Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.

Louis Koffel sworn and examined, testified:

I am a stone cutter and live 137 East 3rd Street, I was at work on the 15th of August last in 4th Street in this city -- I could not tell where I worked that day but between twelve and one o'clock on that night I was in 4th Street near First Avenue, I sat down there on a stoop, I had ten cents in my vest pocket on the right hand side and a watch key and I had a book in my overcoat pocket, I fell asleep on that stoop, I remember waking up out of that sleep by Mr. Stein and the officer, I did not know at the time that something was missed I searched my pockets and found that the pocket-book and the key were missing, I had the pocket-book at the time I fell asleep and in it was a key and a couple of watch keys, I paid fifty cents for the book. I saw the Defendant Miller as soon as I woke up, he was under arrest, they took him away and I went along; the Officer and Stein showed me the pocket-book and keys; the pocket-book now shown me is mine.

Cross Examined.

I worked on the 15th of August in Ridge Street and from there I went to 4th I drank that day maybe four glasses of beer, I forget the number of the house in Ridge Street where I worked. This alleged larceny occurred in First Street near First Avenue about twelve o'clock. I left off work that evening about seven o'clock, I am a married man. The way I came to sleep on this stoop was that I was tired, I live in 3rd Street two blocks away from where I fell asleep. I saw the pocket-book about three hours before I went to sleep. I do not remember having seen the Defendant in the immediate vicinity of where I was sleeping. It was after six o'clock when I sat down on the stoop, I was not around in saloons that night, I might have been sitting there for four hours, I was alone and I was sober. The signature to the paper now shown me is mine; this paper says that the larceny took place in front of my residence 119 East 3rd Street but I did not swear to it --- a man told the story.

04 13

Jacob Stein sworn and examined.

I live now in New Jersey but my residence was 51st St. and First Avenue in August, I am a truckman and have trucks of my own; I remember the night of the 15th of August and the morning of the 16th, I remember seeing the last witness sitting on the second door from Avenue A and First Street towards First Avenue, he was on the lower side of the street in First Street between Avenue A and First Avenue, it was between twelve and one o'clock at night. I had a horse who picked up a nail that afternoon and I staid in the stable to bathe my horse, I was dry and I had no supper and I went out to look for a glass of beer and all the saloons were closed, I seen a saloon around in First Street; my stable is in Houston Street, I walked up the street and I saw the complainant sleeping there and this fellow Miller and two more were there, Miller was sitting on one side and the complainant on the other and Miller was going through the complainant's pocket, I saw him put his hand in this man's pocket and when I saw him do that the other two that were with him says, "cheese it" and Miller got up and walked away, I walked in the saloon and asked for a glass of beer and came out again and walked down the street and I saw Miller sitting on the other side of the complainant, I was in the saloon about ten minutes, I saw the officer afterward and told him about it; the officer turned his hat and the lapel of his coat over so they could not see that he was an officer, he went towards where this fellow was sitting I went around the block and I saw Miller come up the avenue, I followed Miller and caught him, he was starting on a run and I put my hand on the back of his neck. He says, "you son of a bitch, what do you want"; I said, "I want you" and when I said that he had a revolver in his hand and he chucked it in a barrel and he tried to pass me, I tossed him down to the floor and put my hand on him and held him, he put his hand in another pocket and he dropped a bar where I threw him down on the stairs, the officer came running up; this was on Avenue A between First and Second Streets. I said to the officer, "look in the ash barrel and you will find something which he threw down"; he got a light and found a revolver in the ash barrel; the one now shown me looks like it. I am sure that this defendant at the bar is the man who was sitting on the stoop and put his hand in the pocket of the complainant. I did not see the complainant after that night.

Cross Examined. I saw the man throw the revolver in the ash barrel. I am a public truckman and I have five steady houses. I live with my wife in

New Jersey, I came from home yesterday morning. I am not an ex-convict, I was arrested once for disorderly conduct but was honorably discharged. I understand fully that I am under oath. I have never been convicted. The reason why I did not arouse the complainant and tell him what had been done to him was that there was three of them and they might have knocked me down and done the same to me.

The saloon I went into is about five houses away from where this complainant was seated; when I called the officer I was about one hundred and twenty-five feet away from this Defendant, I had my eye on the Defendant all the time, the first time I saw him I took a good look at him and I would know him five years from now. The Officer gave me a subpoena to attend in this case, I was not engaged in an earnest conversation with the officer in the court-room and he gave me no direction as to what I was to testify to, I have seen one of the friends of this Defendant, I did not offer to leave the State and not testify against the Defendant if I were paid the sum of one hundred dollars, he offered me a sum of money to leave.

The affidavit which the complainant made was read to me in the Police Court. I did not know that the affidavit stated that Louis Koffel lived at 119 East 3rd Street and that on the 16th day of August while he was in front of his residence this alleged larceny took place. I swore to the affidavit without having knowledge of its contents because the man read it so quick I could not understand it and Koffel made a mistake because he was at First St. sleeping on a stoop when this happened. There were two other men arrested charged with this crime, the Officer had hold of another one. It was a man named Peiser who came to me in relation to some money.

Henry Hoffman sworn and examined.

I am an officer of the 14th precinct police and was on duty on the morning of the 16th of August last in First Street, my post takes in part of Houston Street from Avenue B to the Bowery. I remember seeing on that night the last witness Stein about twenty minutes past twelve, I had a conversation with him on First Street and in consequence of that I arrested a man, not the prisoner. I first saw the prisoner walking towards Avenue A and Jacob Stein went after him, I had a talk with the man I arrested and let him go and then followed Stein, I got up to him probably about five minutes after, I saw Stein the second time on the corner of Avenue A and First Street.

Miller was with him and I took Miller into custody, Stein said to me, "he is after throwing something away", as near as I can recollect he said he threw something in a barrel, I searched the barrel and found this revolver there, it was fully loaded with five cartridges, I extracted the cartridges and I now produce them, the revolver was 32 calibre. Stein and I made a further search around there, I got a candle and went down stairs into the basement and found this iron jimmy there, it is a chisel I believe; there was a pocket-book found at the stoop some time after. I asked Miller if those things belonged to him and he said no, he did not know anything about them.

I had no further conversation with him at any time in regard to this matter.

Cross Examined.

My attention was first attracted to what was going on in First Street by Stein, I was about one hundred and twenty-five feet away from the stoop at the time, there was a gas lamp right near there about ten feet away from where the complainant was sitting, the gas lamp was on First Street and Avenue A, there are electric lights on Avenue A but not on First St,

In pursuance of a conversation which I had with Stein I pursued a man who started down Avenue A, I followed him to First Street, I saw three men in the street of whom the Defendant was one. I was probably one hundred and fifty feet away from the Defendant at the time of his tussle with Stein. I did not search the Defendant on the spot but searched him in the Station House. I did not find anything upon him and did not see him throw away the pocket-book. I never arrested the Defendant before, I did not know him and heard nothing of his character.

The Case for the Defence.

The Defendant was sworn and said: "My right name is August Leistnar."

By Counsel. How come you to give the name of Frank Miller at the time of your arrest? Because I did not like to disgrace my name, my people were respectable although I am innocent I did not care to put my name in the Court. I have been in this country five years and when I arrived here I went to St. Louis, I was there four years, I worked for W.H. McCread & Co. 247 South Main Street, they were in the lithographing business, my position was porter, I was employed there three years and seven months, I was not discharged, I resigned my position and came on to this city, I have been here very nearly a year, I was employed at 211 Greenpoint Avenue, Greenpoint by John Shoudel, his business is tinsmith, he does a large business and I was clerk and book-keeper, I do not think he is in business now, I never was arrested charged with crime before, I was working on the 15th of August, the day before I was arrested, I came to the city about seven o'clock in the evening, I lived in 114 Allen Street for six months, I had a furnished room there, I crossed the ferry about twenty minutes after six and went to my Allen Street home after that, I stayed home about an hour and a half and then went out; I met a freind that lived in Greenpoint uptown in 13th Street I think, his name is William Hogan, he went to Connecticut, I have got a postal card here showing he has been over to see me, I met him on the corner of First Avenue and 13th Street, we took a walk around and had a few glasses of beer and about ten o'clock I accompanied him to the 10th Street ferry when he went home, the ferry that goes to Greennpoint; I went towards home and happened to go along the Park near 7th Street, I sat down there till half past eleven and fell asleep and the officer woke me up in the 7th Street Park, I had worked hard thatday, I walked right down on Avenue A, it must have been a little after twelve o'clock. I was not that night between the hours of seven and twelve o'clock or any other time that day in First Street between First Avenue and Avenue A, I am positive of that; the first time I saw Stein was the time when he came up to me on Avenue A and assaulted me; I was walking along Avenue A between 1st and 2nd Streets and there was a man passed me and he went down 2nd Street and right after him came this man Stein, I did not take notice of the man that passed me, Stein grabbed me, assaulted me and knocked me down and then the Officer came up and Stein was making a charge against me that I robbed a man in First Street, I said right there and then to the Officer that I was innocent.

I never saw that pocket-book before to-day, I am not in the habit of carrying a pistol and I do not know what a jimmy is. I do not recognize the things shown me as mine and I never had them in my possession; after I was thrown to the ground by Stein he searched the ash barrel, it was perhaps ten or fifteen feet from where I was thrown; another man had passed me running in the same direction in which I was walking and he passed the point where this pistol was found, I cannot recollect whether it was Mr. Stein or Officer Hoffman who searched the barrel, I am acquainted with Mr. Solomon; my father is dead, I am in the receipt of an income from his estate, I am receiving twenty dollars every three months, my father lived in the town of Groszarnstadt, Coburg is the next town to it.

Cross Examined. I quit work on the day before I was arrested about six o'clock, there were about twenty people employed in this tinsmith's concern and two connected with the office in which I was employed, one is Peter Shoden and he was the porter, Charlie Hines was the clerk; I have not seen them or anyone connected with the concern since, I made no inquiries about them but left it to my Counsel. I think that concern is over there yet, I did not write a letter to any of them, I worked there eight months and they all knew me to be working there every day. The reason why I did not communicate with them was that I did not want to have it on my name that I had ever been charged with any crime; I do not think that there are any of the men who were employed in that place in Greenpoint here in Court now. I crossed the ferry on the night of the 15th alone and when I came over to New York I was on my way home, I do not board in that house, I got my meals in Runkle's on the Bowery between Canal and Bayard Street, I got my supper there that night, I am living at 114 Allen Street six months, I only know the woman from whom I get the room there, there are two girls having rooms there but I do not know them, Mrs. Miller is the name of the woman who keeps the house, she has got several children, I was not known by the name of Miller in that house, I did not think about her name when I gave the name Miller, if I had given my right name it would have been in the papers and I would have been disgraced. I was innocent of anything wrong, I simply slept in the Park that night for a little while on my way home and had not wronged anyone in any way, I knew I was accused of a serious crime; the people where I was employed and where I lived they knew my right name, I had no correspondence with any of them and did not want to have my name associated with the charge.. Was it not the reason that you gave your right name to-day that you were afraid the discovery might be made that you were here under a wrong name, is not that the truth? Yes sir. I got my supper about seven o'clock and went back to my home, I saw the landlady of the house and the families down stairs

the time I went upstairs to my room, I think Mrs. Miller occupied the whole of the house, I never had much conversation with the woman, it was a tenement house and people lived on different floors, Mrs. Miller occupied the third floor and there were two girls had rooms on that same floor, I do not know their names, I guess they were there about two months, before they came there I was the only one that had a room beside Mrs. Miller's family, I did not care to find out the names of the girls, I had no object to know their names, I heard their names but I can't remember them, I guess I left the house about eight o'clock after my supper, I went uptown where I met this friend, I walked up from Allen Street to 13th Street, I met no one on the way whom I knew. You did not know anyone around that neighborhood? I did not know only one man and his name is Mr. McCloskey. But you met nobody you knew until you got to 13th Street and First Avenue? No sir. Did you meet anyone then? Yes. Who did you meet there? I met William Hogan there. By accident you met him on the street? Yes.. Did you expect to meet him? No sir. Do you know where he lived? I do, he lived in Greenpoint Avenue. Do you know what he worked at? I do, sir, he was a bar-tender, he worked in Brooklyn on Myrtle Avenue right near Gold Street. What was he doing in New York that night? I do not know. Where was he going? I do not know, I was going to take a walk, I did not have any intention of going anywhere. How long did you stay with him? I stayed with him until about ten o'clock when we started to the 10th Street ferry, I went towards home and sat down in the Park and was awakened by the Officer.

0422

You left Hogan at the ferry? Yes. Where is Hogan now? In Connecticut. When did he go there? He went there about five weeks ago I guess. Do you know what part of Connecticut he is in? I do not, he went to a man whose name I forget now. How do you know he went to Connecticut? Because he was over a couple of days to see me, before he went he saw me in the prison. He told you he was going there? Yes sir. Did you hear from him since? No sir. Then all the information you have about Hogan's whereabouts is that he went to Connecticut? He went with a fellow of the name of Louis Barge, that is the fellow that lived in Connecticut. You were sober weren't you that night? Yes, I was. What time was it you got to work in the morning over at Greenpoint? I used to be over at seven o'clock. You would have to get up pretty early? I got up at five o'clock to get my breakfast to get over there at seven, the usual time was to go to bed right after coming home and getting supper, which was usually about nine o'clock. You left Hogan after ten o'clock and you had to be up the next morning in the neighborhood of five? Yes. Why did not you go straight home? I walked through the Park, it was a nice warm night, I did not have any intention of falling asleep, after I was awakened I went down and went home. You were awakened by the police officer? Yes. You started down what street? I started down Avenue A. You were walking along by yourself? Yes. You said you saw somebody? I did. What was that somebody doing? He was walking along the same as I was, I did not take notice, that was right near the corner of Second St. and Avenue A. How long was that before Stein took hold of you? Only about two minutes. Which way did he come from? He came from First Street facing me. Which way did Stein come? Stein came from the same direction, I met him in the middle of the block. You say this man came by you, coming in a different direction from that in which you were coming? Yes. I paid no particular attention to him. Was he walking or running? He was walking fast, he was not running, I was not paying much attention to what he was doing in fact. But you are sure somebody passed you? Yes sir, I am sure of that. Did you see that man do anything at all as he passed you? No sir, not to my knowledge. He went right by you? Yes. And how soon after that did Stein come along? He came along a couple of minutes after and I was just about in the middle of the block, he took hold of me and knocked me down right there and then stepped on me and held me there till Officer Hoffman came. When he came up to me he hit me first. There was nobody there at the time? No sir. You were there when the revolver was found? Yes sir. How far was the ash barrel from where he struck you? Perhaps ten or fifteen feet, it was further away than from here to the wall. Were you there when this chisel or jimmy or whatever it is was found? Yes, I was. How near was it to where you were that this was found? That I could not tell, I did not see him coming out of the basement. Did you have a struggle with him upon the stoop? Not on the stoop, on the sidewalk. Was it not near an iron railing that you had that struggle with him? I did not pay any attention to it, I could not tell how far the basement was from where they found the chisel, I don't know where the chisel was found. You were pretty well excited, weren't you being arrested in that manner?

I was, I was taken immediately to the Police Station. I did not have the revolver or the chisel in my possession at any time, I did not know anything about the pocketbook or its contents and I had not seen the complainant until the time the officer fetched him to me. I had been working that day for six months in the employment of a large concern in Greenpoint, I knew where the place of my employment was and there were twenty people within my power to produce in order to prove my character and notwithstanding all that immediately upon the accusation in the Police Court I gave the name of Frank Miller, the name of my boarding house mistress and not my own. Do you know where the people lived who were employed by your firm in Greenpoint? No sir. You simply knew they worked in the same place where you worked? Yes.

Fekko Sollmann sworn and examined.

I am employed by George Breckfurt & Co. 425 Broome St. and have been in this country since 1877, I have known the Defendant about seventeen or eighteen years, I think he was about twenty years old when I left Germany, I was in Germany two years ago and am acquainted with his parents, they are respectable people, I think he has been here four or five years, I saw him for the first time here six or seven months ago, his reputation is good. I never knew him to be in trouble, he was a soldier in the Army in Europe.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree with a recommendation to mercy.

Assistant District Attorney Bedford, for the People.
Frank J. Keller, Esq., for the Defense.

ALFRED LOWETH, the Complainant, testified that he lived at West Farms, in New York County-- at 2047 Boston Avenue. He had a barn or stable in the rear of his residence. He locked up the stable at about half past nine on the night of the 16th of August.
He fastened all of the windows except one at the horses head. It had no bars upon it. He left it open to give the horses air. The window was not left open sufficiently for anybody to enter without opening the window

further. In the barn there were three horses, two single sets of harness and a double harness. The double set of harness was stolen on that night. It belonged to him, the complainant. He bought it five months previously and paid fifty-six dollars for it. He returned to his barn at about five o'clock on the morning of the 17th of August. He saw a part of the bridle belonging to the set of harness that was stolen that had been dropped in taking the harness through the window. The two sets of single harness had been taken out of the stable through the window and left on a small shed. The set of double harness was missing. He next saw it at about nine o'clock on that morning at the Police Court. He saw the prisoners in the Police Court in Morrisania.

Under Cross Examination, he testified that he recognized the harness. It was made to order for him by a Mr. Gilbert in West Farms. There were marks upon it that enabled him to identify it among a hundred sets of harness. He always left the window half open at night for air for his horses, and on this morning he found the window wide open.

OFFICER EMIL HEGGEMAN, testified that he belonged to the Thirty-third Precinct. He was on duty on the morning of the 17th of August. He met the defendants at about a quarter of five o'clock on that morning on the Southern Boulevard, near 133d Street. It was about three miles from the complainant's residence. He asked Emil Wagner what he had with him and Wagner said it was none of his business. He told Wagner that it was his business and he wanted to see what he had. Wagner had a bundle wrapped up in black oil cloth. He, the witness, opened the bundle. As he looked in the bundle Wagner dropped his bundle and ran up the avenue. He put Miller into the custody of a citizen and ran after Wagner. As he returned with Wagner, Miller ran away from the citizen and threw him into the street and ran down the Boulevard. The citizen followed him and caught him. Then several other officers came, and the prisoners were taken to the station house. The complainant identified the harness that was in the bundles at about nine o'clock in the Police Court. It was a double set of harness.

Under Cross Examination, he testified that he was in uniform at the time he first saw the defendants.

For the Defense, J O H N M I L L E R, one of the defendants, testified that he was born in Germany, and had been in the country about twenty-two months. He worked in a marble factory in Mott Street. He had never been arrested before. He had the harness in his possession. He and Wagner were carrying this harness for a man. The man met them on the corner of Houston and First Streets. They had a paper--the Staats Zeitung--and were looking for work at a quarter past four that morning. Wagner said he thought he could get a job from a milkman in Houston Street, and he, the defendant Miller, said that he would look for a job, too. Then a man with a gray beard and a blue suit on came up and asked them if they were busy, and they said no, that they were looking for a job, and he said, "If you want to make a dollar you can make it in an hour and a half." They all went up to the Harlem Bridge together in an elevated car, and the man took them to a place about two miles from the bridge, and there was an old wagon there and some bundles in the wagon. The man gave each of them a bundle and told them to follow him. They walked down town, and the officer was behind the fence, and he asked them where they got the stuff, and he, Miller, said that they were carrying it for a man. The officer said that it was in Westchester that they got the harness, but it was not true. They only went about two miles from the bridge to get it. He, Miller, had worked for a florist in Westchester, and he knew that the place where the wagon was was not in Westchester. When they were arrested by the officer the man that gave them the bundles to carry ran away. He had been walking about a block and a half ahead of them. He said that he would go ahead and take the bundles from them at the Harlem Bridge. He, Miller, started to run after the man when he saw him running. He intended to have him arrested, but the man with the gray beard and the blue suit ran too fast and got away. He was a man about forty-five years of age. He, Miller, would recognize him if he saw him again. The man gave each of them a dollar.

Under Cross Examination, Miller testified that he did not know the name of the man and never saw him before. He did not think it a strange proceeding to be employed by a strange man under those circumstances. In fact, he didn't think anything about it. He had been about eleven days out of work. There was no horse attached to the wagon in which the bundles were. He did not think that the man had stolen the bundles. He had worked in Mott Street and had a room at 45 Delancey Street.

EMIL WAGNER, the other defendant, testified that he was born in Germany about two miles from where Miller came from. He, Wagner, had been in the United States about three years, and he had never been arrested before. He had been working on a farm on Long Island. He corroborated Miller's story as to their employment by the elderly man to carry the bundles from the wagon to Harlem Bridge. He met Miller that morning at the Staats Zeitung office.

IN THE CORONER'S COURT OF THE CITY & COUNTY OF NEW YORK, INQUEST IN THE MATTER OF : BEFORE
THE DEATH OF : HON. FERDINAND LEVY, JAMES KILGORE : JURY.
CORONER

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 21ST, 1889.

For the Prisoner appeared Messrs. Johnson & Pryor.

DANIEL A. JOSEPHSON

sworn and examined.

BY THE COURT:

Q. To what Precinct are you attached? A. The 2nd.

Q. Tell the Jury in what manner you were connected with this case? A. Well, about 25 minutes past 8 o'clock on that evening I stood on the corner of 52nd Street and 9th Avenue, and this young man, Conrad Kirchner, ran out and yelled "Police," and I ran up and saw him having hold of the prisoner here, and he told me that the prisoner had shot his brother and he produced a pistol---

3

MR. PRYBIE: (Interposing) We object to that.

Just tell what you did and what you know about the matter? A. (Returning) Then, I ~~was~~ placed

Morgenweck under arrest and brought him up stairs and he was identified by the dying man and I took him back to the Station house and locked him up. That is all.

BY MR. PRYBIE:

Q. Do you know the nationality of this man?

A. No, I suppose he is German.

BY THE CORONER:

Q. You have told us all that you ~~have~~ have had to do in the case? A. Yes, sir; all I know myself.

A. Officer Brunner, he went for the ambulance.

Q. You got there first? A. Yes, sir.

BY MR. PRYBIE:

Q. You know nothing of your own knowledge in regard to this matter? A. Only that----

Q. Are you related to the deceased? A. Yes, sir; he was a brother of mine.

Q. Were you present at the time of the shooting?

A. Yes, sir; standing right alongside of him.

Q. How tall the jury all that took place? A. I came home after work, after five o'clock.

Q. In the afternoon? A. Yes, sir. When I was done with my work I came in and my mother told me that he had wanted to shoot himself and shoot her in the day time. I didn't think much of it. I thought he wouldn't do such a thing. We knew he had a pistol, but he didn't mention much about it. So we had our supper. About 6 o'clock this man came in---before 8 o'clock he came inside----

Q. (Interposing) Who came in? A. The prisoner there.

Q. Well, mention the name? A. Henry Morgenweck

and he started to pick a quarrel again about my mother and sat down and mother asked him to have his supper and he didn't want any, so he went out and he brought this witness there, Mr. Rastetter, in and as soon as he came in I told Henry Morgenweck here that he need not get his pistol. I told him I would have him locked up; that there was a policeman outside who had just passed the door. He more than I said that when he took out his pistol. The bed rack was right there, and he took his pistol out of his pocket or his coat that was hanging on the rack and he turned around and shot my brother John.

Q. How many shots were fired? . He only fired one shot, but he had his arm drawn up for the second shot when I grabbed his arm and took the pistol from him. Then he started to fight. He punched my brother, and the prisoner and my brother and myself had a wrestle in the hallway and Mr. Rastetter started to open the door to go out and my mother kept him back. Then we were wrestling and had got against the door and the door opened and he went outside in the hall. Then Morgenweck started to fight and I took the butt end of the pistol and I hit him on the head twice, and after that he ran down stairs and I after him. I had the pistol in one hand and he slammed the door in my face going down; and I opened the door. I saw he was about ten yards ahead of me, so I ran up and caught him and I got this officer to the window there and I told him and he took the prisoner and I gave him the pistol.

THE CORONER: Where is the pistol, officer?

OFFICER COSTIGAN: (Producing pistol and a package)

1. The first step in the process of identifying a problem is to define the problem. This involves identifying the symptoms of the problem and determining the scope of the problem. Once the problem has been defined, the next step is to identify the causes of the problem. This involves identifying the factors that are contributing to the problem and determining the root cause of the problem. Once the causes of the problem have been identified, the next step is to develop a plan to address the problem. This involves identifying the actions that need to be taken to address the problem and determining the resources that are needed to implement the plan. Once a plan has been developed, the next step is to implement the plan. This involves taking the actions that are outlined in the plan and monitoring the progress of the plan. Finally, the last step in the process is to evaluate the results of the plan. This involves determining whether the plan has been successful in addressing the problem and identifying any lessons learned from the process.

10. You should not be surprised that the results of the regression analysis are not the same as the results of the correlation analysis. The correlation coefficient is a measure of the strength of the linear relationship between two variables, while the regression coefficient is a measure of the change in the dependent variable for a one-unit change in the independent variable. The regression coefficient is also a measure of the slope of the regression line.

TESTIMONY.

William A. Conway M. D., being duly sworn, says:
 I have made an Autopsy of the body of John Kirchner now lying dead at 791 North Milwaukee from such an autopsy and history of the case, as per testimony, I am of opinion the cause of death is Hemorrhage from Pistol Shot Wound of the Chest

Block 1

Wm A. Conway M. D.
 An Autopsy made on Aug 10/89 at 791 North Ave on the body of the deceased John Kirchner shows the following results. An external examination of the body was made and no marks of external violence was discovered except a slight bruise on the point of the right shoulder, which was probably caused by a fall, and a pistol shot wound about 4 inches above the left nipple and five inches from the median line of the body under the collar bone about one inch. The course of the bullet was slightly inwards & backwards in a horizontal direction. On opening the chest it was found that the bullet had passed through the tissues of the chest and striking the coclear bone had been deflected and passing through the second rib had gone through the lung and striking the vertebral column had dropped into the cavity of the left pleural cavity where it was found among the coagulated blood and serum with which the cavity was filled. Brain, Heart, Kidneys, Liver and other organs were normal as were the lungs with the exception of the congestion and edema caused by the wound. The cause of death in my opinion was Hemorrhage from Pistol Shot Wound of the Chest.

----- : a jury.
Indictment filed September 18th, 1889.
Indicted for Assault in the first degree.

New York. September, 25th, 89

APPEARANCES: For the people, Assistant District Attorney James Fitzgerald.

For the defendant: Mr. Frank Oliver.

MARY EMMA ROSE, a witness for the people, sworn testified:

I live at No. 305 7th av. in the rear. I do washing and ironing for a living. I am a married lady.
The defendant lives underneath me. On the first of September between 4 and 5 o'clock in the evening this defendant called me down into her rooms, and asked me if I would get her some breakfast. I gave her some breakfast. In the evening she called me down again but I would not go. After I got my own dinner ready I did go down. We had some words and she cut me here just one inch above the elbow. My arm was fixed in the 30th Street police station. She cut me with a knife.
Cross-examination:

This defendant had several drinks of whiskey in when she cut me. I was looking out of the window. I didn't see anything of the knife until she cut me with it.

0506

DELIA BAILEY, a witness for the people sworn testified:

I live in the same house as the last witness No. 365 7th Avenue. On the first of September I was in the defendants rooms and I saw her cut the complainant with a small butcher knife across the arm. I thought she was only fooling but she cut her pretty bad.

Cross-examination:

I got my finger cut in the trouble that went on. I tried to prevent her from stabbing the complainant.

WILLIAM J. THOMPSON? a witness for the people sworn testified.

I am an officer of police of the 19th Precinct. I arrested the defendant on the first of September. The defendant gave me the knife which is produced in Court. The defendant had no wounds upon her at all. She had evidently been drunk.

CARRIE MORTON, the defendant testified:

I live at 365 7th Avenue. On the first of September this woman Bailey came down to my rooms and asked me to lend her ten cents. I would not lend her ten cents. The complainant came down in the afternoon and she said I was a ~~fall~~ fall, and then she went out and brought in a bottle of whiskey. We both drank the whiskey together. She got very drunk and I went to sleep. Afterwards I awakened by her knocking at the door. She came in and said she was drunk. I did not cut Mrs. Rose. If she was cut it must have been by some accident while she was drunk. Why shpuld I cut her when we were good friends. We were both drunk.

Cross-examination:

I didn't cut Mrs. Bailey. I was half drunk when this thing occurred.

The Jury returned a verdict of Guilty of Assault in the Second Degree.
