To Hon. J. B. Morey -

Dear Sir:

I received this evening a Subpoena requesting my personal appearance to - ~~morning~~ to testify in the case of John O'Connor, and am sorry not to be able to appear, on account of my business as apothecary, being alone & not able to obtain my regular relief clerk (or assistant of whom being sick since last Friday).
Besides this I must state that the officer (who refers to me as his witness) labors under a false impression that I was present & merely refers to me on supposition -

At the time of the excitement I was in my store writing

0196 on customers & my attention was first attracted by seeing a large crowd of people having gathered on the opposite side of the street without having the slightest knowledge of the cause of the trouble; therefore I am utterly incapable to state anything of any importance in behalf or against said party.

Trusting you will excuse me for taking this liberty to state to you these facts & hope you will give them consideration under the above stated circumstances I remain

Yours respectfully,
