Sixth District Police Court.STATE OF NEW YORK.
City and County of New York, } ss.Augustus Frey <sup>Sega Manufacturer</sup> 29-4/4
of No. 72 Courtland Street,

being duly Sworn, deposes and says, that on May 25th 1882

Harry Smith (nowhere) did by means of certain false representations by him made to deponent (and by means of a certain false ~~passed~~ and fraudulent token in writing to wit a check) with the felonious intent to cheat and defraud deponent, did obtain from deponent goods of the value of thirty five dollars and sixty two cents and eight dollars in cash and in all of the amount of one hundred and three dollars and sixty two cents. Said Smith came to deponent's place of business and falsely and wrongfully with intent to cheat and defraud deponent represented to him that he was going to open a saloon and wanted to purchase a quantity of Segars tobacco and Cigarettes, and that he was going to open the same saloon on that same night. Deponent believing the false pretense and representation to him made by said Smith gave to said Smith <sup>same cash</sup> goods to the amount of one hundred and three <sup>62/100</sup> dollars and received from said Smith a certain check drawn upon the National Park Bank for the sum and amount of one hundred and thirty one <sup>62/100</sup> dollars and cents.

Subscribed before me this

Said Smith falsely and with intent to cheat and defraud deponent represented to deponent that said check was good and that it would be paid by said bank when presented. Deponent believed said representations to be true and gave to said Smith the sum of eight dollars in cash and goods to the amount of ninety five <sup>62</sup>/<sub>100</sub> dollars as witness stated. Deponent presented said check at said ~~Terminal~~ Park Bank for payment when he was refused by the paying teller of said bank that said check was worthless and of no value and no such person as Chas Williams whose name is signed to said check having any account in said bank whereupon deponent charged said Smith with feloniously obtaining from him the within described property and cash by means of said false representations and by means of said false token in writing and prays said Court maybe held to answer as the law directs, said Smith has also admitted and confessed to deponent that the representations made to him relating to the opening of a saloon were false and that he did not intend to open any saloon, but that upon receiving said goods from deponent he Smith sold the same to one Busse who keeps a lager beer saloon at 20 Bayard Street in the city of New York where deponent found two empty sager boxes which deponent identifies as two of the boxes he sold to said Smith and which contained at the time sager

Hugh Donnelly Esq.
My Dear Sir

Sullivan worked for Mr Wood of Jersey City, drove a horse & wagon in junk business - he became intoxicated drove over to this City & put the horse in a stable & paid 50¢ for his keep. He says he intended to take the horse back, <sup>but fell asleep</sup> but when he became sober he was ashamed to go back and sent a boy who had been with him over to tell Mr Wood where his horse was and he supposed Mr Wood had his horse, but the boy failed to go & Mr Woods did not get his horse until Sullivan was arrested one month from the time he brought the horse over to this City - There does not appear to be any design to steal or commit a crime. I believe it to be his first Offense and I earnestly hope the Judge will deal leniently with the Prisoner, he has been several weeks in prison

Respectfully
J. Carter
