deposes and says, that the premises No 168 Mulberry Street, in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a Basement in the fine story brick tenement house situated in the west end and which was ^{at} occupied by deponent as a at said time and in which there was at the time ^{no} human being, by name following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Twenty five pounds of lead pipe being together of the value the property and the care and custody of deponent.

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid

BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by

Joseph McMillen (now free) and Frank McGee and since has been arrested and convicted.

for the reasons following, to wit: That on said day said premises were securely locked and fastened by means of a lock and key and that said property was then in said premises and that said McMillen and said McGee who were acting in concert did about the hour of 11.40 o'clock P.M. on said day break open the door of said premises and take said property therefrom. Deponent 0719

at said time saw said McMillen and said McGee coming out of said premises with said property in their possession and caused them to be arrested and said McMillen then ran away and made his escape, That on the 15th day of May 1865 said McGee was tried before Hon.
 Judge Cumming at the Court of General Session and was convicted and sentenced to 2 years and a half in the State prison for the said crime.
 Deponent fully identifies said McMillen as the person who was in acting in concert with said McGee in the person he saw coming out of said premises with said property in his possession, Deponent therefore charges said McMillen with having acted in concert with said McGee and charges him with having taken stolen and carried away the said property.

The People vs John Meehan } Court of General Sessions. Part 7 Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree. Before Judge Gildersleeve. August 5, 1883.

Ephraim Newbrick, sworn and examined, testified. By Mr. Purdy. What is your business? Manufacturer of clothing. Do you recollect having before the 6th of July seven worsted coats? I had more than seven. You saw some in the hands of the police officer, did you? I did. Were they your coats? They were. What was their value? The coats were worth about seven or eight dollars a piece. When had you seen them before they were in the hands of the police officer? I did not pay any particular attention to the coats; they were piled up in my place. Where is your place? No 433 Broome St. Cross Examined: How do you identify them? On the ticket of the linings of the coats. Where are they? One of them is here and the others are at my place of business now. When did you see them last before the time you saw them in the policeman's hands? We have got quite a large stock of clothing. I did not pay any particular attention to that one lot. You do not know what time they were taken? Except when it occurred. Our bookkeeper was in the office, and he called somebody down; he was there by himself. You do not know of your own knowledge what time they were taken? I know when they were brought back. You do not know when they were taken? No sir. Nor by whom? No sir.

John Holland sworn and examined. You are a police officer? Yes sir. Do you recollect the 6th day of July? Yes sir. Do you recollect seeing the prisoner at the bar? Yes. About four o'clock in the afternoon of July 6th I was standing in the corner of Broome and Crosby sts. I saw the prisoner running up Crosby st. with a bundle of clothes. At the same time some one ran out of 433 Broome St. and called, "Police; stop thief." I followed the prisoner, and seeing that he was followed he dropped the clothes on the sidewalk, and I arrested him and came back and picked up seven coats on the sidewalk. What did he say? I asked him where he got them? He says, I got them away over there. That was the answer he made. Then you went to 433 Broome St.? Yes, the bookkeeper of 433 Broome St. said they were stolen from 433 Broome st. Did you see the property ~~stolen~~ here? Yes sir. He identified the clothes? Yes sir. I did not hit the prisoner with a club.

The case for the Defence.

John Meehan sworn and examined in his own defence testified: You heard what the officer said about finding you with coats in your possession? Yes sir. Tell how they came in your possession, tell the truth? Yes sir. As I was going from my home over to get two chairs fixed that was left up in my ^{brother's} ~~father's~~ store in Hooster St. I left my hat over in the house. I walked up Crosby St. and looked in 142 William St. and a man asked me would I carry some goods for him. I was out of work and I did not have any money neither did my mother. I told him I would carry them. When I got in Crosby St. some one told me to drop them and run. He (the officer) hit me with a club over the eye and knocked the teeth out of my head. Cross examined. Some man told you to carry the goods did he? Yes sir. You were out of work and your mother had not anything to eat? Had no money. Did'nt you hear the cry of, "Stop thief"? No sir. Somebody told you to drop them and run? Yes sir. And so you dropped them and ran? No sir. Before I dropped them at all he hit me with a club and gave me a black eye and knocked me and I fell senders on the sidewalk. The officer says, you had dropped them before that, you were running, and he went back and picked them up? No sir. Is your mother here in Court? I dont know whether she is or not. Have you ever been arrested? No sir. What do you work at? I was working in the Small printing office in Duane St. seven weeks before. Were you at work when you were arrested? No sir you were arrested on the 11th of July? The 6th of July. You do not know the man who gave you the coats? He was a Jew, he had a mustache. I dont know whether I would know him if I saw him again.

Ephraim Newbridge recalled by counsel for the defendant. What kind of coats were those? They were kind of worsted, bluish coats I think they were all woollen. I could not tell if there was any cotton in them, I suppose they were all wool. Did you buy the goods and have them made? I buy the cloth and have them made. I said the coats were worth about eight dollars; they were made up in suits; that would be the wholesale price. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree. The defendant was sent to the Elmira Reformatory.

Indictment } Before Judge Cowing. July 13. 1888. for grand larceny in the second degree.

Josephine Zonze sworn and examined.

I live 173 Fourth St. I had two or three boarders; the defendant was a boarder there. I lost a pocket book about the 14th of May. I was with a woman in the kitchen and Miller called me out to the front room and asked for ten cents. I took my pocket book and gave him ten cents and put the pocket book in my pocket and when he left the room I missed it. No one came near me from the time that I took the pocket book out and gave him the ten cents until I missed it; there was $32 in it. I missed it five minutes after he left the room. He stood near enough to me to have reached the pocket book, and no one else was near me. Miller went out with a pitcher for some beer and came back and he was drunk and I was alone in the house and was afraid to accuse him of it. He slept there that night and in the morning he left the house, took all the things that belonged to him away and I went to the police and made the complaint. I did not tell him anything. I went out for a policeman. After he left that morning he did not come back to the house.

0767

Cross Examined. The defendant had been boarding with me four months. About two or three times I loaned him small sums of money. I was near the closet when I handed him the ten cents; he was behind me. I remained for a while thinking and then he must have taken the pocket book out. I did not see him take the pocket book. I left the big room and went back to the kitchen and was washing the dishes. It was about eight a half past eight when I gave him the ten cents in the morning. He came in the evening drunk about five o'clock. Who beside yourself and the defendant slept in that house that night? There was another man sleeping in another room, and in the other room there was a man and a woman sleeping together. There was a boy slept in the kitchen besides. I suspected that the defendant took the pocket book before he came but I did not say anything to him that evening about the stealing of the money because he was drunk and I was alone. I am a widow. I could not speak English to go in the evening to look for a policeman. I can speak a few words in English so that the people of the house can understand me, but I could not go on with a conversation. It was about half past seven or eight o'clock in the morning when the defendant left. I have a witness to show that the defendant had plenty of money in the evening of the morning he asked me for the ten cents I told Mrs. Wright that evening that he stole the money, and she said I ought to have him arrested; she is not in Court.

James Maguire sworn. I am a detective sergeant of the New York police and made the arrest in this case on the 24th of June. I charged the prisoner with having stolen the pocket book. He did not say anything in explanation. I accused him of stealing this money from the Italian. I told him of many cases you have swindled; there is one woman you ought to be ashamed of stealing her money. He said, "Who is that?" I said, "the Italian woman in Court St." In answer to that he never said a word. I said, "the woman with whom you boarded;" that was the lady who was just on the stand. Going down he asked me what other cases I had against him, but he said nothing further about this case.

Henry Miller, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I had been boarding with the complainant since the 26th of December. I had frequently borrowed 10 and 25 cents for car fare from her. I remember borrowing from her at one time ten cents, but I could not remember the date. At the time I borrowed that ten cents from her I did not take her pocket book. I returned to the house between three and four o'clock. I only took supper and breakfast there that day. There were present Mrs. Zenge and a man named Pafani. There resided in the house Mr. Mrs. and Johnny Smith. I had two to three dollars when I returned to the house that night; that was all the money I had. I believe I made two dollars that day. Cross examined. After I returned to the house I might have gone out for a pint of beer, but I stayed there continually. I usually returned to the boarding house between three and four o'clock. I have never been accused or convicted of crime before. I am a salesman for De Young, Millborn & Co. I took orders for oil portraits and the first payment is two dollars. I don't remember who it was paid me the two dollars that day. Miller is my right name. I believe I went into the employ of De Young & Co about the 7th of January. I never was discharged from there. Twelve dollars was the average price of the portrait and my commission was two dollars. I have not anybody here to testify to my character. I am a stranger here. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. The sentence was three years and a half in the State prison.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Danny Miller

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Danny Miller

of the CRIME OF Petit LARCENY, committed as follows:

The said

Danny Miller,

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 25th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, with intent to deprive and defraud one

Joseph W. Wadsworth of the property hereinafter mentioned, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use, did then and there feloniously, fraudulently and falsely pretend and represent to the said Joseph

Wadsworth,

That the said Danny Miller was in the employ of De la Haye's Dumaine 815 Broadway in said City as a canvasser for copying pictures, and was then and there duly authorized and empowered to obtain orders for the copying of pictures and to receive money from persons giving such orders, for and on behalf of said De la Haye's 0788

And the said Frank W. Stufkind — then and there believing the said false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Danny Miller — and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Danny Miller, the sum of two dollars in money, lawful money of the United States and of the value of two dollars, —

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said
Frank W. Stufkind
and the said Danny Miller, did then and there feloniously obtain the said sum of money

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said
Frank W. Stufkind
from the possession of the said Frank W. Stufkind — by color and by aid of the false and fraudulent pretenses and representations aforesaid, and with intent to deprive and defraud the said Frank W. Stufkind of the same, and of the use and benefit thereof, and to appropriate the same to his own use. Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Danny Miller Miller was not in the employ of "De Young's" of 815 Broadway in said City as a canvasser for carrying pictures, and was not then and there duly authorized and empowered to solicit orders for 0789 the copying of pictures and to receive money from persons giving such orders, for and on behalf of said

"De la Guardia";

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the pretenses and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Harry Miller to the said Joseph W. LaGuardia, was and were, then and there in all respects utterly false and untrue, as he the said Harry Miller
at the time of making the same then and there well knew.

AND SO THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID do say: That the said
Harry Miller
on the day and year first aforesaid, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, in the manner and form aforesaid, and by the means aforesaid, with force and arms, the said sum of money,

of the proper moneys, goods, chattels and personal property of the said Joseph W. LaGuardia, then and there feloniously did STEAL, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

William Mullaney

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. ⁺ for the further reason that at the time the defendant was arrested in company with three other boys he went into an empty house. I further believe that the defendant was not the instigator nor was he the vicious party in the above named burglary - some lead pipe being taken and carried away by the other boys. I also find that the defendant has never been arrested before in his life that he now is at work with the Dyster Engine Company No 40 Courtland St this city as I am informed and believe and further that I do not believe him to be the real guilty party.
