Asst. Dist. Attorney

Sir,

I am informed you wished to see me in the case of the People against James McPeck. James Brady (or Rodgers) and John. Farley in which a separate Complaint was made for the same crime - and as I found you engaged in Court I beg leave to explain. Evidence will show that the property was taken from 326-7th Ave and by either Farley or Brady who are acquainted and that both were in the gig very soon after and invited McPeck who also got into the gig with them. Farley was driving when they met McPeck at 27th at 9th & 10th Ave. Three persons were seen by officer Mitchell in the gig. two were immediately arrested and I was informed by both McPeck and Brady that Farley was the man who escaped. I found it necessary to bring McPeck from the toms to identify Farley. who did then acknowledge in open Court that he was the man who was in the gig with McPeck and Brady. I don't think there is evidence sufficient to convict McPeck on a charge of 0850

Grand Larceny. and the most I think he could be convicted of is receiving stolen goods

I do think Farley + Brady. Can be convicted on the evidence and their record.

I have made + no promise to McBeck but I think Farley should be placed on trial first.

I don't think McBeck would plead guilty and trust to the recommendation of the Dist attorney. but wish that I have nothing to do. and will gladly give you a verbal explanation at anytime
you may set & remain

Respectfully, John Carey

He said Bander ^{said} were the lots of land

 That relying upon the representations

----- x
The People vs.
Daniel W. Buck.
----- x

The petition of Ambrose H. Purdy, asking that a plea of Assault in the Third Degree be accepted in this case, respectfully shows:

FIRST: That this course of accepting a plea in cases of this character has been pursued in many cases and is in the line of safe precedent. The petitioner refers your Honor to Justice Cowing who has many times accepted such pleas and also to Mr. Sparks the Clerk of this Court.

The alleged crime with which this man is charged, up to the passage of the bill, section of the Penal Code, was always treated as a mere act of disorderly conduct. By this section it is claimed that these acts are placed in the category of crime. It is extremely doubtful whether section was intended to cover any such case as this. On a most elaborate argument before Justice Andrews in what seems to me a parallel case he held that the section did not apply. The papers in the case of Imbach are here appended with the judgment of the Court on the back of them which may be a guide to us in this matter.

This alleged crime, up to the passage of the Penal

09 14

Code and from time immemorial, has been considered a vice and treated as such. The difficulties of defending against an accusation of this kind, as your Honor can readily see, are great. The calling of witnesses to disprove the act and also to the man's good character results in his destruction, although he may be absolutely acquitted. Witnesses as to character, while hearing for the first time the nature of the accusation and the acquittal of the defendant, will have in their minds an idea that possibly he might be guilty. He hesitates to take that course and appeals to the Court to allow him to enter a plea which does not necessarily carry with it the disgusting details of the charge in the indictment. His good character hitherto, the difficulty of making a defense, the fact that the court has always allowed men charged with this crime, unless there may be some aggravating circumstances, all appeal strongly to your Honor to allow a plea to be entered of Assault in the Third Degree.

I may state also that some consideration ought to be shown me in bringing the man in and in some sort assuring him that the Court would follow in the line of safe precedents and accept his plea.

If it were necessary, in addition to the recommendations as to good character that I have appended to this petition, I can add the affidavits of many men, reputable merchants in New York, who know the prisoner and who would cheerfully testify to his general good character.

09 15

He hesitates to call upon them, and I do not advise him to do so, because of the nature of the charge which is easily made and hard to defend against.

I most earnestly urge your Honor in the interests of justice to accept this man's plea and inflict upon him such punishment as you may think just. He has damaged nobody but himself and it does seem to me a case in which the Court should exercise all the clemency which the law will permit.

All of which is respectfully submitted by

Ambrose H. Purdy,
