dollars $30<sup>00</sup>/<sub>100</sub> the property of Bloomington Brothers, by whom deponent is employed as Superintendent

(Now here) from the fact, that defendant was in the employ of the above-named firm on said date as a porter; that on said date, deponent missed said property and on having the defendant arrested was informed by Officer John Long of the 25th Precinct Police, that he found a quantity of goods in the home of the defendant at No. 215 East 29 Street, a portion of which deponent identifies as the above-named missing property, and which the defendant admits having stolen from the said firm. Therefore deponent accuses defendant of having stolen said property and prays that he may be dealt into as the law directs.
