PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,

VERSUS

J O S E P H N O R D E L L O

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself; that the alleged assault in this case arose purely from a friendly row, that I must confess I was the provoker, that I did not know what I was doing for the reason that I was quite under the influence of liquor; that I have known the defendant for over two years, during which time we never had a word or quarreled. I conclude by respectfully asking the Court to allow me to withdraw the complaint in this case, and I do hereby consent and request that the same may be withdrawn.
