Indictment filed August 17th., 1892 .

Grand Larceny in the second degree.

A P P E A R A N C E S :

Asst. Dist. Attorney Bedford ,
for the People

Mr. Alter,
for the defense.

J O H N W. M A R S H , the complainant, sworn for the people, testified. I live at No. 513, 52nd. Street, in the City of New York. On the 4th. of July last, I was the owner of a row-boat that cost me $32.00, and the oars $5.00. On the night of the 4th. of July, after half-past ten o'clock was the last time I saw the boat. I had it on a float at the foot of 52nd. Street, in the City of New York. The prisoner was there, when I put it there. He came there of his own accord. At the time

I left the boat there that night, I said nothing to him. He was there when I went away. When I visited the float the next morning the boat was gone. That was about five and six o'clock in the morning. I sent out two men in other boat just like this to search for the boat up the River, but they could not find it; but I found it, about two weeks after. It was in the Harlem River just below High Bridge, with one pair of oars in it and the boat was on another float. I know it was my boat, and I have it now; I took it away. That is all I know about the case. I let out boats. Anybody can come and hire boats from me. I did not let the boat that morning. During dinner-time my attendant was there. I did not miss any boats during dinner-time. I cannot tell you the names of the parties to whom I let boats that day. I let out about ten, but none of them were let to this man; he did not ask me to let him any boat. I don't know whether my attendant gave me fifty cents he received from any person-- he might have. He might have let a boat, but I don't know anything about it. I do not think that any boat was let during dinner-time. He did not hand me fifty cents and say it was from anybody. I cannot remember whether I received any money from him or not. I usually got one dollar to a dollar and a half at a time. I charged twenty-five cents an hour. I don't know whether any boat was let out that day for two hours. When I found the boat in the Harlem River nobody was watching it. When I came to take it somebody stopped me. There was a man running a ferry there, and he said he had a little jurisdiction over this boat. He claimed that a man by the name of Mr. Smith owned the boat. Not this defendant but another party. I inquired for Mr. Smith but could not find him. He had paid for the boat, he told me. He made some objections to my taking the boat, but I took it all the same. I knew the color of the boat. I never saw any boat like it before. There was a mark on it. There was a strip on the inside of it after removing a plank that had been busted. It is not possible that any other boat had that. Not one in a thousand. I took the boat home with me.

V I C T O R S M I T H, sworn for the people, testified: I live at 2677, 8th. Avenue, New York City. The prisoner at the bar came to me at my place on July 9th.. I had not known before that day. I am a cabinet maker. I keep a little store at 2677, 8th. Avenue. He came to me and said he had a boat to sell in the River. So when I went over there to finish a boat he asked me to look at this boat which he for sale; and I asked him his reason for selling the boat and he said because his brother-in-law had got drowned in it. So went up with him to the foot of East 157th. Street and the East River and there I seen the boat, and then I went up with him to a liquor store on the corner and there I asked him if he was the owner of this boat, and this man, the prisoner said, "I am the owner of this boat and I want to sell it because my brother-in-law got drowned in it." So I made him make out a receipt. I paid him $10.00 for the boat and two dollars to the other man, and he gave me a receipt for $12.00. He began to write out the receipt himself, but one of the witnesses took it up and wrote it out for him. I am sure this prisoner is the man that sold me the boat and he is the man to whom I paid the $10.00. It was a round-bottom boat, with one pair of scull-oars and one pair of other oars. I saw the prisoner sign the receipt and he gave his name as John Ryan.

M A N U E L H E A L L Y , being duly sworn for the people, testified: I am an officer of the 27th. precinct. I remember the 10th. of July. My beat was between 11th. Avenue and the North River on 50th. Street. I arrested this man on the complaint of Victor Smith. I said to him, "I guess you are my prisoner." I told him that a man up the Avenue had told me that he had sold him a boat. He said I hadn't ought to arrest him, as he had nothing to do with it, but Victor Smith came and said he was the man that sold him the boat and he denied it.

J O H N R Y A N , called on his own behalf, being sworn testified. I am 21 years of age and am single. I work for a living I have been employed by the New York Tannery Company for the last three years; before that I was employed at anything I could do. I know Mr. Smith. I did not go to him to arrange to engage a boat. I engaged a boat, but I cannot say exactly what date. Probably it was the second or the 4th. of July. I had the boat two hours and I paid 50 cents. There are five or six men there and one of them gave me the boat. I went out on the River and rowed down as far as 42nd. Street and there was an excursion passing and I got out and tied the boat and to look around as far as I could go; I did not want to go away farther. And the tide was going very strong so I rowed over to the Harlem River and tied the boat. As the tide was running up I thought I would wait until the tide was running down. So I walked down as far as the casino at 155th. Street and I stayed there an hour or an hour and a half. When I came back the boat was not there. So I walked up the river a ways to see if I could find any traces of it, but I could not find it. The reason I did not go down to find Mr. Smith, was because I did not have any money to pay for it in case he should say anything. I don't know whether it was the 4th. of July or not. It was about nine o'clock. He had several boats there, I saw three or four. It did not take me two hours to row from 42nd. Street to the Bridge, but I paid for two hours. I did not sell the boat to this man Smith, and I do not know anything about it. I never saw a man who looked like me and I don't know I was called Stretch.

V I C T O R S M I T H, re-called: This man is known by the name of Stretch. I have no doubt about this being the man who sold me the boat. I would know him among hundreds.
