Dear Sir

I appeared before the Haut Jury today as principal witness against Chas Barry
a lad of eighteen years of age. While in my employ he absconded with $66 - entrusted to him to pay some bills. My business is in Wall St. where interests of immense value are unfortunately too often entrusted to irresponsible messengers, and I felt it my duty to, ~~give~~ ^{state} the charge as an example. After his years, and the entreaties of his mother, prompt me to ask you (should he plead guilty, or be found guilty on trial) to send him, for punishment, to some reformatory

institution where his future
may be redeemed, rather than to the penitentiary or prison
where his associates may drag him still lower in the scale of usefulness -
Not knowing how or when I

Hon. Randolph B. Martine,
District Attorney, New York City.

Dear Sir: -

On the 28th ult. I caused the arrest of Alexander Kent, at 44 East Houston Street, and also, the arrest of John Bradshaw, alias John J. Stoll, at 113 Elm Street. Each of them were held in $500. bail for examination, by Justice O'Rielly, for examination July 1st, at 2 P.M.

After the warrants were issued I send my assistant into each of these places, and he purchased a lottery-policy of each of these men, just before we entered the place. I afterwards found in the possession of each of these parties, a record of these plays, in their possession.

I drew the enclosed complaints on the additional evidence, and took the same to the court this afternoon, when I found that, anticipating me in this respect, the parties had waived examination, and given bail for the action of the Grand Jury. I therefore, enclose these affidavits, and would respectfully request, that they may be filed with the papers in the cases, as the evidence is complete against both parties, and there is corroboration to the statement of Mr. Sullivan, as to the purchase of each of these lottery-policies.

As I expect to be absent for a few days, but have to be here, to attend court, on the 15th inst. I would respectfully ask, if it meet with your approval, that these cases may be considered on that date, by the Grand Jury, if at all this month? This month is the time I take my vacation, and while I have to return on the 15th, I desire also, to go away again, and would like to finish up this matter, if it will not interfere with the arrangements of your office.

I would respectfully ask, that if you do not deem it wise to place these matters before the Grand Jury, that they may be returned to my office, as they are material evidence.

I have the honor to be,

With very great respect sir,

Your obedient servant,

Anthony Bonstock.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

Wednesday, July 26, 1886.

Indictment for robbery.

Debla Nickgella sworn and examined. I am ten going on eleven years old and live with my mother, I know David Kohn, I remember the 12th of July last, it was Monday, I got two coats from Mr Kohn, he gave them to me at his place 50 Forseith Street and told me I should go to a shop in Broadway with them; he gave me the number on a piece of paper and the boy Brandt had it, he went along with me, I had the coats on my arm and he was walking with the boys, there were two boys with him, I walked along and one of them held my head and the others stuffed my mouth, Brandt took away the coats, I was crying and I ran after them and I saw them on the corner and so they ran away, I ran too and a boy took me home, I never saw those coats again and do not know what became of them, I went and told Mr. Kohn all about them and I did not see the coats any more.

Cross Examined. I did not let Morris Brandt carry the coats when I got away a block, he took them away from me, they were small coats and I carried them over my arm, I do not know what street it was that they got hold of me; one of them stuffed my mouth with his hands, one held my head, Brandt took away the coats and then ran away and the two other boys ran from the other side; there was no policeman there, this was in the morning, I don't know what time it was, I told Mr. Kohn near dinner time.

David Rohn sworn. I live at 50 Forseith St. and am a tailor by trade, I remember the 12th of July, I remember sending the little girl with two coats that day to 524 Broadway, it was a little before nine o'clock in the morning. The coats were worth from twenty to twenty five dollars, I was going to send her alone but she told me she did not know the way, I called Morris Brandt and promised to give him a few cents to show the girl where the place is, he was sitting by the door, they both went I was sitting at my breakfast, I asked him to show her the place, I gave the address on a piece of paper to Brandt, I am sure that she carried the coats, I found the coats in a pawn shop in Avenue B, Morris Brandt told me that they were there, the girl came crying to me about twelve o'clock and said the coats were taken from her, I did not see Morris Brandt then, I was looking for him and had him arrested on Tuesday night; before he was arrested I promised I would let him go if he would tell me where the coats were and so he told me, I said to him, you took the goods away and where did you put them? He said, I put them in a pawn shop that he had done nothing but the two boys took them. I said, you got the tickets of those folks, he said I have got the tickets and I will give them to you, he said the tickets were sold but he could get them, he did not get them, he said the pawn shop was in Avenue B, when we went on First Avenue I met a policeman and had Brandt arrested, I went with the officer afterwards to the pawn shop and saw the goods and identified them as mine.

Cross Examined. I saw the girl and Brandt go out of the door but do not know who carried the coats for her afterwards.

Edward Sweeny sworn. I am an officer and arrested the defendant on the 13th of July on First Ave. and Houston Street at half past eight on the complaint of David Kohn. I took him to the Station House and on the next morning he told me going down to Court that two fellows took the coats, that he thought he might as well have some money as the other fellows and so he pawned the coats and got $2.25 in money, he told me he got $5.50 in the pawn shop for the coats.

Morris Brandt sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. I am a jeweler and know the little girl, the complainant, I was standing at the doorway and Mr Kohn called me up to the house and asked me to show her the place where she should deliver the goods, he gave me a slip of paper with the address on and said he would pay me when I came back, I went down with the girl and about a block away she was letting the coats drop and asked me to hold them. I took them and straightened them out again and put them on my arm and went with her all the way to Center Street, I noticed that one boy was following me up and when we got to Center Market he snatched the coats off my arm, I did not see anybody else holding the little girl he ran away and I ran after him and could not catch him, I went down to Avenue B and there I saw him coming out of a pawn shop, I went up and asked him whether he put them in, he said yes, I asked him for the whole of the money and he handed me $3.25, his last name was John, I did not take the coats from the little girl.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
