PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Adolph Kahleberg

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. The defendant and myself were scuffling in the barroom, when I was cut, The defendant was under the influence of liquor or ~~Drugs~~ ^{Drugs} at the time. As far as I can learn he has borne a previous good character, and is the sole support of a wife and two children, who would be the sufferers if defendant was held. I therefore respectfully ask permission to withdraw the complaint herein and that the defendant be discharged.

Dated New York, June 12th 1890.

deposes and says: I am 29 years of age, and was born in Switzerland, and am a Confectioner by trade, I am in the United States since April 1884, and have never been arrested either in Europe or in this country before.

In Switzerland I had my own business at Lenzburg, Canton Argau, and since I am in this country worked for Mr. Kahnweiler of No: 146 Worth Street this City, the first two years steady and the balance during the Summer season.

About two years ago I opened a candy store at No: 670 11th. Ave and on account of the neighborhood being too rough I sold out and bought a store No: 2698-8th. Ave paying there fore $35. for fixtures &c.

In May 1889 I rented a Soda Water fountain from Matthews and Co. of 20th. Street and 1st. Ave. for the Summer season paying $15. rent for the season.

About 3 or 4 weeks thereafter I found that I could not make a living there and sold my stock and fixtures at auction through Mess: Alderman and Peiser of No: 274 Grand Street this city.

POOR QUALITY

CONFIDENTIAL

The proceeds of the sale amounted to about $50. and at the close thereof the fountain which I had rented from Matthews & Co. was left, the same not belonging to me.

Attending the sale was a Mr. Conway. I asked the auctioneer, Mr. Peiser, what could be done with the fountain. He said if you return it you will not receive back any part of your $15. but you have the right to sell the lease of it which you paid for." which I did and Mr. Conway was the buyer. The auctioneer and myself told the buyer to notify Matthews & Co. which he promised to do, saying that he would do business with Matthews & Co. and said that he would go there directly and inform them that the fountain was in his possession and that he would return it at the end of the season.

I had the name and address of the buyer on a slip of paper which I subsequently lost, while moving about as told further on.

The same day of the auction I moved my family next door to No: 2700. 8th. Avenue, and remained there from June 1st 1889 to March 1st. 1890, showing that I did not run away from the consequences of any act committed by me, and could have been found there during all that time.

Thereafter (about March 1, 1890) I was offered work in Guttenberg, N.J. in a Lard factory and moved there with my family.

I did not hear anything from Matthews & Co. till June of this year when one of Matthews & Co's employees came to me and told me that the fountain had not been returned and subsequently on July 3rd. 1890 I was arrested in New Jersey, and kept in prison there till July 16th. 1890 when I was brought to this city and confined in the Tombs.

The privilege or use of the fountain was sold to Mr. Conway for the balance of the season for the sum of $2. the amount showing also that there was no intention of selling the same outright, and the auctioneer told me I had a right to sell the lease.

1897, I sold his effects at auction in manner everything but said fountain and that was not sold. After the sale said defendant came to me and told me he had had said fountain but a note of it, and asked me what he had better do about it. A man giving the name of Conway and an address, said then to defendant that he dealt proposed that defendant transfer to him.

his lease of said fountain, saying that he would pay the rent on it for the remainder of the term if there was any to pay and at the expiration of the term would deliver it to said firm of John Matthews. Said Conway gave his name and address on a slip of paper to said defendant. Said Conway agreed to give said defendant $2 or $2⁰⁰ for his interest in the lease. Defendant asked me what he should do and I advised him to accept Conway's offer as Conway was dealing with said firm and had given his address. Defendant accepted Conway's offer and the money was paid to him. The defendant cannot speak English. I have been in business in this city for 25 years.

EDWARD H. BOYD being duly sworn says I reside at Number 404 Second Avenue in the City of New York. I am now in the employ of the Firm of John Matthews, composed of George and John H. Matthews, manufacturers and dealers in bottles and mineral waters, located at 331, 333 and 335 East 39th Street in the City of New York, and have been in their employ for the last eight years. That on or about April 1st 1900, the said Firm of John Matthews were the owners of a certain Soda Water apparatus known as A-03 Auto Reclaimer, and three pipes known as Leaders, and on said day at the City of New York, let the same to one Frederick Hull then living and doing business as a confec-tioner at 3608 5th Avenue in said City of New York, and said Frederick Hull then and there hired the same of the said Firm of John Matthews, composed as aforesaid, and such letting and hiring of said apparatus and said Leaders from said Firm of John Matthews composed as aforesaid to said Frederick Hull was made upon and in pursuance of an instrument in writing signed by said Hull and delivered by him to said Firm of John Matthews, composed as aforesaid, and thereupon and within a few days after the signing of said instrument as aforesaid, to wit, April 4th 1900, said apparatus and said Leaders were delivered by said Firm of John Matthews, composed as aforesaid, to said Hull at said place 3608 5th Avenue as stated aforesaid. That under and pursuant to said instrument, said Hull was to pay said Firm of John Matthews, Fifteen Dollars as follows: Five Dollars

cash, Five Dollars on delivery of said apparatus and leaders, and Five Dollars May 1st, and said Mull has paid said rental in full; the last payment of said rental was made May 10th 1888. Said instrument contained the following provision:

"I further agree not to draw from the said apparatus, any coverage not furnished by the Firm of John Matthews. I also covenant and agree not to transfer the possession of the above mentioned property, and to be responsible for its safe return, reasonable wear alone excepted, and in case of damage or breakage, I will pay to the owners, the full costs of repairs. Failure to comply with any of the conditions hereinafter specified, annuls and terminates this contract, and said Firm of John Matthews or their agents shall then have the right, with or without process of law, to enter my premises and remove the property herein mentioned, and to retain any sum already paid on account of this agreement, and the balance of rent then unpaid, and all claims and charges for loss or damage to apparatus shall at once become due and payable."

That said Firm of John Matthews have never received from said Frederick Mull or otherwise, since said delivery to said Frederick Mull, of said apparatus and leaders as stated aforesaid, said fountain and leaders as stated aforesaid, or either of them. That about six weeks ago I called upon the said Frederick Mull, when I found working at the factory or works of the American Cotton Oil Company at Guttenberg in the State of New Jersey, and I then and there

asked of and demanded from said Frederick Kull, the said apparatus and leaders, and he replied to my demand as aforesaid, that he had sold the same at private sale in New York for Two Dollars. I asked him when he had sold them to, and he answered that he did not know; that he would come to New York, on the following Sunday and look for them and the person when he sold them to. As he did not let me know the person when he sold them to or where they were, I called upon him again at said factory on the Thursday or Friday following the said Sunday he was to let me know the person to whom he sold them to, and asked him if he had been to New York, and whether he found the person when he sold them to, or discovered where the said apparatus and leaders were, and he said he had been to New York, but could not find the party. I then asked him to go to New York on the Monday following my second visit, to look for the said Apparatus and leaders, and I also then said to him that I would go with him to find them, and he replied that he would not do so, as he had consulted a lawyer about the matter, and that he advised him not to go to New York, as he would be arrested. The first knowledge that either I or the said Firm of John Matthews had of the fact that the said Frederick Kull had departed from New York, and that he had sold said apparatus and leaders as stated aforesaid, was about April 1880, and not before, and then it was first discovered either by myself or the said Firm of John Matthews that said Frederick Kull had sold his place of business 2323 8th Avenue about June 1880, and had departed from New York, as stated aforesaid, and thereupon said firm of John Matthews and I endeavored to find said Frederick Hull or his whereabouts, and it was only about the time that I called upon him at Guttentberg as stated aforesaid, that it was discovered through a confectioner, named David Auerbach of New York City, that said Frederick Hull had left New York, and gone to Guttentberg about said June 1890, where he now resides, and upon such discovery, said firm directed me to go to Guttentberg to see said Frederick Hull and I did go, saw him and had the several conversations with him as stated aforesaid. Said apparatus and leaders have never been sold to said Frederick Hull, and he has never had any ownership in the same, but merely hold the same as a bailee for him, as more fully appears by the said agreement of rental signed by said Frederick Hull and dated ~~the~~ April 1st 1890. A copy of said instrument of rental is hereto annexed and made a part of this affidavit; and said apparatus and leaders so sold by the said Frederick Hull as stated by him as aforesaid, were sold or disposed of ^{by said Frederick Hull} without the consent of either the said firm of John Matthews or any member thereof. The reason why the said sale of said apparatus and leaders and the departure of said Frederick Hull from New York, was not discovered before April 1890, is explained in this way: That upon the apparatus and leaders being delivered and rent paid as stated aforesaid, said firm's rental agent does not and did not again call at the place of the person so hiring said apparatus and leaders until the Spring following its delivery to see if the party so hiring desires to renew the hiring contract, and therefore said rental agent did not call to see said Hull until said April 1890, and then through said Amerbach as stated aforesaid, and the fact that said Hull was not at said store 2438 5th Avenue New York City aforesaid in said April 1890, gave said Firm of John Matthews and myself knowledge of said Frederick Hull having received and put said Firm of John Matthews and myself, as such employee, upon further inquiry, and such inquiry was carried on and said Hull visited at Gettysburg and the interviews followed as stated aforesaid. Upon the facts and circumstances as narrated aforesaid, I charge and believe that the said Frederick Hull knew that he had no right to sell said apparatus and loaders, and that he must have done it with the intent and design of cheating and defrauding the said Firm of John Matthews out of said apparatus and loaders, and that after such sale as aforesaid, he left New York with the intent to avoid the punishment for his wrong doing, and the facts and circumstances as stated aforesaid are submitted to the District Attorney for him to act as under the circumstances he thinks proper.
