I went into the saloon between 8 and 9 O'Clock - the saloon is best I believe in the Henderson (now here) when I entered the saloon there were six men there - that is all I saw. I drank a glass of Beer I took my Pocket Book from my bosom to pay for the Beer there is a Bar in that relume I stood in front of the Bar and was served with the drink while standing in front of the Bar - I don't know the name of the man who served me with the Beer - Jones was not behind the Bar - Four men were standing at the Bar and Jones was standing next to me - I was not at any time sitting at a table drinking - (Pine Vineyard (now here)) I did not see in the saloon. The six men were in the saloon. I don't know whether the all saw what occurred. Two of them were standing close enough to put their hand on my shoulder —

I had no drinks and drank nothing before entering the saloon. I did not fall in the saloon. I was not carried into a back room in any person. It was about an hour after the occurrence that Jones was arrested. I asked Jones for the money before going out of the saloon. I am a married woman. I have been married 9 months. Daniel Miller, a colored man is my husband. I was never arrested. I was not arrested on a charge of soliciting. I never was taken from a room of prostitution. After I had been put out of the saloon. I went twice to the Station House in relation to the
