Julius Adams being duly sworn says I am defendant herein, am a married man, a tailor by trade and reside at No 100 Rivington Street in the City of New York, on or about February 20th 1886. I obtained from Messrs Sutton & Rhodes Clothiers doing business between Broadway and Beeth Street the materials for four coats to make up, the value of said materials being as I am informed and believe about $30 dollars; I made up one of said coats and having no money to pay my rent or with which to buy food for my wife, I pawned it for the sum of Five Dollars and with the money paid my rent for the week (three Dollars) and bought food with the balance. I did not intend to steal the coat but did intend to redeem it with money that I had within for and was daily expecting to receive from my nephew Andrew Adams of ~~Atlanta~~ Augusta Ga; I did thereafter receive from him the sum of Twenty Dollars before doing so however I was arrested and on the 1st day of March 1886. After an examination before Police Justice Smith at the Lomb Police ^{Court}, held for Trial upon the charge of Grand Larceny. The Coat-which I pawned was not of the value of more than sixteen dollars. I never parted with the possession or disposed of the remainder of said property and never intended so to and ~~the~~ ^{it} was in my possession at the time of my arrest and ~~at~~ now together with said Coat in the possession of said Dutton and Rhodes the owners thereof.

I am now ready and willing to reimburse said Dutton & Rhodes for all losses thatthey have sustained, I have never before in my life been arrested for anything or charged with the commission of any crime whatever, I have always heretofore borne a good character and am informed and believe that-the complainants are ready and willing to withdraw the charge made vs.

William Adrian.

Court of General Sessions, Part 1.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

March 9, 1896.

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

Joseph Geiger sworn and examined, testified: I live 24 Forseith Street and lived there on the 27th of February. I only saw the defendant when he lived for three days in the house, I saw him the day when I missed the things, I saw him in the morning sleeping on the bed in 24 Forseith Street, he slept in the room next to me but he had to go through my room to get out into the hall. I missed on that day pants and vest, a gold pin, two neckties, an umbrella, two clocks, a watch and chain, shirts, undershirts and collars and handkerchieves, all of the value of forty dollars and all my property; it was locked up in the trunk when I left in my room, I saw it there a half past six in the morning, he was lying on the bed and I supposed him to be asleep when I left, I don't know what he did afterward, my trunk was standing right next to his door, I came home in the evening about five minutes past six o'clock and when I came in I saw the hasp was broken away from the lock on the trunk and all these things which I enumerated before were missing, everything was scattered around and the best things were picked up; when I left the bureau was locked also and when I came home it was open, my linen was taken out of the bureau; the defendant hired the room on Sunday but he did not come Sunday, he came Monday evening and slept there. During these few days I had never spoke to him, he never came home, I was always in bed when he came, he used to come about three o'clock in the morning. I have not seen my property since only the box that the neckties were in and a white linen coat which was lying on his bed when I came home, the linen coat had been locked up in the trunk and the box with the neckties was in the bureau, I had not seen the defendant until he was arrested.

The Interpreter said that the witness wanted to tell of a quarrel he had on the Friday night before with two other men that slept there.

Cross Examined. I am a cabinet maker and lived about a year at 24 Forsyth Street, John Table keeps the house, he and his wife are witnesses here. I saw the jewelry and clothing in the morning before I left, Saturday morning, the 27th of February; the gold pin was made to order for two dollars and a half, I had it about four weeks the chain on the watch was a hair chain worth four dollars and the watch was worth to me five dollars, it might not have been worth more than three dollars, I paid four dollars for the chain and had it about six months. I paid for the pants and vest and braces fifteen dollars, I only wore them a couple of times, I had them for about two or three months, I cannot swear that they were worth fifteen dollars.

The only persons who had a key to my room were the landlord, the defendant and myself, I do not know whether the other fellow had a key or not; the two alarm clocks were worth $1.50 each, the umbrella was a fine alpaca and was worth $2.50, I think he took eight or nine handkerchieves worth about fifteen cents each and about a dozen collars and three or four pair of cuffs worth fifteen cents a piece and a pair of gloves worth $1.50. I did not see the defendant take these things but I believe nobody else could get in the room. I lost two pair of drawers worth fifty cents a piece, I paid four dollars for the linen coat, I paid one dollar for one necktie and seventy-five cents for the other.

John A. Table sworn and examined. I live at 24 Torseith Street and have lived there for the past nineteen years, I let out furnished rooms, Mr Geiger had a room from me and the defendant had a room for a couple of days, he hired it on the 21st of February and was in the house three nights, the defendant had a bed-room and in order to get to it he had to pass through the large room occupied by Geiger, I handed the defendant the two keys the Sunday when he hired the room, one key was for the front of the house and the other key was for Geiger's room, it was a spring lock. I did not see the defendant on the 27th of February, I only saw his clothes about seven o'clock, he was in bed, I was looking through the window, I did not watch him after that, I was walking through the hall of the house sweeping and I had to go into the basement about ten minutes, then when I got back the door was open, I was looking in the bureau and two alarm clocks were gone, then I called my wife down and she said the trunk was broken, we found the box in the defendant's bed, I saw the defendant in the Station House the same evening when we got him arrested.

Cross Examined. Another man slept in the small room, he left the room and he came to me about three o'clock at night, he had to go to work in the morning, he asked me if I had not another place, he said these fellows were thieves, he had nothing in the room but a clock and he took the clock to a room. There was nobody in the room but the prisoner; in the morning Joseph Geiger left and my wife talked to him; there were no other parties that had to go through that big room to get to the bed-room; there were other lodgers in the house, some left at four, and some at five o'clock in the morning. There is one man who goes to work at four in the morning who is a cook in a restaurant and there was another old man who had to go at five or half past and most of them go between six and half past six o'clock, except one man who had a sore hand, he staid in the house till ten, he had a front attic room, at that time we had about twelve or fourteen lodgers; there are only four rooms in the extension and these others lived in the front of the house on the top floor, there is a separate entrance through the yard. I did not see these articles taken, only ten minutes afterward I saw the things were missing in the room, there was nobody else but the defendant in the room.

Regina Fatic sworn. I live at 24 Forseith Street and am the wife of the last witness, the defendant hired a room on Sunday and he only slept there two or three times, on this morning in question my husband called me, I came down and the door was open and the things were gone, I found on the defendant's bed an empty box and a white coat, the trunk was broken open and the bureau drawers were all open, I had no trust in this man and I watched him, it was about eight o'clock when I went into Geiger's room, we had twelve or fourteen lodgers, most of them had gone away, there was one or two of them staying home.

06 16

Frank Wilson sworn and examined. I am an officer of the 10th precinct and arrested the defendant on the 27th of February in Eldridge Street near Canal about nine o'clock in the evening, he was standing in front of a lager beer saloon on the sidewalk.

William Adirun sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. I go to work at night on a German newspaper, I look for work in the day, that Friday and Saturday night I was drunk; when I came in Forseith Street a man whom I know said to me, you got some money? I says, no sir, I do not work now. He says I can't sleep on the street, I have got no money, will you take with me in your room? I said, yes I will do that, I took him in my room and in the morning when I woke up he was gone away, I washed myself to go away to look for work, in the evening I was down in Eldridge Street in a saloon, a man comes and says to me that a policeman was looking for me and wanted to arrest me. I said, what for? He said, somebody stole clothes in your house. I was on the way going home, I wanted to see what was the matter and he arrested me, I know Mr Wilson and had a chance to run away, two detectives came and arrested me. The complainant said that nobody had got keys for the doors of the house. One man went away who was in my bed and he told me he took the key with him and another man who sleeps in the house in another room he has got keys too. I did not take this man's jewelry or clothing and do not know anything about it; the first time I knew that there was anything missing from the house was about half past eight o'clock in the evening when I was down in Elridge Street a block away from Forsyth Street. I was in the saloon and a fellow outside on the street told me that there was a fellow looking for me.

A fellow I treated once to a glass of beer went to the Station House and got a detective and I was arrested.

Cross Examined. This friend went home with me about two o'clock in the morning, his name is Peter Smith I have known him about two years and a half, he was working at that time in a coffee house corner of 10th Street and Broadway. Geiger was in his room sound asleep when I passed through; the trunk stood between the wall and the two rooms, I do not know whether it was locked or not, my friend and I went to bed, he got up first, when I woke up it was a quarter to nine, I did not see the linen coat or box on my bed then, I did not look around I only dressed myself and went away; there were two beds in the little room, my friend was in the bed with me, in the other bed was another man, he went away the night before, he said I snored too much, he was in there that night when I came at two o'clock, I do not know his name, I heard from the landlord that he was a cook on a boat. I have been in Sing Sing for stealing two years, I was charged with stealing a trunk, two beggars stole it, I was on the steps when they brought it out corner of 11th Street and 7th Avenue, I came out of Sing Sing Prison on the 10th of February and on the 27th of February I was in this house, I was never in Sing Sing before that and never convicted of any offence.

The jury rendered a verdict of grand larceny in the second degree.

That he resides in the City of New York and State of New York, and is 35 years of age, and is an Agent appointed by JOSIAH K. BROWN, New York State Dairy Commissioner;

That on the 5th day of February, 1885, in the occupied by him, No. 569 Grand street, in the City of New York in the County of New York and State of New York, one, Henry Ahrens, against the form and statutes in such cases made and provided, and in violation thereof, and against the peace of the people of the State of New York, had in his possession, with intent to sell the same for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, a number of pounds of a substance, product, manufacture and compound, which was not

Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, but had been made by manufacturing, mixing and compounding with and adding to a small quantity and proportion of natural Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of animal fats or animal or vegetable oils, and was a manufactured oleaginous substance not produced from Milk or Cream; that it had been and was colored with some coloring matter whereby the same was made to resemble Butter, the product of the Dairy, and was so colored thereby, in semblance of and resembled Butter, and did resemble Butter the product of the Dairy; that the said Henry Ahrens offered said substance, product, manufacture and compound for sale as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream at such time and place, with intent to sell the same as and for Butter made from unadulterated Milk or Cream, and did sell some considerable portion thereof, to wit, one half dozen as and for Butter, the product of the Dairy, and represented the same to be Butter at such time and place; that the said substance, product and compound was not natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, and was not Butter the product of the Dairy, and was not made exclusively from Milk or Cream, or both; that it contained some substance for the purpose and with the effect of imparting thereto a color resembling that of yellow Butter, and was in imitation and semblance of natural Butter produced from pure unadulterated Milk or Cream of the same, and was colored by some substance to resemble yellow

Butter, and was in semblance of natural Butter; that the same was a substance known as Oleomargarine; that it had been made, manufactured and rendered after April thirtieth, 1885, out of some animal fat, or animal or vegetable oils not produced from unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, in imitation and semblance of natural Butter, produced from pure unadulterated Milk, or Cream of the same, by mixing, compounding with and adding to a small quantity of Milk, Cream or Butter a large quantity and proportion of some animal fats or animal or vegetable oils not produced from Milk or Cream, with design and intent to render, make and produce an article, substance and human food in imitation and semblance of natural Butter. That the same was not manufactured, or in process of manufacture on April thirtieth, 1885, but has been rendered, manufactured, compounded and mixed since April thirtieth, 1885, as deponent is informed and believes That the tubs in which the same was contained did not have the words "Oleomargarine Butter" upon the top or side thereof, and such words were not burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint, in a straight line not less than one half inch in length, where deponent could see such brand, that no printed label, bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter" was delivered therewith to the purchaser thereof.

Deponent further says that, on said 5th day of February, 1885, he went to the said Henry Ahrens in said City and County, and told Henry Ahrens that he wanted to buy some Butter; that said Henry Ahrens showed deponent a number of pounds of the said Oleomargarine hereinbefore mentioned, offered the same to depo-nent for sale, and sold the same to deponent; that he so sold to deponent one half thereof, and deponent then paid to him therefor the agreed price thereof, amounting to the sum of $1.00 that, as deponent believes and charges, the said Henry Ahrens at the time of so offering and selling the same, well knew that it was Oleomargarine, and had been manufactured and colored as hereinbefore stated; that he did not tell deponent at any time that the said Oleomargarine so sold to deponent was not

Butter, the product of the Dairy; that deponent saw the tubs in which the said Oleomargarine was contained, and no printed label bearing the words "Oleomargarine Butter," was delivered by said Henry Ahrens to deponent with the Oleomargarine sold to him; that on February 9th, 1885, deponent delivered a sample of such Oleomargarine, so purchased by him as aforesaid, to Charles M. Stillwell a chemist of the city of New York N. Y., and caused the same to be analyzed by such chemist, as shown by the annexed certificate of such chemist.

Wherefore, deponent prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said Henry Ahrens and that he may be dealt with as the law directs.

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, against

Henry Adams

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse (Chap. 458, Laws of 1885, § 3.)

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Henry Adams, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six, at the City and County aforesaid, one half pound of a certain oleaginous substance and compound, not made nor produced from milk or cream (a more particular description of which said substance and compound, and of the ingredients and matters of which the same was made and produced, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), unlawfully did sell, and cause and procure to be sold to one Thomas R. Fegan, for butter, the product of the dairy; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SECOND COUNT: (Chap. 246, Laws of 1882, § 1.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Henry Adams

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Henry Adams, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold, at retail, to one Thomas R. Fegan, one half pound of a certain substance, not butter, commonly called oleomargarine, and did then and there falsely represent the same to the said Thomas R. Fegan.

to be butter; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

0648

THIRD COUNT: (Section 430, Pennl Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

- Henry Adams -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Henry Adams.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell, and cause and procure to be sold, to one

Thomas R. Fyfe, as an article of food one half pound of a certain substance in imitation of a certain article of food, to wit: butter, without disclosing such imitation by a suitable and plainly visible mark or brand; against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FOURTH COUNT: (Chap. 238, Laws of 1882, § 3.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

- Henry Adams -

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Henry Adams.

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, a certain parcel containing one half pound of a certain article and substance in semblance of butter, not the legitimate product of the dairy, and not made exclusively of milk or cream, but into which divers oils and fats not produced from milk or cream, entered as component parts (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), the same being then and there an article and substance required by law, in case of retail sales in parcels, to be sold from a tub, firkin, box or package, distinctly and durably stamped, branded or marked upon the top and side with the words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, where it could be plainly seen, in Roman letters, burned in or painted thereon with permanent black paint in a straight line, and not less than one-half inch in length, and wherewith the seller was then and there required by law, to deliver to the purchaser, a printed label, bearing the plainly printed words "Oleomargarine Butter" only, in Roman letters not less than one-half inch in length, in a straight line, unlawfully did then and there sell and cause and procure to be sold at retail to one Thomas R. Fyfe from a certain kiosk and box which was not then and there stamped, branded or marked as aforesaid, and did then and there unlawfully omit to deliver therewith to the said Thomas R. Fyfe a label of the kind and description aforesaid, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

FIFTH COUNT: (Chap. 215, Laws 1882, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Henry Adams

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Henry Adams,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one of a certain article and substance in semblance of natural butter, and known as oleomargarine or imitation butter, the same not being the legitimate product of the dairy, and not being made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with salt or rennet, or both, with or without coloring matter or sage, but into which divers oils, and animal and other fats, not produced from milk or cream, had been introduced (a more particular description of which said article and substance is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.

SIXTH COUNT: (Chap. 458, Laws of 1885, § 2.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said

Henry Adams

of a Misdemeanor, committed as follows:

The said Henry Adams,

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully sell and cause and procure to be sold to one of a certain article, substance and compound in imitation and semblance of, and designed to take the place of natural butter produced from pure, unadulterated milk, or cream of the same the said article, substance and compound, so sold as aforesaid, being rendered and manufactured out of divers animal fats and oils not produced from unadulterated milk, or cream from the same, the said article, substance and compound not being manufactured or in process of manufacture on the ^{30th} ~~thirtieth~~ day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five (a more particular description of which said article, substance and compound, is to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and cannot now be given), against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the said people.
