Part I

The People

vs. William Smith

Court of General Sessions. Before Recorder Smythe. Monday February 21. 1880.

Indictment for felonious assault and battery.

Francis McEluff sworn. I live 358 Eighth ave.

I am a bar tender for Patrick McKenna 358

Eighth ave. I saw the prisoner there on the evening of the 3^d of February; he came in about 15 minutes before 12 o'clock and had a small glass of ale and paid me for it. He stood at the bar and ate some lunch. About five minutes afterwards there came a young man and two girls; he went into a little partition that is off the store for family trade. I went round to wait on them and when I was in the act of waiting on them the prisoner came round and looked in the door; he said to the young man, "I took you to be another man, but I think I know you myself." So the other young man says, "That is all right." One of the ladies says,

I know that little fellow I will call him in. The other lady says, "No, he has terrible cheek to look in here at all." The prisoner could hear the conversation. He brought round his glass of ale to the place where they were and brought the cheese and crackers to them. I asked them did they have enough? They said, "yes." I brought it back to the bar again. I stood behind the bar; he asked me whether there was a ladies 0568

water closet here? At the same time one of the ladies went out in the hallway. I said, "No." I went on and told her not to go out there. I went round to see what she was doing in the hallway and he would not let me in the little room. I put my shoulder to the door of the little room and when I went in I asked him why he held the door? He used abusive language and called me a son of a b. h. and said, "you cannot do that to me." Mr. M. Kerma came into the room. The other young man that was with the prisoner caught him by the arm to bring him outside the door. I walked out into the pathway and he was outside the door; he turned round and snapped the revolver; it did not go off. I dodged a little to the one side and the revolver snapped again and it went off; the second firing followed the first immediately. I dodged behind the wall. I was then der struck. I did not know what to do. I saw the pistol in his hand, saw the flash and heard the report. I guess I was about eight feet from him. He aimed at my head. It did not hit me. I did not find the bullet mark. There were empty champagne baskets and I could not see where the ball marked. I took off my apron and ran up eighth ave. as far as Third St. I found an officer there and told him what happened. We walked down Thirty Second St and Seventh Avenue till we come to Thirtieth St. and we met the prisoner and the other young man; the officer arrested the prisoner; he did not say anything. Cross Examined. I will swear that it was not the other young man who had the pistol; the other young man was not arrested. I made a complaint against the prisoner at the Police Court. There was another young man arrested, but I don't know how he came to be arrested for it. Patrick M. Kenna, the proprietor of the saloon testified that on this night he came in when the bar tender was insisting that he ~~should leave~~ the room because of some abusive language he had given him. Healey and not Smith is the right name of the prisoner. He told the bar keeper that he could not put him out of the room. The young man who was with the prisoner took him out and then I heard the shot at the door. I went out and saw the prisoner standing about six feet from the door with the revolver in his hand. Charles Eling, sworn. Live at 142 West Thirtieth St. I was in the neighborhood of Seventh Ave. and Twenty Eighth St. but not at the time the shooting occurred. I have seen the pistol now shown to me before. I found it in an ash barrel in the corner of Twenty Eighth St and Seventh Ave.; the hammer was cocked. I was arrested that night by an officer and discharged in the morning; the complainant was not there. I did not know him. I suppose it was 10 or 15 minutes after 12 o'clock when I found the pistol. William B. Stanton, sworn and examined, testified. I am an officer; on the night of Feb. 3 I was at the corner of Thirty Third St. and Eighth Ave.; the complainant told me what had been done to him. I went through Thirty Third St. to Seventh Ave. and went into two liquor stores to see if the prisoner had been there. Between Twenty Ninth and Thirtieth Sts. we met him coming up the avenue. The complainant says, "that is him." I arrested him and took him to the station house. The next morning I saw Officer McArthur have a pistol at the Jefferson Market Police Court. Charles Eling, recalled, said that Officer McArthur arrested him when he had the pistol in his hand. Bernard McArthur testified that he was an officer of the 29th precinct and arrested Eling in 28th St. between Sixth and Seventh Aves. with the revolver now shown in his possession. It was on full cock; there were six loaded cartridges and one empty one and one of the loaded shells was nicked. Was it recently fired? I could not tell. I arrested Eling about 20 minutes past one in the morning.

0569

0570

0571

William Smith, sworn and examined in his own behalf. My name is Healey. On the night of this occurrence I went into that saloon 12 1/2 after getting through work had a glass of beer. A young man and two ladies came in and went into the side office. I knew this young man's face; while I was in there one of the girls wanted to go out to the closet. The young man was half drunk and he objected to letting the bar tender go out to see what she was doing. In the mean time the boss of the place came down. I went outside; there was a shot fired at the complainant. I walked up the street. Officer Stanton ran passed me in 28th St. after the young man but he did not catch him. I was between Thirtieth St. and Seventh Avenue when I was arrested and accused of it. I had no pistol that night and threw no pistol in the ash barrel. I worked for Mr. Glee, an express man, for five years. I was never arrested before. John W. Glee, an express agent, testified that the prisoner worked for him between five and six years and that so far as he knew his character was good. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault with intent to injure. He was sent to the State Prison for three years and six months.

assault) filed Feb.
